Shot From His Own Hand is Cause of Death of Congressman Robert Adams of Pennsylvania This Morning.

DRAFTED RESOLUTION FOR SPANISH WAR

And Carried Same Through House in One Hour--Found Insensible by Bell Boy.

Associated Press to The Evening Times. Washington, June 1.--Congressman Robert Adams of Pennsylvania shot himself at his home in this city this morning. The shooting occurred in one of the chambers of the Metropolitan club where Mr. Adams was sleeping. He was found unconscious at about 8 o'clock this morning, sitting upright in an arm chair. The pistol was lying on the floor. He had shot himself through the mouth. The discovery was made by one of the bell boys of the club chambers and Mr. Adams is believed to have committed the act some time between 6 and 7 o'clock. He was taken at once to the emergency hospital where he died at 11:30 a. m.

Congressman Adams reported, conducted through the house and had charge of it in the conference with the senate, the Cuban resolutions and drafted, introduced, reported and passed through the house of representatives in one hour, the declaration of war against Spain.

Letter to Speaker Cannon. Mr. Adams last night wrote the following letter to Speaker Cannon which was received at the capitol just before the hour of convening the house today: "Washington, May 31.--Hon. J. G. Cannon: My Dear Mr. Speaker: The fact that my personal obligations exceed my resources is my only excuse for abandoning my responsible position I occupy in the house. I am willing to be buried at its expense but ask that no committee be appointed or memorial services held, as I have never been in sympathy with the latter custom. With assurances of my high regard, Sincerely yours, Robert Adams."

Upon the announcement of the death of Mr. Adams the house adjourned.

THE GOPHER STATE LEADS WOMEN'S LODGES

In Number of New Ones Since Last Convention--Interesting Reports Read.

Associated Press to The Evening Times. St. Paul, June 1.--Although the forenoon session of the Women's Federation convention was scheduled to begin at 9:30, it was nearly 10 before the women got down to business. Only a few of the delegates were in their places when Mrs. Decker rapped for order and the doors were ordered closed during the reading of the minutes. Tardy delegates were compelled to remain out in the hall until the preliminary work was finished. When the doors were opened the hall was filled with lagartias. Miss Louisa B. Poppenheim, chairman of the membership committee, reported that 103 new clubs and one state federation, that of Nevada, had been admitted to the general federation since the biennial convention in St. Louis. Minnesota leads the list of states with 42 new clubs. The badge committee was represented by Mrs. Alice M. Johnson of Rhode Island, who made a financial statement of the committee's work. The report shows that Illinois leads in the number of badges sold, with 19,000, second, Ohio third, and New York fourth.

A short recess was followed by voting on the recommendations made by the president in her report. The first recommendation advocated the continuation of the bureau of information and brought out much debate. It was decided by an unanimous vote that the bureau be continued at an estimated cost of $2,000 per year, but when it was discovered that $4,000 had been voted out of the treasury without a general understanding that such was the effect of the motion, there was a flutter among the delegates and a motion to reconsider was made.

"Whether results accomplished by the bureau was worth the money," was then debated. This debate had been cut short by the motion to pass the recommendation by the call for the previous question. The majority of the speakers favored the bureau. The delegates got into a parliamentary tangle on the question and Mrs. Decker called that the motion opened the original question. This was sustained.

"DEADWOOD DICK" IS DEAD.

He Claimed Relationship to Potter Palmer--Checked Career. Associated Press to The Evening Times. Denver, Col., June 1.--A dispatch from Cripple Creek says that Frank Palmer, said to be the original "Deadwood Dick" of dime novel fame, died in the county hospital there yesterday of pneumonia. According to the dispatch Palmer was born at Jackson, Ill., a nephew of former Senator John M. Palmer, and claimed relationship to the late Potter Palmer of Chicago. When seventeen years old, Palmer left home and drifted west. He went to Deadwood, S. D., in the early days of that camp and became a successful gambler. He was known as a square gambler, and the sports of the mining camp dubbed him "Deadwood Dick, the Plunger." At the age of twenty-one Palmer returned to Illinois and one year later went to Chicago, where he married the sister of a prominent Episcopal minister of that city. One child was the issue of the marriage, but family differences arose and one year and six months later the husband and wife separated and Palmer came west again. He drifted into Cripple Creek nine years ago. Reverses in fortune came and for eight years he sold chewing gum and candy, which he carried around in a shoe box. It is thought that Palmer's wife and child still are in Chicago. Under-taker Hunt, who has charge of the remains, is trying to locate relatives in Illinois.
