

Tulsa University's Golden Hurricane to Meet T.C.U. at Lee Stadium Today

COACH ACHER'S LADS PRIMED FOR HARDEST GAME OF SEASON HERE

Regular Line Will Oppose Texas Christian University Squad When Game is Called at 3 o'clock; Local Team Plans Aerial Attack; Visitors Will Land in Tulsa Early Saturday.

By L. L. STONE.
With the sting of a 16-0 defeat at the hands of the Texas Christian university last year still smarting, Tulsa university's Golden Hurricane will meet the collegians from Fort Worth on the Lee stadium gridiron at 3 o'clock this afternoon, in what will probably be the hardest fought game on the 1922 home schedule.

Although Coach A. M. Acher, who has developed one of the greatest teams ever representing the University of Tulsa on the football field, has put his new team through half of the season without a single defeat, his two games at home this season show the Tulsa followers nothing of the strength of the team. The Tulsa team, which is the local grid aggregation that won fame when it bowled over the Texas Aggies at the Lee stadium by a 13-0 score in one of the most spectacular and hardest fought games ever played on a Lee stadium gridiron. The Tulsa team, which is the local grid aggregation that won fame when it bowled over the Texas Aggies at the Lee stadium by a 13-0 score in one of the most spectacular and hardest fought games ever played on a Lee stadium gridiron.

Advance ticket sale yesterday indicated that the concrete stands and the temporary bleachers would be taxed to capacity for today's game and university officials last night stated that the attendance at the game would probably set a new record for a gridiron game in Tulsa. Today will be high school day. All students and faculty from the high school are invited to attend the game as guests of the university.

Acher's Men Ready.
Every last one of Acher's string is ready for today's game. The squad went through secret practice several days before the attack today and Friday afternoon Coach Acher and Larson put the boys through a light signal practice to keep them limbered up for the big battle.

"Pep" meetings were held at the university Friday and Saturday morning. A big "pep" meeting during the high school chapel yesterday morning. All of the yells of the university were practiced and plans were made for a big showing today. The high school band will furnish music for the occasion.

Style Is a Mystery.
Just how will the Tulsa university Golden Hurricane go about sweeping the Texas of their feet? That is the question that the football fans are kicking around just now. Did Acher show everything he had in the Texas Aggie game, which was witnessed by the entire Texas Christian team, or has he several new plays upon which he relies to shatter the T. C. U. defense? These questions and many more will be answered when the pick of the large field of football candidates trot out on the field.

Acher used slight football against the Oklahoma Baptists here a week ago, but it was generally agreed that the Tulsa mentor was just trying to strengthen his line of offense and to keep his secret game hidden from scouts who may have watched the game.

The Tulsa's uncorked their famous aerial attack, centering about the "snake" formation and routed the Texas Farmers. Since the Dallas game the locals have been perfecting this overhead attack for the Texas Christians today.

Following are the substitutes who may get into the game during the afternoon: Texas Christian university, Alexander R., Carson S., Mack 4, Stangle 15, Blank 16, Bender 17, Blank 19, Horton 21, Nicholson 22, Aahley 23, Blank 24, Blank 25, A. Camp 26, Knox 27, Blank 28, Ward 29, Thomas 30, Meade 31, Phillips 32 and Astell 33; Tulsa university, Beacom 11, Dunlap 21, Stokum 1, Trib 26, Stafford 25, Robertson 1, McCormick 14, Zeller 14, Hill 14 and Stewart 15.

Owasso-Collinsville Tie.
OWASSO, Oct. 27.—Owasso eleven held the Collinsville team to a scoreless tie in the game played on the local field today. Several players were taken out in the latter part of the game.

Okmulgee Loses Again.
OKMULGEE, Oct. 27.—Okmulgee high school lost its fourth straight conference football game to Guthrie here today by a score of 19 to 6.

Greenleaf Piles Up Lead.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Ralph Greenleaf of New York, national pocket billiard champion, outclassed Bennie Allen of Kansas City, Mo., tonight in their second block of the challenge match for the title. The player added with the score standing: Greenleaf 319; Allen 124. Greenleaf made 152 points tonight and Allen 24. The high run was Greenleaf 28; 1 of which, however, came from an unfinished run last night. The next high was the champion's 25 in the 24th inning.

