See Train Turned Upside Down--No Serious Injuries. Minot, N. D., June 14.--The wreck of the 300 coast train near Harvey was, according to the reports of passengers who have been brought here on a relief train, one of the luckiest that has ever occurred in North Dakota.

Although over 600 passengers were on the train when it went into the ditch, all escaped with but a few scratches and bruises of a minor character. Two of the trainmen were seriously hurt.

The train was going at a high rate of speed when the breaking of an axle threw the engine into the ditch. The entire train turned the sleepers and dining cars turned bottom upwards, and the passengers were scattered in all directions.

For a moment it seemed as if a panic would ensue, but a few of the cooler headed passengers quickly organized a relief party and those pinned in the wreckage were taken out as quickly as possible. The loss of the company is rolling stock and damage to the track, 800 feet of which was torn up, was heavy.

George H. Sothers, who was the most seriously injured of the passengers, was brought to the hospital in this city. He will recover.

"Fossiliferous." The Parsons--I'm afraid you do not look on the sunny side of life. The Deacon--How can I, patron, when I have seven daughters and never a son?

AMUSEMENTS

Vaudeville.

The Orpheum Co. has succeeded in making weekly vaudeville a looked for event in Grand Forks and their motto "Give Them the Best" is being strictly adhered to.

This week's program will contain a number of new features and in its entirety is far stronger than anything yet offered, giving wonderful variety of acts with new pictures that are really marvels in animal photography.

Among them may be mentioned "The Lost Jewel Case" and "The Course of True Love."

Corinne, who has sung her way into the hearts of patrons, will render a dramatic tendency from the pen of the well-known writer, Paul Kremer.

Remember now, the vaudeville will be on Tuesday, and the prices the same bargain prices as heretofore, 10 and 25 cents. Get the habit.

ARE : YOU TRYING TO WALK UP STAIRS OF SAND ?

Climbing sand-stairs is an occupation which will keep you busy--but you won't ARRIVE anywhere!

"Running" a store, or a business enterprise, without advertising will keep you busy--but you won't ARRIVE anywhere!

"Sand-stair" methods of advertising may be pretty to look at--but they won't bear your weight--they crumble at the first pressure.

When you are tired of illusions and ready for realities, you will break yourself of the "sand-stairs" habit--and rely upon the good old-fashioned "way-up" in business--a campaign of newspaper advertising. "Sand-stairs" are related to real stairs as "other stairs" of advertising are related to newspaper advertising.

The Evening Times is the newspaper that is being eagerly read by thousands of people who pay for it at the rate of $4.00 per year. It is adding from 50 to 100 names a day to its subscription list. The Evening Times is death to shame and hypocrisy in all walks of life; it tells the truth and gives reliable news and the people have confidence in it. It is therefore the best advertising medium in North Dakota. Try its advertising columns and be convinced.
