

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WERE ENLARGED THIS YEAR--WATCH GRAND FORKS GROW!

Wednesday
MAY 30TH

SECOND DAY of STANCHFIELD'S REMODELLING PRICES

WEATHER REPORT

Showers tonight—possibly—Thursday. Warmer—Thursday.

What Stanchfield Says:

"GET IN LINE ON THE CORNER"

You don't have to give the countersign here to get the advantage of the cost and less on those broken sizes in Suits. They are all new, saleable styles only there is only one or two Suits of a kind and if your size is here you can buy them at the price I purchased them for in lots of 400 and 500 Suits at a time. Some suits in out of the ordinary sizes I have marked at less than cost. This is your Decoration Day opportunity to dress up.

"PASSING IN REVIEW"

You will see many wearing my Imported Madras Shirts made to my order—3 for $5.00 and the best three you ever wore. These Shirts will be partially covered with my "Sombre Suit Brightness," those Broadway Fancy Vests at $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 up to $4.00. The leaders are those French Flannels at $2.50. The Straw Hat season is now on and I am showing the largest line in town. Everything from the regular straws to the finest imported Panamas. How about a Tie out of that last shipment of Summer Neckwear? If you buy 7 they only cost you $3.00. One for every day in the week.

"THE LATEST DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE"

Is a Roswelle Hat at $3.00 and your money back for every one that goes wrong. You don't have to worry, I stand the loss. How about a Gray Telescope Hat? They are the latest. If you are going to march tomorrow wear Crosette Shoes—$3.50 and $4.00. They make marching easy. Some other kinds don't. Have you seen my new Hat Bands in all colors? They're right. Store open until 10 p. m. tonight. Prepare for tomorrow, America's National Memorial Day.

YOUR'S FOR WHATEVER'S RIGHT"

M. STANCHFIELD

"Stanch's," the Only Clothing Store on the Corner.

EAST SIDE

DETROIT MAN GONE.
Former Postmaster Edward Holmes Has Not Been Seen Since Firth of April.

What has become of Ed. Holmes of Detroit? This is the question that has been causing his family and friends much anxiety for some time, and it is as impossible now to find a solution to the problem as it was a month ago. On the 7th of April, Mr. Holmes went to Minneapolis where he had made arrangements to act for the Kerr Land company in the sale of Canadian lands. Arriving in Minneapolis on Monday morning, April 9, he met his uncle, E. G. Holmes, with whom he took breakfast at a restaurant, and at that time he talked cheerfully of his prospects for doing a profitable business of selling Canadian lands. He had made arrangements with one party for the sale of half a section upon which his commission would be $320, or $1.00 per acre, and he stated his intention of going to Lethbridge, Saskatchewan, at once, to select the land and close the deal. Afterwards on Monday and Tuesday, April 9 and 10, he visited with his cousin, G. H. Porter, who is connected with the Kerr Land company, and Mr. Porter says Ed bought a ticket for Fort St. Vrain, N. D., Tuesday, a station on the border between that state and Canada.

During the past eight years or more Ed Holmes has held the office of postmaster at Detroit, and early last spring, upon the expiration of his term, Mrs. Holmes was recommended for the position, as Mr. Holmes' health had been very poor for a long time, and it was thought that it would be necessary for him to take a vacation and go away for treatment.

Just before leaving Minneapolis Mr. Holmes wrote to his wife, saying that he had more money with him than he would require on his business trip to Canada, and he enclosed a check to her for $50.

There appears to be no satisfactory explanation for Mr. Holmes' absence at this time. The large sum of money that he is known to have carried would indicate the possibility of foul play, but Mr. Holmes was a man of strictly temperate habits, and one who was well qualified to take care of himself. The sickness from which he has been a great sufferer for a long time may have affected his mind, but there is no telling. It is to be hoped that the inquiry which is still being made will soon bring the desired information.

Returned From North Dakota.
T. F. Stone, bookkeeper for Sullivan Bros., has returned from a several days' trip near Larimore where he was looking after business.

Will Visit at St. Thomas.
Mrs. F. C. Masse and children went to St. Thomas this morning for a visit with friends and relatives.

West to Grafton.
Mrs. N. C. Olson went to Grafton this morning to attend decoration services and visit with friends.

