Thine Eyes Still Shined.
Thine eyes still shined for me, though far
I lonely roved the land or sea;
And I beheld you evening star,
Which yet benefits not me.

This morn I climbed the misty hill
And roamed the pastures through;
How danced thy form before my path
Amidst the deep-eyed dew!

When the redbird spread his sable wing
And showed his side to flame
When the rosebud opened to the rose,
In both I read thy name.

Frank Kent spent part of last week at Maple Lake looking after his summer home there and getting it ready for occupancy again. The Kent cottage is one of the prettiest at Maple Lake and during the summer they do a great deal of entertaining.

Mrs. R. C. Fretz will leave Grand Forks for her new home in Minneapolis. She has many warm friends here who will regret her departure.

Mrs. Owen Ashbrooke came in from Larimore Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Maxwell. She remained over for a day the guest of Mrs. Charles Dow.

Mrs. Charles Comings entertained the young ladies of the Health club Monday evening. Dainty refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon spent. There were ten members present.

Mrs. R. C. Gillis, wife of Conductor Gillis of the Great Northern, was seriously ill the early part of the week but at last reports was much better.

The degree team of the Yoeman lodge held a drill Saturday evening, after which Miss Rosenbergs, the captain, gave the members a St. Patrick's supper.

Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Albertson, Miss Minnie Albertson was married to Mr. Christian Rousing, the Rev. A. J. Hultung of the Zion Lutheran church officiating.

An invitation from the Grand Forks commandery of the Knight Templars has been extended to the Constable commandery at Crookston, and accepted to attend church here on Easter Sunday. Last year the Grand Forks lodge attended church at Crookston.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arnold of East Grand Forks surprised that worthy couple Saturday evening, it being their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Packard have moved from North Fourth street and will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wham at 415 Cheyenne avenue.

Mr. F. A. Maxwell, who was so lately bereaved of his wife, left Thursday evening accompanied by his little son James, his mother, Mrs. C. Maxwell, his mother-in-law, Mrs. L. S. McGrew, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Theodore Williams. He will visit his relatives in Chicago, a brother in Marshalltown, Iowa, and his late wife's relatives in Lincoln, Neb., before returning, and will probably be gone a month. The infant son, born last Sunday, will be taken care of for the present by Mrs. F. A. Stoltz of Devils Lake. Either Mr. Maxwell's mother or sister will return with him to keep house.

The Larimore people who came in to attend the Maxwell funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Bierley, Mrs. C. O. Platt, Mrs. Oscar H. Phillips, Mrs. O. E. Ashbrooke, Mrs. Edith Litton, Mr. Charles Eastgate, Dr. Webb and J. F. Murphy.

Mrs. R. M. Lindin, who has been improved in health at last reports.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Little were tendered a farewell reception by the Royal Neighbors lodge Thursday evening. They leave shortly for the coast, where they will locate. The best wishes of many friends go with them.

Mrs. J. E. Cooley entertained a small company at dinner Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clifford and Mrs. Cutts of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Cutts of Minneapolis, nee Miss Edna Stokes of this city, is the guest of Mrs. Fred Clifford for a few days.

Miss Veronica Murphy, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. George S. Thomas, returned Saturday to her home in Chicago. Her sister, Miss Evelyn, will remain here for quite a long visit.

Mrs. C. O. Platt, from Larimore, and Mrs. Stoltz, from Devils Lake, came in Monday evening to extend their sympathy to Mr. F. A. Maxwell and family in their late bereavement.

Mr. Fred Clifford returned to Minneapolis Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. E. Cooley received an interesting postal card from Mrs. Fred Nash Monday, written in Washington's kitchen at Mount Vernon.

With the assistance of her daughter, Miss Bessie Lond, a company of the friends of Mrs. C. P. Lond gathered at that good lady's home Monday and reminded her that it was her birthday anniversary by the presentation of a beautiful Haviland china tea set. A dainty lunch as well as games for the amusement of the guests had been prepared and the afternoon was pleasantly spent. At the close of the game "progressive peanuts," Mrs. A. Andye was awarded the first prize and Mrs. M. J. Currie the second.