PRINCETON WILL MEET CHICAGO IN FEATURE CONTEST

Stagg Rehearses for Big Contest Behind Locked Gates Friday

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—With the final rehearsal over the stage was set tonight for the biggest football game in Chicago's history tomorrow, when Princeton meets Chicago in an intercollegiate contest that promises to attract the attention of the gridiron world.

The 32,000 football fans fortunate enough to obtain tickets for the game were eagerly awaiting the referee's whistle that will start the hostilities, while thousands of less fortunate Chicagoans were making frantic last-minute efforts to obtain tickets and were offering any price up to $100 for a seat costing $3.

Tickets Sold Out.
Demand for tickets to the game reached unprecedented proportions. Although every seat in Stagg field was sold, thousands of disappointed applicants for tickets deluged the offices with requests. Banks, presidents, brokers, society leaders and captains of industry sent messengers out with instructions to buy seats at any cost. Several arrests were made of scalpers and officials at university scorned tickets with their efforts to stop the practice of selling tickets for many times their face value.

The invading Tigers, coming into action behind locked gates on Stagg field for a final light signal drill, shortly after their arrival. When the squad reached the field, the gates were locked and no outsiders were permitted to witness the workout. After the Tigers finished, the Chicago Maroons, under the direction of Coach Stagg, went through their final drill.

The Maroons also worked out behind locked gates, and the 61-year-old coach, no doubt, had plenty to say to his men to heighten their spirits for the impending contest. Numerous new plays, which the Maroons have been developing for a long time, will be sprung tomorrow by Stagg, whose team scored 9 to 0 triumph over Princeton last year.

Both Teams Ready.
The Tigers, after their workout, were full of confidence, but not overconfident. They feel the team is better equipped to meet the Maroons than last year's team and they say they would not be surprised if they were last fall.

"We realize that we have a hard game, but we are out to win despite all opposition," said Coach "Bill" Stagg of the Tigers. "The workout this afternoon was just what the boys need after their long trip. What they need most now is rest. They will be in good condition for the contest tomorrow. We believe we have an even chance for victory and that we have a stronger team than the one that faced Chicago last year."

Coach Stagg declined to predict a Chicago victory, saying: "The game should result in a draw."

JOHNNY TILLMAN WINS DECISION OVER MORRISSEY

Newspaper Men Declare Salt Lake City Lad Was Easy Victor

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 27.—Johnny Tillman, St. Paul welterweight, won the referee's decision over Lee Morrissey, of Salt Lake City, in a 12-round bout here tonight.

Newspaper writers at the ringside declared that Morrissey was robbed of the decision, giving him the best of 10 rounds. With one round even, Tillman was credited by sport writers with only one round, the first.

In the fourth round, Morrissey hooked a left to the stomach and sent over a right to the jaw, which put the St. Paul man down. Tillman claimed a foul and Referee Walter Bates, of Kansas City, sent the men to their corners, giving Tillman a five minute rest, after which the bout was resumed. It was the unanimous opinion of the newspaper writers that Morrissey's blow, which landed behind his ear, was a foul, according to the newspapermen.

The referee gave Nate Jackson and Matt McKee, both Oklahoma City bantamweights, a draw after 10 rounds, but the press men declared McKee won easily, having the better of the rounds with four clean punches.

AWAIT FIREWORKS WHEN SEARCY AND CAM RUSSELL MEET

O. H. Searcy will have something to say to Russell, especially during "Cam's" meeting, and in all probability it is believed, whether he is invited or not.

Searcy, it is said, is preparing a long list of questions which he will be prepared to ask the fiery "Cam." It is generally understood that Searcy's questions are likely to explode a verbal pyrotechnical display and Muskogeeans are prepared to take in the fun.

Searcy was pardon attorney under Governor Robertson at one time. He is now liquidating office for the Central State bank here. During a recent meeting addressed by Russell at Haskell, Searcy and Russell were the principals and almost came to blows following conflicting speeches on the candidacy of Mayor Walton.

Society women in New York City have started a movement to provide bathing stations throughout that city so men out of employment can keep clean and presentable while looking for work.

