

MRS. A. P. PAGE, Society Editor. Office Phones, Both No. 14.

SPLASH!
Jes' a little splash—that's all—
When you let a pebble fall
In the lake. The waters close
An' in obedient response
Picture back the hills an' sun
Jes' as they have always done.
Everything seems as before.
Jes' a splash: an' nothing more.

Mighty men an' small ones, too.
On high, by fate, we view.
Shadows of forgetfulness
Soon surround them more or less
Like the glistering waves that fade
Their slight ripples that they made
Recollection kin recall
Jes' a little splash—that's all.
—Washington Star.

Many of our readers will be enjoying a much-needed vacation during the months of July and August, but not all. The major portion of us must make the best of what fate brings us, and if we try very hard we shall find a "best" side to every condition of life.

Now is the season when it pays to live the simple life—to eliminate from the day's duties every useless, burdensome thing. Look about you and see how Dame Nature works; there is the season of growth; and when the work of growing is finished, comes the season of ripening—a resting in the sunshine or the shadow. It is the "midway"; we need not look backward; we should not look forward; let us look about us. Let us rest the body and invigorate the mind. There will be both time and strength to work, then, when the call comes. Let us "take time," and get acquainted with ourselves and each other, and with our environment of both earth and air.

Mrs. William Anderson came here last week from Milton to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Anderson accompanied her, but returned to Milton when she was out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor, old residents of Larimore and Inkster, are in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Payne. After a few days' here, they will go to Lodi, Cal., where they will make a new home.

Miss Leona Vale who has been the guest of friends at Reynolds has returned home.
The many friends of Mrs. Charles Russell see Mrs. Ida Kittredge, now of New York, formerly of this city, are glad to welcome her in Grand Forks again. She was at all times a social favorite and prominent in musical circles.

Miss Belle Dudley of Grand Forks, has been elected to teach the primary grade in the public schools at Milton the coming year.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kneeshaw of Grafton, were prominent visitors here this week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Streeter of Larimore were visitors one day this week. The Streeter farm, know as the old Hughes and Hersey place near Larimore is now one of the finest residence estates in North Dakota. The Streeters have spared no money and labor to make it an ideal place.

Longworth and her husband spent exclusively with fellow Americans abroad. That was America's natal day. And how the celebrating Yankees cheered the daughter of the president, and with what patriotic enthusiasm did she salute the Stars and Stripes and applaud the healthy Yankee sentiments of the speakers! The royal dinner given by Ambassador Reid in London was a truly gorgeous affair, and cost him, the gossips say, his ambassadorial salary for a year. But which was more to the inward satisfaction of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. The feast spread for her and a crowned head, or this far simpler affair at which the birth of her native land was fittingly celebrated?

Mary Leter was a good wife to her husband, George Nathaniel Curzon, and when he became Baron Curzon of Kedleston and discreet in his interest and this natural aptitude for the larger concerns of social life fitted perfectly with his ambitions and work as a responsible statesman. Without doubt the enervating atmosphere of the East shared by her with her husband during his six arduous years as the Viceroy of India reduced the strength of her constitution, and so made it easier for various complications to accomplish their deadly work. In a large sense Lady Curzon was an admirable representative in English society of the best American qualities—although best qualities are of course best qualities in every part of the civilized world, except for some minor differences of expression. Throwing out the question of money, however, which only counts as the means to an end, it is the distinction of Lady Curzon that she stepped from a home representative of no more than the ordinary commercial life of the United States, both in its origins and environment, into the most cultivated life of England, and proved herself under those new conditions a charming and capable woman precisely as she would have been here had her marriage and home been in this country. Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain is another American girl who has achieved the same sort of distinction and there are probably others; but among them all Lady Curzon stood in the first rank.—Hartford Courant.

A charming entertainment on Tuesday complimentary to some of the out of town guests, was that of Mrs. Jessie Mix and Mrs. E. Lovejoy at the home of the former on South Sixth street. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and narcissi and the afternoon amusement was "500." When the scores were counted it was found Mrs. William M. Rand was the lucky one scoring highest, Mrs. Willis Nash second, and Mrs. McHugh from Oak Park, Ill. who is the guest of her sister Mrs. E. C. Cooper, third. All were awarded dainty prizes.

Mr. Emmet Mix arrived home on Friday from Minot and will be the guest of his mother Mrs. Mix on South Sixth street for a few days.
Miss Janet McKay has gone to Winnipeg for a few days' visit with relatives. She announces to the ladies her dermatologist and hair dressing parlors will be closed until later announcement.
The dancing party given at the Town and Country club Wednesday evening complimentary to Mr. Dick Grant of Fargo, who is the guest of his sister Mrs. Findlay Cameron, was a delightful affair attended by about fifteen of the young people.