Went to Frazee.
Edward Lightgard, Dr. Brekke and Louis Boreen went to Frazee this morning.

Mrs. Boas Recovering.
Mrs. Arthur Boas, who has been sick for some time, is on the road to recovery.

Go to Downham's, east side, for your ice cream, ice cream soda, choice confections, fruits and cigars. Ice cream parlors in rear of store, 203 DeMers avenue.

Cummings' ice cream parlors are the best in the city. Confectionary, soda fountain, bakery goods and cigars. Ice cream cones a specialty, 220 DeMers avenue, east side.

Cut flowers at Undertaker Sullivan's, East Grand Forks, Minn. Telephone 777.

Paints and wall paper at I. Kingman's.

If you are looking for new novelties call at Kingman's.

Baseball goods at Kingman's.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

Superior Quotations for Minneapolis Delivery.

Wheat—	May	July	Sept.
Open	82 1/2	82 3/4	80 3/4
High	82 3/4	82 3/4	81
Low	81 3/4	81 3/4	80 1/4
Close	81 3/4	82 3/4	80 3/4

Chicago Delivery.

Wheat—	May	July	Sept.
Open	86 1/2	85 3/4	81 3/4
High	86 3/4	85 3/4	81 3/4
Low	85 3/4	84 3/4	80 3/4
Close	85 3/4	84 3/4	80 3/4

Corn—

May	July	Sept.
Open	49 1/2	49 1/2	47 1/2
High	49 3/4	49 3/4	47 3/4
Low	48 3/4	48 3/4	46 3/4
Close	48 3/4	48 3/4	46 3/4

Oats—

May	July	Sept.
Open	34 1/2	34 1/2	32 1/2
High	34 3/4	34 3/4	32 3/4
Low	33 3/4	33 3/4	31 3/4
Close	33 3/4	33 3/4	31 3/4

Barley—

May	July	Sept.
Open	16 3/4	16 3/4	16 3/4
High	16 3/4	16 3/4	16 3/4
Low	16 1/4	16 1/4	16 1/4
Close	16 1/4	16 1/4	16 1/4

Lard—

May	July	Sept.
Open	8 3/4	8 3/4	8 3/4
High	8 3/4	8 3/4	8 3/4
Low	8 1/4	8 1/4	8 1/4
Close	8 1/4	8 1/4	8 1/4

Duluth Delivery.

Wheat—	May	July	Sept.
Open	115 1/2	115 1/2	116
High	115 3/4	115 3/4	116 1/4
Low	114 3/4	114 3/4	115 1/4
Close	114 3/4	115 3/4	115 1/4

Minneapolis Cash Close.

No. 1 hard	82 1/2
No. 2 northern	82 1/2
No. 3 northern	81 1/2
No. 1 durum	49 1/2
No. 2 durum	49 1/2
No. 3 Y. corn	48 3/4
No. 4 Y. corn	48 3/4
No. 5 oats	33 3/4
Barley	16 1/4
Flax	11 1/2

Duluth Cash Close.

No. 1 northern	84 1/4
No. 2 northern	84 1/4

Northwest Receipts.

Minneapolis—Today, 132; last year, 132
Duluth—Today, 53; last year, 53
Winnipeg—Today, 103; last year, 59

Foreign Cables.

Liverpool—Close: Wheat 1/2 lower.

HINT.
Mrs. Wewed—Before we were married, my dear, you used to call me your uncrowned queen.
Newed—Yes, so I did, darling.
Mrs. Wewed—Well, I saw a lovely bonnet for only $37.98 downtown this morning.—Chicago Daily News.

Entitled to More Ease.
Myer—I wonder why Browne added the 'e' to his name after inheriting a fortune?
Gyer—He probably figured out to his own satisfaction that rich people are entitled to more ease than poor people.—Tit-Bits.