Mrs. G. M. Booker, nee Louise De Lorimer of this city, was operated on for appendicitis in the hospital at Los Angeles, Cal., a few days ago and at last reports was doing nicely.

Invitations have been received at Devils Lake for the wedding of Miss Eulalia Phillips, formerly of that city, to Mr. Howard A. Field at Spokane, Wash. The wedding will take place on March 6.

The ball given by the Masons in Masonic temple Thursday evening was a delightful affair and attended by about forty couple.

Miss Vivian Holmes came home Friday evening from Reynolds, where she is teaching, and will spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Holmes, on Reeves avenue.

Mr. H. J. Maxfield of Carrington, N. D., one of last year's graduates from the law school, will arrive this evening, to be the guest of friends over Sunday.

The last reports from Mr. D. M. Holmes and F. W. Schlaberg were that they would spend Sunday in Louisville, Ky., and start from there for home.

Miss Laura Pace arrived Wednesday from England and will be the guest of Mrs. Pace on South Sixth street for some time.

Miss Marion Titus, the talented young pianist, is to accompany Miss Pace at the concert on the 7th. Mr. Shefstad, the local violinist, will act as piano accompaniment for the first time in public and will accompany Mr. Heide, the violinist, on the piano.

An auspicious occasion at Reynolds, N. D., was the banquet given Friday evening in honor of Messrs. John and Alex Austin, who leave shortly for Manitoba, where they will go into business and make their home. These two popular gentlemen have been citizens of Grand Forks county for nineteen years, sixteen of which have been spent at Reynolds, and the high esteem in which they are held was mani-festated by the cordial manner of each citizen of Reynolds and vicinity, responding to make the occasion one to be always remembered by the recipients of the honor. The arrangements of the affair were carried to completion by Dr. Halliday, the mayor of Reynolds. Seventy guests were invited and early in the evening gathered in the opera house, where twelve tables at cards were played.

At the close of the game the guests adjourned to the Hotel Rockaway, where a delicious banquet had been prepared. Hon. Ben LeValley was made toastmaster and in a cordial and fitting manner introduced the different speakers of the evening, among them being Mr. Hans Anderson, county auditor, and his deputy, Mr. John Nelson of this city.

After the various toasts had been listened to Mr. Joseph Hennessey arose and presented a farewell from the people of Reynolds, to each of their departing friends, a splendid gold watch. The Messrs. Austin responded and in a feeling manner expressed their thanks, and their regret at leaving their old friends. Among the guests invited were Mr. Thos. Grey, John Nelson, Hans Anderson and I. J. Correy of this city, who attended.

Miss Pace has returned from Crookston where she appeared as the soloist at the concert given by the local band under the leadership of Mr. G. Oliver Riggs. She appeared at her best, was given great ovation and received repeated encores. We learn that the concert next Tuesday may be the last opportunity to hear Miss Pace in Grand Forks as she is engaged to travel with the Leonora Jackson company, as soprano soloist for the season of 1906 and 1907. This company is considered one of the best concert companies traveling in the United States, engaging only first class artists.

The Pace-Heide concert to be given in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening is looked forward to with great interest, owing to the high standing and popularity of the artists. A particularly fine program is offered below. After this program was prepared a number of requests were made for special numbers that will be readily granted, making the evening's entertainment an unusually rich one:

Mute.
He never stirred the harsh strings of my voice
To soothe the compelling melody,
That other folk might yet rejoice
Because of me;
These rough hands never touched the mellow keys,
Attuned to some undying strain,
But sorry discords jangled out to tease
My hope again.
No subtle colors shall I ever lay
Aglow with all a master's art—
Nor write one single line to touch for aye
Some waiting heart.
Across the barren of my life no light
Of golden talent shines serene,
(Though He has trimmed for my soul's eager sight
A lamp unseen.)
Here on His western plains, so far, so
Where dawn and twilight fill my eyes
With wondering tears the earth seems
As if of Paradise.
Mute I must live, and one day mutely die,
Go, as I came, the silent guest—
And none shall ever hear the pent-up cry
Within my breast.—Emery Pottle.

