

PRES. PRICE TO FINE DISOBEDIENT CLUBS

Winnipeg, Calumet and Houghton Have Five Days to Get Within Salary Limit.

Special to The Evening Times.
 Fargo, N. D., June 30.—President Price of the Northern-Copper Country league, under the advice of the directors of the various clubs has named a committee to consist of Alex Sterns, Fargo; J. M. Lamb, Winnipeg; and T. J. Hennes, Lake Linden, to revise the league schedule. This committee, it is understood between the various managers will fix the schedule so that in future no more than two games shall be played in succession in any of the copper country towns.

At the Duluth meeting of the board of control this week, the White Sox management made complaint that other teams of the league were exceeding the salary limit. Inquiry was thereupon made by President Price and each manager was made to give a list of his players, together with the salary each was receiving. It was found that Winnipeg, Calumet and Houghton were over the limit and the managers of these teams were given five days to get inside. The total amount in salaries paid by each club, as affirmed by the respective managers, is as follows: Winnipeg, $1,120; Houghton, $1,150; Grand Forks, $1,080; Duluth, $1,085; Lake Linden, $1,060; Hancock, $1,085; Calumet, $1,105; Fargo, $1,085.

After the close of the meeting some of the managers said that they were certain Winnipeg and Calumet were way in excess of the $1,100 limit. "I will make an investigation of both teams," said President Price, "and if I find that either has turned in a doctored report, the manager will have grave reasons to feel sorry."

"That Winnipeg team is costing Manager Lamb close to $2,000," said a member of the board, "and I think it can be easily proved."

"I asked Lamb, upon his honor of a gentleman, to affirm the list he handed in," said President Price, "and if my investigation shows that he is acting unfairly, I will see to it that he is ousted as manager and will fine the Winnipeg club $500 for more. This salary limit is a deal very strongly with the success of the league and must be kept within the required bounds."

Bushelman's Wildness Costs the Browns Game With Hancock.

Special to The Evening Times.
 Hancock, Mich., June 30.—Inability to hit Rogers, and the wildness of Bushelman cost Grand Forks yesterday's game with the locals. The latter issued passes that developed runs, and incidentally cinched a winning for Hancock. The Browns also erred rather more frequently than would be expected of league players.

The Patriots were fast on bases and in addition played perfect ball.

The score by innings:

Hancock	1 0 0 0 0 1 0	R.H.E.
Grand Forks	1 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 4 0

Batteries: Hancock, Rogers and Stewart; Grand Forks, Bushelman and Hart. Umpire, Anderson.

Lake Linden 2, Duluth 0.
 Lake Linden, Mich., June 30.—Lake Linden shut out Duluth yesterday, Balllett letting the White Sox down with but three singles, scattered through as many innings. The Lakers played snappy ball. Summers' error cost Duluth one run. The Lakers' score in the fourth was on clean hitting. The score:

Lake Linden	1 0 0 1 0 0 0	R.H.E.
Duluth	0 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 2 2

Batteries: Lake Linden, Balllett and Kurke; Duluth, Krick and Holding. Umpire, McGraw.

Houghton 4, Winnipeg 3.
 Houghton, Mich., June 30.—Harold Bond handed Houghton the game yesterday by making an error, passing a man and allowing two hits in the first and eighth inning. Otherwise he was steady. Hastings pitched great ball, but the Maroons got to him for five hits and three scores in the sixth, and had the game in their grip, but for Bond's error in the eighth inning. The score:

Houghton	2 0 0 0 0 0 2	R.H.E.
Winnipeg	0 0 0 0 3 0 0	5 9 0

Batteries: Houghton, Hastings and Smith; Winnipeg, Bond and Leach. Umpire, Rudderham.