WHEN you think of how and when you are going to protect your family and those dependent upon you, don't do so for a few short years, but for all times. Join the order that makes provisions for the future

The : Loyal Americans of the Republic

furnish you permanent protection. Life and accident benefits furnished under one policy. Correct policy, correct rates. All claims paid as soon as proofs are furnished complete and correct. If interested drop me a line

W. J. HIGGINS: State Agent, Grand Forks, N. D.

WISCONSIN STOCK & GRAIN CO.
(Incorporated.)
Dealers in
STOCKS, GRAIN, PROVISIONS
St. Paul, Superior, Winnipeg, Duluth, Minneapolis

BRANCH OFFICE
No. 16 Clifford Bldg., F. I. WARDLEY, Mgr.

SEVERAL ROBBERIES REPORTED TO POLICE

Trotter Hotel, Western and Nelson House on Fourth Street Entered.

Hotel thieves operated extensively in Grand Forks between the hours of midnight and 2 a. m. last night and as a result there are a half dozen victims who today are mourning the loss of their valuables. The Trotter house on De Mers avenue was one of the hostilities in which the burglars operated. The rooms of Chick Conny and Tom Torson and of Harris and Gebeau, two baseball players, were entered. Conny lost $9.50 in cash and Torson between $2 and $3 and a meal ticket. Gebeau lost 25 cents only and Harris nothing. Both of these gentlemen were awakened shortly after midnight to find a large man wearing a slouch hat standing in the middle of their room with a lighted match in hand. He queried of the sleepers whether or not "Nelson roomed here." The answer was in the negative and not suspecting thieves Harris and Gebeau again wooed Morpheus.

At the Nelson house on S. Fourth street, a few moments from the Park, Grant & Morris building the landlady discovered two men looking round on the second floor. Thinking them to be regular roomers no attention was paid until later when suspicions were aroused on account of the queer actions of the pair. In the Nelson house a pocketbook or two and a watch were stolen. At the Western hotel on S. Third street one man had a watch and a $4 check, together with a small amount of cash, stolen, while another missed his pocketbook with $13 or $14 therein. Night Patrolmen Halvorsen and Blue were apprised of the thefts early this morning and at 2:30 arrested two men on Fourth street on the Great Northern tracks. In answer to queries put by the patrolmen, the two men told deliberate lies and were then notified that they might consider themselves under arrest from the purpose of identification. The landlady positively identified one of them. While the parley was going on, one of the twain was caught in the act of attempting to hide a watch which rolled out of his pants leg, and a $10 bill. The police at once started for the city jail and had taken only a few steps when Officer Blue's man made a sudden and unexpected break for liberty in the darkness. The break was so unlooked for that the fellow was able to make good his escape. The other man, however, was lodged in the city lock-up and is being held to answer to a charge of larceny. When searched this morning his person three pocketbooks, two watches and a large amount of money. He gives his name as John Appleby and his occupation as a railroad brakeman. He says he was on his way to Winnipeg looking for work. Appleby's pal is believed to have taken a train for the west, and endeavors are being made to bring about his re-arrest. It is believed by the police that the pair are professional hotel thieves, and Chief Lowe is anxious to locate them in their where that class of men belong.

MONUMENT TO LOVED ONES

Grand Shift to the Memory of Departed. Knights Dedicated With Touching Ceremonies.

The Knights of Pythias dedicated their beautiful monument at Memorial Park with appropriate ceremonies this morning. The shaft is a beautiful granite, and the order in shape and chiseled from the most costly blue granite. The local lodge and members of the order took the train this morning for the cemetery where sleep so many in the silent death. The monument, which was made by Rev. F. E. H. M. and was one of the most touching and impressive applications ever listened to by the assembled listeners. The quartette rendered in a beautiful manner that beautiful hymn, "Lead Kindly Light." The address was delivered by Col. M. A. Hildreth of Fargo, and was an eloquent and scholarly oration. The quartette rendered that beautifully sweet composition, "The Last Sleep." The flags were dropped, and the monument which is emblematic of the exalted principles of the order, became the property of the fraternity. The solemn benediction was pronounced and the order, who are the possessor of the marble shaft which is a credit to the principles which it inculcates. The following names of departed brethren are chiseled upon the shaft: Thomas Collins, Frederick Westberg, O. A. Moe, Robert Wood, J. R. Logan, John A. Anderson, C. M. Lund, J. J. McCallum, Thomas J. McAdam, W. C. St. Clair, James Ryan, John Origen, A. W. Smith, J. S. Salsmann, Charles Horning, Wm. DeVoy, D. P. Blain, M. L. Gordon, William Busse, H. E. Maloney, Alex. Oldham, T. H. Graham, Herman Wolff, Frank Lehman, M. T. Caswell, W. J. Anderson.