A letter from Mrs. James Russell, who formerly lived here and at Larimore, and was a great social favorite, states that on account of the removal of the Missouri Pacific division headquarters of which Mr. Russell is superintendent, to Omaha, Neb., Mr. Russell had gone to that point and she and Margaret, their daughter, will be in the spring. They regret very much leaving Atchison Mrs. Russell states, and describes it as one of the banner towns of Kansas. She says they often speak of the old North Dakota friends and expect to make a visit here and at Larimore in the summer.

Mrs. F. A. Stoltz will return to her home at Devils Lake this evening. She will take with her the infant son of F. A. Maxwell.

Miss Agnes DeRoche entertained at an oyster supper at the home of her sister Mrs. Morefield Saturday evening after the entertainment. The tables were decorated in green and white and the menu carried out in the same colors. Covers were laid for ten and the guests were Miss Lila DeRoche, Miss Mayma McDonald Mr. and Mrs. Morefield Mr. Jack Stuart George DeLain and Gilmore Bates.

Master Russell Davies, the only son of W. P. Davies, editor of the Herald, is able to be about the house on crutches no matter a serious time all winter with a lame foot.

J. E. Geary of the railway mail service, who has been detained for two weeks in the detention hospital with smallpox, was surprised when he arrived home the other day to find a little new daughter had arrived shortly before him. She was none the less welcome.

Mrs. W. P. Davies of Walnut street entertained most charmingly on Wednesday afternoon at an "old fashioned quilting bee," a number of her lady friends and on Thursday afternoon in the same manner again. Tea was served and the occasions were voted delightful by all those fortunate enough to be present.

The ladies of the Eastern Star lodge will give another of their delightful musicales the first Tuesday in April.

Mrs. Jamison Larimore and infant son will come in from Larimore in a few days to be the guest of Mrs. C. L. Graber at Riverside Park for a time.

Mrs. N. B. Fulton entertained Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild wish to announce they will hold another sale of home cooked eatables, consisting of salads, bread, cakes, cookies, doughnuts, pies, etc., on Saturday beginning at 1 o'clock, in the George Wilder grocery store. Mrs. Peak and Mrs. Striker will have charge and the sale will take place in the crockery department.

Mrs. Finley Bolton and Mrs. William Budge entertained at a luncheon at the home of the former, Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Cutts of Minneapolis. After luncheon three tables at cards were played and Mrs. Tracy Bangs and Mrs. E. C. Cooper were awarded the prizes.

The recital to be given by the associate members of the Thursday Musical club next Thursday evening in the Commercial club rooms, for which the services of Miss Florence Marion Pace have been secured promises to be a delightful affair. It will be a full dress occasion. It is said the associate members will give a surprise to the active members after the program. What the nature of what it is to be is being kept a profound secret.

Mrs. Robert Stangs entertained a small company quite informally Monday evening in honor of her friend, Mrs. R. C. Fretz, who leaves the first of April for her new home in Minneapolis. Four tables at cards were played, the guest of honor capturing the first prize and Miss Eva Money the second. Dainty refreshments were served. Regret is expressed that we lose so charming a woman from our midst as Mrs. Fretz.

Society Throughout the State.
A men's club has been in process of formation in the city this week and from present appearances will be successfully launched. About fifty of the business men and the young men of Mayville have signed for membership and considerably more are expected to do so. The main object of the organization will be social amusement, recreation and improvement. No room quarters for the new club have yet been decided on. A meeting of the subscribers is called for Monday evening at the city hall at 8 o'clock.—Mayville Tribune.

WAMPETON SOCIETY.
E. S. Cameron and wife celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary last Saturday evening.

License to wed was issued to John Hamner and Miss Mathilde Rud of Colfax.

Moses D. Williams and Miss Nellie Fox of Fairmount, were married Saturday, March 17th.