Calumet 5, Fargo 4.
 Calumet, Mich., June 30.—Calumet pulled out a victory yesterday by a sensational batting rally in the seventh inning, combined with a couple of errors by Fargo. The Fargo men fell on Foulkes hard in the sixth, when four runs were scored on clean hitting, two of them, when Mehl put the ball over the left field fence. The Aristocrats played a fine fielding game, pulling off four double plays. The score:

Calumet	0 0 0 0 4 0 0	R.H.E.
Fargo	0 0 0 0 0 0 0	4 7 5

Batteries: Fargo, Finnegan and Edwards; Calumet, Foulkes and Leahy. Umpire, Wegman.

Notes.
 Notwithstanding that he has lost all the games pitched but two, or possibly three, Manager McNeil still insists that Bushelman is the "goods." The long fellow unquestionably has speed and curve, but lacks the greatest requisite of a successful twirler—a head. Further he can no more field his position than a Methodist parson could beat a roulette wheel.

Ufff! Take away that medicine bottle.

And there we are!

The Browns play Winnipeg at Crookston tomorrow. Bad 'cess to the Johnny Canucks.

The Pickets have decided to play only one game at Grafton on the Fourth.

Grafton goes to Manvel Monday to play a game for $100 a side. Manvel defeated Grafton on Thursday by a score of 2 to 1.

Grafton defeated Ardoch at that place yesterday in a well played game of ball; score Grafton 6, Ardoch 2. Thompson and Minch were battery for the latter and Freeman and Nutt for Grafton. Each team made 8 hits, but errors allowed Grafton to assemble five runs in the first inning.

The players who are to compose the Devils Lake Chautauqua team, mostly Grand Forks and state university young men, left for that place today to begin practice. Kent Hyslop of this city is manager and the following are the other players: Marsh Bran- non, Charley Boise, Alfred Dean, Harry McDonald, Art Netcher, Dan Brennan, Gordon McGauvran, Dr. Sweetland and Kent Hyslop.

The Browns will be here for two games with Winnipeg on Wednesday, July 4th.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED.
 Minot Prepared to Royally Entertain at Race Meet in July.

Special to The Evening Times.
 Minot, June 30.—The people of Ward county are now anxiously looking forward to the races which will occur on the 3rd, 4th and 5th of July. Secretary Champine of the State Race Association has been especially diligent during the past three weeks making arrangements for the meeting. A large number of horses from not only different sections of this state, but from Canada have applied and received admittance to the racing ground. The railroad companies have granted half-fare rates and otherwise aided materially in securing a large attendance. The program which has been published several times in different papers in the state will be carried out to the letter.

Recent advices from Mandan, Dawson, Steele, Jamestown, Bismarck, Valley City, Fargo, Wagon Hills, Bismarck, and in fact all points on the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads indicate that several special trains will be run on the 2nd and 3rd of July, all for the benefit of the Minot races. It is probable that 10,000 people will be in Minot during the racing period. And every effort is being made by her citizens to accommodate the crowd.

Courtenay Races.
 Courtenay, N. D., June 30.—The entries for the Courtenay races bid fair to be the best ever received at this point. Every class has filled, even the three year old class. This class and the 2:10 are still a little weak in the Central circuit.

Kensal, Wimbleton, Dazey, McHenry and Courtenay will play ball. It is supposed they will vie with one another as to who can root the loudest on July 3, 4 and 5.

The track is in excellent condition notwithstanding the heavy rains. It is so drained that it could be raced on any day this week.

FAMOUS BATTERS.
Tell Queer Incidents of Occasions on and off the Diamond.

Lost—One pair of batting lamps. General reward for return to—
 The name doesn't matter, for reference is had to no particular ball player. They are, however, one time or another. The players who don't hit "in streaks," but maintains a steady wallop of the pellet all the season round, without slumping, can be counted on the fingers of the armless wonder. Ever Willie Keeler "was out" in batting form. The hunched-up Stone of the St. Louis Browns has weeks when he can't make any of that raptorial music with his chilleale.

"There are weeks," said Stone on his last visit here, "when the ball, as it advances toward the plate, looks as big to me as a toy balloon, no matter who's pitching. Then, right on top of such a period comes a week when the ball looks like a grain of mustard seed in a howling gale, even when some flinger who hasn't a thing is lobbing them along. Explain it? You might as well ask me to explain an earthquake."

