The Price Bindery.
The George W. Price book bindery, which was recently purchased by The Evening Times Publishing company, is being moved today to the company's building on Third street and will soon be installed for business. The bindery will be in charge of Mr. George Price, who needs no introduction to the business men of Grand Forks, he having been long identified with the business interests of the city. Being a first-class workman, patrons of the company are certain of first-class work in this department as well as in all the others.

Too Frank.
A Grand Forks young lady who spent the recent holidays with eastern friends, made a slip of the tongue the other day that proves the old saw, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." A young man for whose opinion she cared much, was a great admirer of beautiful hands. The young lady had received many compliments on her own beautiful, shapely hands, but to please the young man mentioned, while on her visit she had her hands treated by an eminent specialist and when she returned home they would have been the envy of DuBarry himself. During the first call of the young man she thought to call attention to the compliment she had paid him and said, "Do you know, Henry, that my hands are so much smaller than they were when I left that I can wear gloves two sizes smaller?" "What was done to them?" asked the young man. She thoughtlessly replied, "I had them squeezed," and now the young man does not speak.

No Baseball Enthusiasm.
Harry Falk, one of the enthusiastic fans of Crookston and a partner of Sam Rosenthal of that city, who has backed the Crookston Northern league team during the entire time of its existence, told The Evening Times today that he did not believe that there was any hope of a baseball team in the city over the Red this season. The business men are disgusted and the fans who have enthusiasm have not the wherewithal and a team cannot thrive on enthusiasm, as their experience last season indicates.

Good Crowds.
One place that seems to hold its share of patronage since the Christmas rush is the ice rink. Every evening sees large crowds of jolly skaters enjoying themselves to the limit at this exhilarating pastime.

Buy Two Offices.
Paul Waterstrout of Crookston was in the city last night enroute to Crookston from Langdon. Mr. Waterstrout is engaged with Christensen & Strander as an abstractor. He will resign Jan. 20 and will go into business for himself. He has purchased a hill interest in the office owned by H. M. Erickson, formerly of this city, and also a half interest in an abstract office at Langdon. He will operate both from Langdon, hiring someone to look after his interests at Grafton. Paul is a hustler and an up-to-date abstractor.

Selling Much Machinery.
D. W. Luke, the well-known machinery dealer of this city, was a passenger to Devils Lake this morning on matters of business. Mr. Luke was for some time the president of the Minnesota and Dakota Implement Dealers' association and is well versed in the conditions which prevail in the business in this section. He says that the outlook for the season is good, was never better in the history of the state. The implement houses, wholesale and retail, are preparing for a record-breaking business.

Harold Nelson Company Coming.
The Harold Nelson company will receive the contract for the new court house at the end of the month. The first night they will play Damon and Pythias, under the auspices of the local K. P. lodge. A large audience is guaranteed on that evening through the efforts of the Knights. The company is very popular here and the advance agent who passed through the city last evening says the entire company is eagerly looking forward to the visit to the city.

Business Good Out West.
William Anglim passed through the city this morning enroute to Crookston from Seattle. Mr. Anglim is one of the young men who has spent most of his life in the Red river valley, his father having been a member of the firm of Fontaine & Anglim, who are succeeded by the Wright Ruggles company. Mr. Anglim is engaged in the manufacture of shirts in Seattle and says that business is very good on the coast this winter.

Joined the Marines.
Will Allen, who was connected for a few days with The Evening Times, enlisted in the United States marine service yesterday and left last evening for New York city. Mr. Allen will spend three years, at least, under the discipline of Uncle Sam. The marine service offers many inducements to a young man and The Evening Times wishes Mr. Allen rapid promotion.

A Distinguished Visitor.
F. L. Bohn, chief deputy grand master of the Ancient Order United Workmen of the state, was among the visitors at The Evening Times office today, while enroute to Fargo from an official visit to various points in the northern part of the state. Mr. Bohn, who is an enthusiastic Workman, reports that order to be in an unprecedented flourish condition at present.