A Safety Line Out.
Dr. John V. Shoemaker, in a discussion of the euthanasia, or painless killing of incurables, said among other things: "There is something hard and inhuman about the euthanasia which forbids effectually our acceptance of it. The euthanasia is as unfeeling and cold as the average bachelor in a baby's presence. "A bachelor, visiting a married friend, endeavored to amuse the 6-month-old baby. He jumped it on his knee, tickled it and finally gave it his watch to play with. "The watch was a small gold affair, and the baby slipped it into its mouth. That made the bachelor smile. "The mother, perceiving what her darling child had done, leaped forward in the greatest terror. "But the bachelor, with a laugh, hastened to reassure her. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "I've got hold of the chain, you see. It can't go fast."

STATE PRESS VOID OF BRAINS SAYS SPALDING

The I-Want-a-Plum Reformer Was Peevishly Inclined at Larimore.

Special to the Evening Times. Larimore, N. D., May 29.—According to this morning's Herald there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Good Government league in the opera house in this city last evening. "The large and enthusiastic meeting" was composed of just seventy-seven people, counting those who came and went and when Mr. Spalding closed his address there were by actual count exactly sixty-six people who passed out of the hall including twelve boys, this notwithstanding the fact that the band played in front of the opera house before the meeting was called in order to draw a large crowd which they succeeded in doing, but very few of them entered the hall to hear the Hon. B. F. Spalding deliver his nuck ruck, vilification of character speech. When Mr. Spalding began to speak, he looked into the faces of not more than forty persons, but the people kept dropping in until the large (?) gathering of seventy-seven people had passed in and out, while during his harangue eleven men left the hall. He looked at the speaker, but very few of them entered the hall to hear the Hon. B. F. Spalding deliver his nuck ruck, vilification of character speech. When Mr. Spalding began to speak, he looked into the faces of not more than forty persons, but the people kept dropping in until the large (?) gathering of seventy-seven people had passed in and out, while during his harangue eleven men left the hall. He looked at the speaker, but very few of them entered the hall to hear the Hon. B. F. Spalding deliver his nuck ruck, vilification of character speech.

Drainage is the solution of the prosperity of this valley and the sooner that is accomplished the earlier we will receive fruits from our labors by way of uniform yields, and better prices for our lands. Do not postpone until next year what can and should be done this year. We pursued a dilatory course in the past and what are the results? Let us do better from our negligence and go to work. Respectfully requested, J. L. Cashel, President D. L. North Dakota.

FARMERS SHOULD AID DRAINAGE OF LAND

President Cashel Suggests That They Put in as Many Drains as Possible.

Special to the Evening Times. Grafton, N. D., May 29, 1906. To the Farmers of the Red River Valley: The conditions prevailing this spring and the results from last summer fully demonstrate the necessity for drainage. While I feel confident that next year will find us prepared for active work under the new law, with financial aid through a loan from the government, or from state funds at a low rate of interest, at the same time I would urge you to recommend that you proceed and put in all the drains possible this year, utilizing as far as consistent the topographical surveys made by the government engineers. Although the expenses and rates of interest may be higher now than in the future, even so the extra proceeds from one crop, after drainage, might pay more than the difference—besides the work will be done. Drainage is the solution of the prosperity of this valley and the sooner that is accomplished the earlier we will receive fruits from our labors by way of uniform yields, and better prices for our lands. Do not postpone until next year what can and should be done this year. We pursued a dilatory course in the past and what are the results? Let us do better from our negligence and go to work. Respectfully requested, J. L. Cashel, President D. L. North Dakota.