"I couldn't hit a bunk if it was too sloppy to stand up," disgustedly remarked the great Larry Lajoie, one of the greatest hitters the game has ever produced, one day during the Cleveland club's last visit here, when he was walking back to the bench after a home run.

His fellow players laughed. They knew that their boss was slandering himself and that he was taking his little batting slump too much to heart.

"That night, at the hotel, Lajoie was asked how he better in his life," he replied. "If I felt any better I'd have to go to a hospital and get the radium treatment or try X-ray gag or start something else. Feeling immense."

That he has asked what he had meant by making that crack about his hitting. The writer wanted to get at the point as to whether a man's physical condition necessarily had anything to do with his hitting.

Too Deep for Larry.
 "I see what you mean," said Larry. "But I'll have to pass along that question. It's been asked of me for a good many years. Speaking not only for myself, but for the other fellows who've picked up a sort of a name for hitting, I can say that the way a fellow feels doesn't have much to do with his hitting ability. Of course, if a player is run down in health and weak, he's not there with the clouts. But there's a difference between being actually sick and weak, and being just doped and sort of out of form. Now, since the hitting I ever did in my life was done when I felt doped, languid, and sick of the game; when I didn't feel any more like playing ball than hitching up with a chain gang. When in that shape, especially along toward the middle of the season, when tired of traveling and sort of harness-sore from the whole business, I'd trudge up to the rack and slapped the ball time and again, taking everything the flinger poked at me, and mauling it, in fact, no matter where I caught it. Then, to show the other way of this baffling business, there are times—like the present, for example—when I feel like pulling the tusk out of catamounts with my naked hands, appetite great, sleep fine, wind bully, and all keyed up, and on edge like a fighting dog, when every time I nudge up to the plate, they get me, can't hit a persimmon with a two-pound pebble, standing right under it. I was fed all kinds of good ones that ever I tried, but I'm of the kind that I'd like to catch between my teeth and spit 'em out if I was there with the ticks, and I couldn't have passed one of 'em with a Japanese screen."

"Well, what's the dope on the thing?" Larry was asked. "There must be an answer. It's one that's got to be read in the stars, and I'm not there at that kind of work," was Lajoie's reply. "I'm trying to get at the bottom meaning of batting slumps ever since I broke into the game, without ever getting any farther than the fact that such batting slumps do snake along and that they hit every batsman practically the same way. I only wish I could find out the meaning of the slump, and the cause of it. When a fellow knows what's the matter with him he can rig up something in the way of a cure. But when he's in the dark as to what ails him, the only thing he can do is to wait till he gets back to himself."—Pioneer Press.

ATHLETIC STARS COMPETE.

With a field of several hundred entries, including the cream of the track and field athletes of this section, it is confidently expected that one or more records will go by the board before the final event is pulled off this afternoon.

TURF NOTES

Green Trotter's Fast Trial.

One of the best trials shown at the Lexington, Ky., track this season was that of Will Mayban, a 4-year-old green colt by Allewood, which gives promise of being one of the best pacing prospects in training. The colt has only been in training forty days, and has never been handled on the track until this season, but when set down by Trainer W. A. Owings this week stepped a mile in 2:19 1/4, going the last eighth in 15 1/4.

Will Mayban is out of the noted broodmare Amias, dam of Phalla, 2:09 1/4.

The first real work of the season by Emma Brook, 2:09 3/4, was made during the week, when Trainer Simpson sent her a mile jogging in 2:21, the last half of which she covered in 1:05, and the final quarter in 32 1/2.

Emma Brook is in better condition this year than at any time in her career, and it is the belief of her trainer that she will take a mark of 2:07 before the end of the season. It was at first intended to matinee her this year, but she is doing so well that her owner will start her at the beginning of August in several events and local horsemen look for her to be a dangerous factor in the 2:10 class events on the Grand Circuit.