A marriage license was issued to Albert Pelvit and Miss Theresa Krieser of Wyndmere, on Monday, March 19th.

The N. P. 500 club were entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. Murray Brown and Mrs. Robt. Barber at the home of Mrs. Brown.

A. M. Gilder and Clara A. James both from Hankinson, were married March 17th at Breckenridge.

Mrs. F. J. Laueremann and daughter Beatrice from Aberdeen, are the guests of Mrs. Laueremann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Welton.

Mrs. Redmon and Mrs. Beatty entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Redmon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley.

O. C. Furnsworth and son Walter departed for Wisconsin, Friday evening to visit his sister who is very ill with pneumonia.

VALLEY CITY
Mrs. A. B. Cox entertained a number of lady friends Thursday afternoon. Three tables of 500 were played and Mrs. James Grady was awarded the prize. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the games.

Mrs. Myra L. Sprague, of Minneapolis, Grand Chief of Honor of the Degree of Honor, of Minnesota, arrived in the city Tuesday evening and will remain until Monday the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Hittman.

Miss Jean Smith entertained sixteen friends Saturday evening at a "St. Patrick's party, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith. Four tables of whist were played, and George Fried was awarded the head prize. Following the whist the guests were seated to a sumptuous repast, the place cards being descriptive of the guests. Each of the party responded with a story, which was a very pleasant feature of the evening.

Park River Society.
The marriage of Mr. Herman Gates Conora, Assa, and Miss Louise Dods of this city took place in Grafton yesterday. Fred Bruce of Park River acted as best man and Miss Dods, of St. Thomas was bride's maid. Mr. Gates recently purchased several hundred acres of land in the northwest and has already fitted up a cozy home for his bride and they will go there at once and begin housekeeping. Both bride and groom are well known and have many friends in Park River. The bride is niece of Mr. and G. K. Ewan.

A farewell reception was tendered Mrs. John Holmes at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kohlen Wednesday afternoon by the Working Band of the M. E. Church. Mrs. Holmes was presented with a beautiful gold thimble as a token of their esteem. The Holmes family expect to remove to Duluth about the first of the coming month.

James White returned to Park River Monday from a three months' visit with relatives in Ontario—with a bride. The marriage took place in Detroit, Mich., March 7th, and the young lady's name was Miss Minnie Hope. Mr. and Mrs. White will begin housekeeping at once on the groom's farm in Fertile.

A very pleasant reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Barlow at the home of T. A. Martin last Friday evening. A handsome dressing mirror was presented to them.

The MASK OF MOMUS--THE THEATRE

Babes in Toyland.

A truly true fairy story is told in "Babes of Toyland," the play which comes to the Metropolitan Monday evening presented by Messrs. Hamlin and Mitchell. All the characters dear to the childish heart and which have been made familiar in the Mother Goose picture books are to be found in this attraction. The two babes who have the wonderful adventures in the mysterious country of Toyland are Alan and Jane, who go there to escape the persecutions of their wicked old uncle Barnaby, who wishes to put them out of the way in order that he may gain a fortune which is rightfully theirs, but they eventually outwit him and everything ends happily, as it should in all fairy tales. Among those who accompany Alan and Jane in their wanderings are Tom Tom the piper's son, Red Riding Hood, Bo Peep, Jack and Jill, Simple Simon, Contrary Mary and many other folks who are well known in childish lore. Most of these characters are played by the prettiest girls imaginable, and "Babes in Toyland" is calculated not only to please the children but grown up boys and girls as well. In addition to these well-known characters in "Babes in Toyland" there are others calculated to please the little folks, among them being some very wonderful animals. There are big and little bears, giant spiders and wonderful, glittering, gorgeous butterflies. Then there are good and bad fairies, gnomes, brownies, good and evil spirits, witches and ogres. A scene that is wonderfully pleasing to the little ones is that which shows the Master Toymaker's work shop. In this are seen all kinds of wonderful toys and mechanical figures, some of them finished and some of them in the process of construction and all of them calculated right and Alan and Jane both live happily ever after.