Goes to "Old Kaintuck."
Mr. John F. Morin, prominent in business and social circles at Willard, was in the city today enroute for Louisville, Kentucky, where he will enjoy his first vacation in eight years as the guest of friends. "Johnny" Morin is one of the most popular young business men in Pembina county, his trips being only limited to the number of his acquaintances.

Take Body Home.
D. C. Donald and Mrs. E. C. Severy, brother and sister of Andrew Donald, the young man killed at the Draper farm Sunday, arrived in the city last evening from Minneapolis. The remains of the unfortunate young man will be taken to Elk River today for interment.

Tried Case.
Judge C. H. Corliss returned last evening from Lakota where he attended the session of the Nelson county district court. He appeared for the Imperial Elevator company in a suit involving several large grain deals. It is a jury case and the verdict has not yet reached Judge Corliss.

Next Lecture Wednesday Evening.
The next lecture in the "Practical Talk Course" at the Y. M. C. A. will occur next Wednesday evening at 8:40 o'clock. Dr. Adams will take the audience down the St. Lawrence. It is proved as much of a success as Prof. Bryant's talk last evening, the gymnasium will be filled.

Business Slow in Valley.
N. J. Nelson, connected with a local machinery house, left last evening for Beltrami and other points on the Minnesota side of the river. Mr. Nelson says the collections are slow owing to the hard crop failure in the valley through the excessive rains last fall.

Mayor Duis Leaves.
This evening Mayor Duis leaves for Kansas City, where he will attend the National Federation of Implement Dealers. Mayor Duis is the chairman of the committee on threshers and expects to spend the remainder of the week in attendance on the convention.

Malevolent Prosecution.
Attorney Scott Rex is at Lakota today attending court. He appears in a malevolent prosecution case. A party accused of stealing a wheel, but found to be innocent on trial, is suing the authorities to recover damages for the alleged malicious prosecution.

Trying Case Today.
States Attorney Wineman did not get back from Minot last evening where he went in connection with the case against the Ward county commissioners. The case was called last evening and was continued today.

Leaves for the East.
This morning V. Stefansson left for Edinberg where he will visit a sister between trains today. He will return to the city this evening and will leave for the east where he will resume his studies and teaching at Harvard.

Funeral Today.
The funeral of J. B. Blue occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Norman's undertaking rooms. Rev. Beadles of the First Methodist church officiated. The interment was made in the Grand Forks cemetery.

Miss Mollie Davy has returned to her school at Manville after a week's vacation spent here as the guest of relatives and friends.

Don't forget the evening school at the Northwestern Business College beginning Monday, Jan. 8th. Book-keeping, shorthand and all the common branches taught.

Go to W. J. Edwards, architect, Grand Forks, N. D., for your plans and specifications.

Building & Loan Association.
The meeting of the stockholders of the Building and Loan association mentioned in The Evening Times last evening proved an important one and interesting figures were given out by Secretary Lander.

The following directors were elected by the stockholders: John Eikhof, Frank Gilby, Don McDonald, E. J. Lander, W. H. Burr, C. E. Rand, O. A. Webster, C. S. Dow, H. N. Wells and Max Rabinovich.

At a meeting of these directors the following officers were elected: President, Frank Gilby; vice president, Don McDonald; secretary, E. J. Lander; treasurer, W. H. Burr; attorney, H. L. Whithed.

Nineteen series of stocks have been opened and twelve of these have been retired, leaving eight in force, including one opened this year.

The society has 335 share-holders and 144 loans upon city property in force. It made 59 loans during 1905, upon residences in this city, employing $56,341 for that purpose. Its average loan is $756.65. The total assets of the society now amount to $124,586.00.

Contract Awarded.
Contractor Dinnie received a telephone message from Hillsboro today stating that the contract for the new court house to be erected there has been let to J. Skoogland of St. Paul. The following bids on the job were considered by the board yesterday:

Skogland, St. Paul, Minn. $4,329
Johnson & Powers, Fargo, Minn. 44,485
Sorenson, St. Paul, Minn. 65,400
Public Bros., Fargo, Minn. 65,750
Hoyers Bros., Fargo, Minn. 69,140
N. W. Construction Co., 70,000

Work on the building will be commenced early in the spring.