YOUNG GIRLS WARNED

Going to Montana to Accept Positions Should Have Plenty of Funds. The Forum has received a letter from Montana, written by a former resident of this state, warning girls going to that state to fill positions as waitresses or chambermaids in hotels. The proprietors advance the money to pay their transportation and many times the girls have to give up their work, before the transportation is worked out, in consequence of their duties being so heavy, and they have to borrow money to get away with. It is also stated that if they are sick a day or so, this is taken out of their wages, even if their co-workers perform their duties and they are also charged for their board. One hotel is spoken of employing five waitresses and three chambermaids and notwithstanding the small number, it is said the proprietors have transportation out now for fifteen more girls, and the question arises what the fifteen will do when they reach Montana. The writer says, that she is not trying to warn the girls against coming west, but of the treatment they receive, and to ask them, if they come to have plenty of money to return home with, should they wish to do so.—Fargo Forum.

SEVERAL ROBBERIES REPORTED TO POLICE

Trotter Hotel, Western and Nelson House on Fourth Street Entered.

Hotel thieves operated extensively in Grand Forks between the hours of midnight and 2 a. m. last night and as a result there are a half dozen victims who today are mourning the loss of their valuables. The Trotter house on De Mers avenue was one of the hostilities in which the burglars operated. The rooms of Chick Conny and Tom Torson and of Harris and Gebeau, two baseball players, were entered. Conny lost $9.50 in cash and Torson between $2 and $3 and a meal ticket. Gebeau lost 25 cents only and Harris nothing. Both of these gentlemen were awakened shortly after midnight to find a large man wearing a slouch hat standing in the middle of their room with a lighted match in hand. He queried of the sleepers whether or not "Nelson roomed here." The answer was in the negative and not suspecting thieves Harris and Gebeau again wooed Morpheus.

At the Nelson house on S. Fourth street, a few moments from the Park, Grant & Morris building the landlady discovered two men looking round on the second floor. Thinking them to be regular roomers no attention was paid until later when suspicions were aroused on account of the queer actions of the pair. In the Nelson house a pocketbook or two and a watch were stolen. At the Western hotel on S. Third street one man had a watch and a $4 check, together with a small amount of cash, stolen, while another missed his pocketbook with $13 or $14 therein. Night Patrolmen Halvorsen and Blue were apprised of the thefts early this morning and at 2:30 arrested two men on Fourth street on the Great Northern tracks. In answer to queries put by the patrolmen, the two men told deliberate lies and were then notified that they might consider themselves under arrest from the purpose of identification. The landlady positively identified one of them. While the parley was going on, one of the twain was caught in the act of attempting to hide a watch which rolled out of his pants leg, and a $10 bill. The police at once started for the city jail and had taken only a few steps when Officer Blue's man made a sudden and unexpected break for liberty in the darkness. The break was so unlooked for that the fellow was able to make good his escape. The other man, however, was lodged in the city lock-up and is being held to answer to a charge of larceny. When searched this morning his person three pocketbooks, two watches and a large amount of money. He gives his name as John Appleby and his occupation as a railroad brakeman. He says he was on his way to Winnipeg looking for work. Appleby's pal is believed to have taken a train for the west, and endeavors are being made to bring about his re-arrest. It is believed by the police that the pair are professional hotel thieves, and Chief Lowe is anxious to locate them in their where that class of men belong.

MONUMENT TO LOVED ONES

Grand Shift to the Memory of Departed. Knights Dedicated With Touching Ceremonies.

The Knights of Pythias dedicated their beautiful monument at Memorial Park with appropriate ceremonies this morning. The shaft is a beautiful granite, and the order in shape and chiseled from the most costly blue granite. The local lodge and members of the order took the train this morning for the cemetery where sleep so many in the silent death. The monument, which was made by Rev. F. E. H. M. and was one of the most touching and impressive applications ever listened to by the assembled listeners. The quartette rendered in a beautiful manner that beautiful hymn, "Lead Kindly Light." The address was delivered by Col. M. A. Hildreth of Fargo, and was an eloquent and scholarly oration. The quartette rendered that beautifully sweet composition, "The Last Sleep." The flags were dropped, and the monument which is emblematic of the exalted principles of the order, became the property of the fraternity. The solemn benediction was pronounced and the order, who are the possessor of the marble shaft which is a credit to the principles which it inculcates. The following names of departed brethren are chiseled upon the shaft: Thomas Collins, Frederick Westberg, O. A. Moe, Robert Wood, J. R. Logan, John A. Anderson, C. M. Lund, J. J. McCallum, Thomas J. McAdam, W. C. St. Clair, James Ryan, John Origen, A. W. Smith, J. S. Salsmann, Charles Horning, Wm. DeVoy, D. P. Blain, M. L. Gordon, William Busse, H. E. Maloney, Alex. Oldham, T. H. Graham, Herman Wolff, Frank Lehman, M. T. Caswell, W. J. Anderson.