The curtain will rise at 8:15 instead of 8:30, owing to the immensity of the performance.

Isle of Spice.
Mr. Charles Pusey, the leading comedian in the "Isle of Spice" company, which is to have a presentation here tonight, is well known to all amusement lovers, having created for himself an enviable reputation as a comedian in the musical comedy field. The love scene between him and Miss Ethel Tillson, prima donna of the company, is very funny owing to the fact that Mr. Pusey is a very tall man, standing six feet three in his stockings, while Miss Tillson is a very diminutive specimen of femininity. The contrast is very striking and the scene ridiculously funny.

Yon Yonson.
In discussing the longevity of comedies upon the American stage, due attention must be paid to the apparently imperishable "Yon Yonson." Some managers are wont to boast of a series of long runs in New York city without taking cognizance of the impression their entertainment leaves throughout the country. The popularity of "Yon Yonson," however, was not confined to the metropolis, but the Swedish dialect comedy has proven a valuable fifteen years triumph, as it has been played from Sandy Hook to the Sacramento valley, year in and year out, without losing a single feature of its popularity. It comes here to the Metropolitan theater on Tuesday for one performance entirely new in scenic equipment and with the best strop, which rears its giant head just outside of the town of Helsingborg on the placid waters of the Ceresund. Mr. Mitchell is a young man who has worked his way into the theatrical profession through his early connection with the Royal opera house in Stockholm. Later he became a valuable member of King Oscar's stock company. Having relatives in this country who wrote in glowing terms of the brilliant prospects awaiting a young man here, Mr. Mitchell determined to strike out for fame and fortune. No sooner had he reached New York than he secured a profitable engagement at Keith's theater and received a large salary for a simple dialect sketch. Manager P. J. Kennedy saw Mr. Mitchell's work and immediately engaged him for the title part of "Yon Yonson" for this season. The unprecedented success he has already scored proves him to be the greatest "Yon" ever with the production.

Way Down East.
Wm. A. Brady is one of the few managers whose judgment is like an eighth sense as he has never staged a failure. His production of "Way Down East" will be here shortly.

The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast.
The colossal spectacle, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," is down on the lists for an early production at the local theater.

Blanche Walsh.
Clyde Fitch has enhanced his already wonderful reputation as a playwright with his latest success, "The Woman in the Case," in which Blanch will be seen here soon.

Society Throughout the State.
At Fargo, N. D., Mrs. Ed Christerson entertained a large party of friends at her home Monday evening. The event being the eighteenth wedding anniversary of her sister, Mrs. L. M. Due and the birthday of Mr. Due.

Tuesday afternoon at her home on Main street, in Minot, Mrs. G. O. Frank entertained the Euchre club. Attractive prizes were won by Mrs. A. A. Robinson, Mrs. John Stenersen and Mrs. D. C. Greenleaf. At the conclusion of the games, a dainty luncheon was served. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. A. M. Marshall.

The Hon. and Mrs. W. S. Leader of Wapeton, are the proud parents of a new daughter.

READY-MADE HOMES ARE ALWAYS IN DEMAND

People of democratic tastes, who like to "live in a house," but not in a lonesome one—solve the problem easily and to their profit by renting furnished rooms to pleasant people.

Isn't it better to live in a good house, with a few lodgers who pay your entire rent for you a little toward your household expenses, than to live in a small apartment, alone, with expenses that grow harder and harder to meet?

If you advertise PERSISTENTLY you may, at a nominal cost, keep these "READY-MADE HOMES" always tenanted by THE RIGHT KIND OF PEOPLE, and the somewhat bitter problem of HOW TO MAKE BOTH ENDS MEET will give you less concern.

When you set aside a few rooms in your house as "ready-made homes" and begin to advertise them you will be surprised to find how many of the "nice sort" of folks live in furnished rooms—and you will be surprised to find out how easy a matter it is to wipe out the terrors of your own "rent day."