Elevators Doing Well.
N. J. Taylor of Mecklenok, one of North Dakota's substantial farmers, was a caller at the court house this afternoon. He is interested in a couple of farmers' elevators in that section and contends that the price of wheat was much better owing to the competition of the stock companies. He is very enthusiastic over the organization of the producers for self protection.

Takes Boy Home.
This morning Sheriff Turner left for Towner with the Young Creek boy, Gus Mallis, who was hurt while railroading on the Great Northern. He was compelled to submit to an operation and lost his limb. At the recent session of the county commissioners Sheriff Turner was authorized to take him home as soon as he was able to travel.

Had Enjoyable Party.
There was a very pleasant party at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Pettibone last evening. Some thirty people were present, mostly married folks, and a most delightful evening was spent. Games were played and light refreshments served.

Trade Picking Up.
The dull season always following the holidays seems to be about over and according to a prominent merchant trade has again picked up and shoppers are making daily rounds of the department stores. Trade for this time of the year is exceptionally good, according to merchants.

A January Thaw.
A genuine January thaw is in progress today and the snow is fast softening up under the warm rays of Old Sol. The country roads are in bad shape and the sleighing is not very good. The thaw will probably ruin sleighing completely.

Weather Map.
Canadian northwest—clear, zero to 26 above. Northwest—clear, to 36 above. West—clear, zero to 22 above. Southwest, clear 8 to 18 above. Ohio valley—clear, light snows, 4 to 16 above.

Chin Finck Returns.
This morning Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Finck returned from an extended wedding journey to Detroit, Mich., Chicago, Duluth, etc. They will make their home in the Dinnie flats.

If you want the best quality, full weight and prompt service, telephone Red Lake Lumber Co., phone 318 for all kinds of coal, Pocahontas included.

Mrs. W. W. Todd, a sister of Rev. Miller of the First Baptist church of Grand Forks on an ice track and suitable purses to be put up for match races. The petition is being liberally endorsed and a considerable sum has already been pledged.

It is the purpose of the committee to pull off the best races ever held in Grand Forks on an ice track and outside horses will be in evidence at the events. The track is in a fine one and if kept in good shape will attract some speedy talent from other cities of the valley. The petition being circulated reads as follows:

We, the undersigned, agree to pay the sum set opposite our names for the fund to maintain and keep in shape the ice track on the Red river and for suitable purses for a weekly race matinee to be held on said track.

A Lecture of Interest

Professor Bryant Tells the Y. M. C. A. Members of the Great Industries of the United States!

The first of the regular lectures to be given before the Y. M. C. A. by local men, occurred last evening. There were over one hundred men present and if the entire course is as instructive as Prof. Bryant's talk on "The Great Industries of the World," the course will be a liberal education.

Prof. Bryant's talk was splendidly illustrated by stereopticon views and lasted an hour and a quarter.

The lecture began with a description of the waterway from Duluth to the Atlantic seaboard. A vivid description was given of the great fleets on the lakes, the canals and the amount of traffic carried. St. Mary's canal has the largest lock in the world; the Welland canal has more locks than any other canal in the world. It is but 27 miles in length and has 25 locks, which lift a vessel 365 feet in that distance. He described the North Sea canal, the Manchester ship canal, the Corinthian canal, the Suez, etc.

Prof. Bryant then gave an interesting description of the great railroad engineering triumphs of the world. The views and statistics were intensely interesting.

The iron and coal industry was next described. Prof. Bryant says that the iron ore always goes to the coal. This together with the great manufacturing interests of the east, accounts for the ore being shipped to Pittsburgh and other points in the coal region from the west.

The cotton industry was followed from the seed to the finished product and it proved a very interesting journey. Prof. Bryant made the startling statement that the freight on cotton from New Orleans to Fall River, Mass. was greater than it was River, Mass. to Manchester, England. The entire lecture was intensely interesting and was most ably delivered. Prof. Bryant will continue the talk on "Great Industries" at some future date.