CORNHUSKERS TO MEET SOONERS ON BOYD GRIDIRON

Valley Clashes Provide Plenty of Excitement for Grid Fans

NORMAN, Oct. 27.—The university of Oklahoma football eleven spent two hours this afternoon in signal drill and perfecting its aerial game as the final grooming for the Nebraska wonder, seven Saturday afternoon. Ben G. Owen, veteran member of the Missouri valley conference, followed his men closely and gave them advice here, corrected there, and in every way smoothed out his machine for what is the greatest test of the season on Oklahoma's schedule.

Three surprises came with the announcement of the line-up. They are all in the line. Owen will be at guard, instead of James Thompson. Cullen has not been in the game this fall on account of injuries but the veteran worked credibly against the Cornhuskers last season and knows their style of play.

James Penick will start at left tackle instead of Isabelle White, the big fellow who has played most of the time this season. White is still suffering from minor injuries received last week, but probably will go into the line-up before the game is over.

The third change is at end. Clinton Steinberger will open instead of Matt Matthews, who was generally thought the most likely to start. These shifts reduce the weight of the Sooners somewhat, yet it gives an average of more experience.

The Cornhuskers have all its hope on the fighting spirit of the Sooners and the uncorking of a surprise aerial offense to stop the great Nebraska eleven.

TWO CHOICE DISHES ARE ON SCHEDULE
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—Tomorrow's football menu in the Missouri Valley conference offers two choice dishes for followers of the gridiron sport. The first is the Nebraska-Oklahoma clash at Norman. While the second is the Kansas-Kansas Aggies scrap at Manhattan.

The powerful Cornhuskers are conceded the edge over Oklahoma. The Sooners, however, are expected to fight every minute of the game. Their dogged persistence was shown in the scrum with K. S. A. C. last week when they scored a touchdown in the last few minutes of play and thus tied the score.

Ben G. Owen, Sooners coach, has been drilling his men in aerial attack and considerable forward passing is anticipated.

The K. S. A. C. game for the unofficial championship of Kansas will be closely contested, according to all predictions. Both teams, especially the Aggies, are hampered by crippled players. The state university has nearly always won the annual game with the Aggies although often by a close margin.

Iowa State against Washington university at Ames is the only other conference game on the schedule. Ames is slightly the favorite.

Missouri plays St. Louis university at St. Louis while Grinnell is matched with Coe college at Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Drake has no game scheduled.

VIRGIL JONES' SAPULPA CLAN ROUTS CUSHING

El Reno Forfeits Game to Champions; Caywood Is Star

SAPULPA, Oct. 27.—Coach Virgil Jones' Sapulpa high school champions tucked another football victory under their belts here this afternoon when they defeated Cushing high, which had come here to replace El Reno, the latter having forfeited because of injury to players. The score was 49 to 7.

Cushing had the honor of being the first high school to trespass beyond the Sapulpa goal line this year after only a few minutes of play in the first quarter when Hamilton, one of the victors' half backs, got his hands on a fumbled ball in the Sapulpa backfield and tried to score yards down an open field for a touchdown. Owen kicked goal.

Passes "Fliver" Out.
The aerial game came a little more into prominence today, both teams making numerous attempts at the forward and both completing only a few of the attempts.

Evenly matched in weight the two eleven put up a hard battle with straight football was being used. The Cushing crew was an alert, hard-working machine—about the stuff that has appeared here—and the blue and white fought for everything it got.

Loose playing by Sapulpa in the opening periods made it look, for a time, like the invaders were going to spring a surprise on the champions and their followers. A shift in manner of snapping into the game, which looked like too much confidence, gave Cushing some big gains in the first half and was responsible for the tally that broke Sapulpa's string of blanks for opponents.

Nebraska local line was hammered harder and more successfully today than in any previous match and fast Cushing men drove their way through to interrupt plays by the Jonesmen.

Caywood, who did the kicking for Sapulpa yesterday, set a mark for high school lads to shoot at when he completed seven kicks for the additional point after touchdown in a row.

Sapulpa's next game is to come next Friday at Stillwater when Coach Jones and his entry journey to that city.

CHILD KIDNAPED BY HER FATHER
A child and escaped in an awaiting automobile, according to Mrs. Warlick.

J. G. Warlick, grandfather of the child, who was away from home at the time of the incident, said tonight that his son "had caused a great deal of trouble in the past few years, and that he had spent a great deal of money on him."

"But this is the climax," Warlick declared. "We want to catch the boy and bring him back and have him put in the penitentiary." Warlick added he believed his son had kidnapped the child in an attempt to extort money from him.