Emma T., the dam of Emma Brook, and Miss Adbell, has proven barren this season to Walnut Hall, and she was mated this Spring to Flexo. Emma T. has no yearling this year, as she slipped twins to Onward Silver in 1905.

John Splan will leave the coming week for the Libertyville, Ill., track, near Chicago, where his noted mare, Bi-Flora, will make her first start of the season, and from that point she will be raced in several towns through Illinois and Wisconsin, and will make her first appearance on the Grand Circuit at the Oakley Park meeting, Cincinnati. Bi-Flora is engaged in several important events on the Gas Belt Circuit, and Splan believes she will take the big end of most of the races she starts in. Splan has also several green trotters he will race on the same circuit.

The noted broodmare, Silicon, 2:13 1/4, dam of Siliko, 2-year-old record 2:17 1/2, has foaled a brown filly by Walnut Hall, 2:08 1/4, at the farm of Senator J. W. Bailey, who now owns the great daughter of Wilton. Silicon has been mated this season to Senator Bailey's horse, Prodigal, 2:16.

The fastest pacing pacer to show up at the local track this season is a bay filly by Prodigal, owned by Senator Bailey, and trained by H. M. Childs. This youngster has been named Sarah Horn, in honor of Miss Sarah Horn, owner of this city.

Major P. P. Johnston has sold to J. L. Stenson, Mayfield, Ky., a 5-year-old bay mare by King Clay, and to Lindsay Hale a 3-year-old black filly by the same sire. Hays to train, and this week he will give a 5-year-old mare a mile in 2:26.—Philadelphia Item.

Blinkers.
 Ormondale was worked out a mile and a quarter after the finish of the Swift Stakes as part of his preparation for one of his future engagements. It begins to look as if he was a horse of great speed, but lacking in the courage which marks a great racehorse. He seemed to give up the fight rather suddenly when Halifax looked him in the eye, as he did when Winsal beat him in the Standard Stakes. It begins to look as if Halifax might be something more than a mere sprinter, and if he will go a distance there are no three-year-olds in training which could take liberties with him.

Miller, the jockey, had one of his good days, riding Red River and Nancy Bird to victory. Baddeley finished in six mounts yesterday and loses his place at the top of the winning jockey list for the meeting.

Oiseau won the Swift States last year, while other recent winners include Stalwart, River Pirate, Hatasoo, Watercolor, Contester, Fly By Night and Hamburg. R. T. Wilson, Jr., scored his third victory in succession in the Zephyr States when Red River won yesterday. Galloway won for last year and Gamara the year before. Other winners in recent years were Race King, Golden Maxim, Disadvantage, Commando and Killashandra.—Philadelphia Item.

Philadelphia Horsemen to Witness Wentworth Race.

A number of Philadelphia horsemen will leave the city on July 3 via the Pennsylvania railroad to witness the $15,000 match race at Readville on July 4 between the three great trotters Wentworth, 2:04 1/4; Riverton, 2:04 1/4, and Sweet Marie, 2:04 1/4.

A PECULIAR CROSS.
Progeny of a White Bear and Sled Dog is a Beauty.

One of the most peculiar crosses ever heard of was made by a very well-known lady of noble birth, who has recently come to this country and resides on one of the beautiful inlets or harbors of Long Island. The "dog" for such he is to all intents and purposes, is of the most aristocratic kind, and is every inch the domestic canine when we take into consideration his affection for his mistress and his general ways. His father was one of the sled dogs of Dr. Nansen's Farthest North Polar Expedition, his mother being a wild white bear of the smallest kind. The bear was captured and in due course brought back to Europe, and the litter arrived. The now Long Island dog became the property of H. L. E. the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia, who at a dog show at St. Petersburg presented him to the Belgian lady, who so much admired the dog. On making further inquiries it is learned that the mating of the canine and plantigrade races is not an unknown occurrence, but the writer must confess to his ignorance on the subject.