GAYNOR AND GREEN

Men Who Were Fugitives From Uncle Sam's Officers Brought to Justice. Charged With Embezzlement of Government Money.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 9th.—After four years in exile as fugitives from the law, Benjamin Greene and John Gaynor appeared in federal court today to answer to several indictments charging them with conspiracy to defraud the government, embezzlement and receiving money known to have been embezzled from the United States. A discussion of the manner of procedure took up the time of the court.

PLAN WEEKLY MATINEE

Horsemen of the City Plan for Races on Ice Track and Fund is Being Raised.

If the plans of several prominent horsemen of the city materialize, a weekly matinee of races will be held on the ice track this winter and there will be something of interest in the events for local horse lovers. A petition is being circulated today by members of a committee recently selected, calling for contributions to a fund for the maintenance of the track and for suitable purses to be put up for match races. The petition is being liberally endorsed and a considerable sum has already been pledged.

DINNIE TO RUN

Former Chief Executive of the City Announces His Candidacy for Office in Response to Urgent Pressure of His Friends.

Mr. John Dinnie stated today to an Evening Times reporter that he would be a candidate for mayor at the coming election.

Mr. Dinnie, who has served this city in that capacity before, had not intended to come out again as a candidate for this office, but considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon him and he has finally agreed to make the run.

A number of the representative men of the city, considering the efficient services rendered by Mr. Dinnie in former years, and knowing that he is now so situated that he can afford to devote more time to the duties of the office, if elected, than he was formerly able to devote to it, and more than any other individual in this city could devote to it, have pressed Mr. Dinnie into agreeing to become a candidate for the office.

That is not the only reason why many of our citizens are anxious to have Mr. Dinnie run. They know that he is a man who has the welfare of the city at heart, who will devote his time to improving our city and benefiting it in every way. To express this desire on the part of some of the residents of the city there has been circulated, of late, a petition in the form of a letter to Mr. Dinnie requesting that he be a candidate for Mayor of Grand Forks. This letter is signed by men of all classes, business men, professional men and a very large portion of the laboring men of the city. Mr. Dinnie has always been a friend of the laboring man and the laboring classes have not forgotten the fact.

Mr. Dinnie is leaving tonight for an extended trip. He will be gone until about the first of March, when he will return to the city. He will at that time be pleased to answer any questions as to his candidacy and as to his future course of conduct, if elected.

GAS REPORT UP

City Council Hears Report From Prof. Babcock at Special Session.

As The Evening Times goes to press the city council is in session for the purpose of considering the report of the special committee on the gas and electric light question. The message of Mayor Duis was read, advising such legislation as will best serve the interests of the people of the city and at the same time do justice to the gas company. The report of the special committee was read which thoroughly discussed the several phases of the matter and offered some suggestions on the most practical remedies. Thereport of Prof. Babcock showing the value of city gas as compared with that of Fargo was read by him, and stripped of technical verbiage is that the gas of this city is worth twice as much for heating and lighting purposes as that of Fargo. It contains less than one-fourth as much adulterants. The trouble as to the cost of gas is that the franchise under which the company is operating was granted in territorial days, and gives the city council but little authority or control over the regulation of prices to consumers. The company itself, having sold its bonds on its status under the charter, is not in a position to permit a change without the consent of their bondholders, and this would be very difficult to obtain. Mayor Duis recommended, as did also the special committee, that legal steps be taken to determine the status of the city in reference to the matter.

COMMISSIONIONERS

(Special to The Evening Times.)
Minot, N. D., Jan. 9.—After exhaustive arguments last night and today the district court holds the county commissioners for trial on fifteen charges, overruling Greene's demurrer to jurisdiction. There is talk on the streets of calling a grand jury and proceeding criminally.

Today's News in Brief.
Pekin, Ill., Jan. 9.—The Illinois Swine Breeders and Experts Judges' association began its eighteenth annual meeting here today. Prominent stock breeders from many parts of the middle west are in attendance.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 9.—The annual meeting of the Michigan Engineering society began here today and will continue over tomorrow. The attendance is large and the program one of great interest to the members of the engineering profession.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 9.—The National Athletic club has arranged an attractive program of bouts for its show tonight. The wind-up will bring together Harry Scroggs and Danny Lewis for a 15-round contest.