Shamrock Defeats Olton
SHAMROCK, Oct. 27.—Shamrock defeated Olton today 35 to 6, displaying a line of football seldom seen in high school games.

The university has nearly always won the annual game with the Aggies although often by a close margin.

Football Injuries Fatal.
ALBANY, Oct. 27.—Maynard Bliven, 17, quarter back of the Albany high school team, died today as a result of injuries received in the Albany-Salem high school football game last Friday. Bliven had suffered a bruised shoulder and had been similarly injured previously. Complications caused death.

Eastern Pigskin Season at Height In Today's Games

Important Games Face Big Teams in All Parts of Country

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The peak of the eastern pigskin season will be reached tomorrow.

Three games of outstanding interest in this section will be staged this side of the Alleghenies, while two marquee teams journey west for intercollegiate bouts.

The two United States service eleven are called to stellar roles, with the army battling Yale at New Haven and Navy tackling Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. The third big eastern clash will occur in Cambridge, when Harvard and Dartmouth renew football relations after a lapse of 19 years.

New Teams Meet.
An odd circumstance is the fact that of the 11 most important games of the day, only 4 will be between institutions that met on the football field last year.

West Point enters the Yale bowl with a slightly more impressive record than that accumulated by the blue this season.

The soldiers have played five games to date, winning all for a total of 112 points to opponents' six.

Of the five games played by Yale, Carnegie Tech and Iowa have played the strongest eleven encountered. Tech was defeated 13 to 6, but Iowa won from the blue, 6 to 0. The Eli's have shown flashes of a strong offense and fight hard when defending their own goal line, but experts have criticized the eleven's team play.

Harvard Has Edge.
Harvard appears to have the edge over Dartmouth. Extreme alertness in following the ball, careful selection of plays and a powerful defense when the opposition was threatened have been the outstanding features of the Cambridge campaign.

Dartmouth has not met an opponent outside New England this season, and lost to Vermont a week ago.

The navy has already conquered two formidable eleven, in Bucknell and Georgia Tech, and should be able to win from Pennsylvania. The Annapolis squad contains an unusual number of powerful and fast-moving players and the preponderance of weight and speed will be with the sailors.

Sophomores Open Inter Class Year With Senior Clan
The sophomores and juniors heavyweights will tip off the lid of the interclass football schedule today when they clash at Lee stadium. Both teams are well prepared for the contest and the game is sure to be a hard fought one.

Both squads have been through hard practice lately and are well trained for the opening clash. The sophomores and juniors will be a chance to play. Coach Crosby of the sophomores and Coach Leoscher of the seniors have good hopes for their respective teams.

TULSA HIGH TO BATTLE WICHITA ON GRID TODAY

Rau's Men Try "Stuff" in First Inter-state Game

Special to The World.
WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 27.—Coach E. W. Rau and his gang of fighting Crimson and Cream from Tulsa high school landed in Wichita this afternoon to do battle with the local high school eleven in their first interstate game of the season Saturday afternoon. In a game which will be packed from end to end, according to advance ticket sale.

Tomorrow's game should be one of the hardest fought games of the year here. Tulsa and Wichita are about evenly matched, man for man, and although dope favors the Oklahomans a slight shade, the local boys are fighting mad and are out to redeem themselves somewhat by defeating Tulsa. End beat.

The visitors went through a light workout before the large crowd that followed the Tulsa lads to the football field late today. Rau sent his boys through a light signal practice for the game, then open up a show a thing during the few minutes they worked.

Wichita is completely "sold" for the game. The new stadium which will hold nearly ten thousand people will be packed from end to end, according to advance ticket sale.

Little Chance for An Iowa-Nebraska Post-season Clash

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 27.—Hopes for a post-season football game between the Iowa Hawkeyes and the Nebraska Cornhuskers have apparently been dashed. The proposal for the post-season game between the two schools made by officials of the Ak-Sar-Ben was met with enthusiasm by Nebraska university officials, but the proposal was not received so well by the Iowa school. In response to a telegram asking Iowa's terms to meet the Cornhuskers here, Coach Howard Jones declared that a post-season game was impossible because of conference rules prohibiting such a contest.

In the past Nebraska and Iowa have met 18 times, of which Nebraska has won 12 and tied three.