FARMERS SHOULD AID DRAINAGE OF LAND

President Cashel Suggests That They Put in as Many Drains as Possible. Special to the Evening Times. Grafton, N. D., May 29, 1906. To the Farmers of the Red River Valley: The conditions prevailing this spring and the results from last summer fully demonstrate the necessity for drainage. While I feel confident that next year will find us prepared for active work under the new law, with financial aid through a loan from the government, or from state funds at a low rate of interest, at the same time I would urge you to recommend that you proceed and put in all the drains possible this year, utilizing as far as consistent the topographical surveys made by the government engineers. Although the expenses and rates of interest may be higher now than in the future, even so the extra proceeds from one crop, after drainage, might pay more than the difference—besides the work will be done. Drainage is the solution of the prosperity of this valley and the sooner that is accomplished the earlier we will receive fruits from our labors by way of uniform yields, and better prices for our lands. Do not postpone until next year what can and should be done this year. We pursued a dilatory course in the past and what are the results? Let us do better from our negligence and go to work. Respectfully requested, J. L. Cashel, President D. L. North Dakota.

FARMERS SHOULD AID DRAINAGE OF LAND

President Cashel Suggests That They Put in as Many Drains as Possible.

Special to the Evening Times. Grafton, N. D., May 29, 1906. To the Farmers of the Red River Valley: The conditions prevailing this spring and the results from last summer fully demonstrate the necessity for drainage. While I feel confident that next year will find us prepared for active work under the new law, with financial aid through a loan from the government, or from state funds at a low rate of interest, at the same time I would urge you to recommend that you proceed and put in all the drains possible this year, utilizing as far as consistent the topographical surveys made by the government engineers. Although the expenses and rates of interest may be higher now than in the future, even so the extra proceeds from one crop, after drainage, might pay more than the difference—besides the work will be done. Drainage is the solution of the prosperity of this valley and the sooner that is accomplished the earlier we will receive fruits from our labors by way of uniform yields, and better prices for our lands. Do not postpone until next year what can and should be done this year. We pursued a dilatory course in the past and what are the results? Let us do better from our negligence and go to work. Respectfully requested, J. L. Cashel, President D. L. North Dakota.

YOUNG GIRLS WARNED

Going to Montana to Accept Positions Should Have Plenty of Funds. The Forum has received a letter from Montana, written by a former resident of this state, warning girls going to that state to fill positions as waitresses or chambermaids in hotels. The proprietors advance the money to pay their transportation and many times the girls have to give up their work, before the transportation is worked out, in consequence of their duties being so heavy, and they have to borrow money to get away with. It is also stated that if they are sick a day or so, this is taken out of their wages, even if their co-workers perform their duties and they are also charged for their board. One hotel is spoken of employing five waitresses and three chambermaids and notwithstanding the small number, it is said the proprietors have transportation out now for fifteen more girls, and the question arises what the fifteen will do when they reach Montana. The writer says, that she is not trying to warn the girls against coming west, but of the treatment they receive, and to ask them, if they come to have plenty of money to return home with, should they wish to do so.—Fargo Forum.

WALL PAPER

The highest type of genuine art is embodied in new designs we show and the prices are EXTREMELY LOW just now

BABY'S DAILY RIDE
Maybe this is the first spring that you have had use for a baby carriage; maybe you don't know that we have the handsomest line in Grand Forks. Latest improved, all prices. By taking the baby out for an airing every day you will save doctor bills. We furnish the means of locomotion in the handsomest and most convenient form, and at the smallest expense. You will have reason to feel proud pushing one of our baby buggies or perambulators.

MONEY TO LOAN
At Lowest Rates Upon North Dakota Farms. Local Agents Wanted. Partial Payments Permitted.
GEO. B. CLIFFORD & CO.
GRAND FORKS, N. D.