Miss Mildred Phillips, who has been the guest of Miss Mildred Corliss for the past week, returned Friday evening to her home in St. Paul.
Mrs. E. C. Bates entertained quite elaborately this afternoon complimentary to Mrs. S. D. Sampson of Charlotte, N. C., who leaves tomorrow evening for a week's visit in Minneapolis and then to her home in North Carolina. Seven tables at "500" were played and a delightful afternoon spent. Mrs. Bates was assisted by Mrs. George E. Duis, Mrs. Houghton and Mrs. David Warren. The home was prettily decorated in sweet peas and poppies, and elegant refreshments were served.

When ready to serve, put a large piece of ice into the bottom of a tall glass pitcher, strain in the lemonade and ale, and in the mouth of the pitcher put a fresh bunch of mint which has been lightly dipped first in slightly beaten egg-white and then in powdered sugar.
Orange, cherries and lemons add a delicious flavor to iced tea—try them.

A light gray skirt, gray shoes, a delicate silver nailhead belt, a white waist, and a light-blue hat; isn't that a pretty outfit? We saw one today and it looked stunning.
All through the early fall, coat sleeves will be short, but those that are to be worn later will be long. Generally speaking the new sleeves are long—is the latest fashion edict.

While talking with one of our merchants recently about the style of the new suit coats the coming fall I learned that so great is the tendency to wear what is becoming, regardless of the length, say, that merchants will be obliged to buy every style from the Eton to the coat that hangs to near the bottom of the skirt. This particular merchant has already made his purchases.
The rule seems to be that the separate coat of taffeta shall be black or dark no matter how light the gown is with which it is to be worn.

Mrs. Jamison Larimore with her son, Master Jamison, Jr., and two daughters, Hazel and Gladys, arrived home Saturday from London, Ont., where they were called some weeks ago by the serious illness of Mrs. Larimore's mother, Mrs. S. J. Moore. Mrs. Moore has quite recovered and is now able to be about. It was thought some time ago that she was losing her eyesight, but a letter from Mrs. Larimore states that such is not the case.
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of J. E. Jordan on the south side at Fargo, Tuesday, when Mr. George A. Rosenberg and Miss Regina Norby were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. John A. Zundel performed the ceremony in the presence of a few of the friends of the young couple. The groom who is a popular traveling man was presented with a handsome chair by some of his fellow knights of the grip. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg will leave next week on their wedding trip going to Mr. Rosenberg's home in Wisconsin where they will spend some time.

Mrs. J. H. Mathews and daughters, Miss Sadie and Maud gave a reception at their country home at Larimore, Tuesday afternoon from three to five in honor of their cousins, Mrs. Titworth and Miss Taylor of New York. The house was charmingly decorated with flowers and the grounds were cool and inviting. There was a service of light refreshments.
A highly interesting ceremony occurred Tuesday morning at St. John, N. D., in the form of a double wedding, when Mr. Wilfred Gagnon and Miss Mary Louise Berubee, and Mr. Wilfred Bedard and Miss Eva Cyr were united in marriage. The event took place at 8 o'clock in the Catholic church, Rev. Father Quillet, of Belcourt officiating, and was witnessed by a large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Berubee's gown was of pale blue mousseline de soie, trimmed in bands of hand insertion, while Miss Cyr was robed in tan chiffon cloth, trimmed in white embroidered chiffon. After the ceremony a reception and wedding breakfast was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Bedard at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. Martel. Mr. and Mrs. Gagnon repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous breakfast was served, after which Mrs. Gagnon, the groom's mother, held a reception at her home. The young ladies are well known and highly respected at St. John, and the young gentlemen are worthy of their brides.

Miss Emma and Lucile Arnold of Larimore left last week with the editorial excursion for Yellowstone Park. They will be gone about two weeks.
Mrs. M. N. Johnson and her daughter Miss Nelle at Petersburg, gave a one o'clock luncheon last Friday to a select party of friends in honor of Mrs. Dr. C. J. Montgomery, who was about to depart for her home at Overly after a visit here of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Graham.

The baroness Burdett-Coutts' recent celebration of her 92nd birthday brings this famous woman again before the public. It has been almost generally forgotten that as Miss Angela Burdett-Coutts she was a bridesmaid to Queen Victoria, and it was "Good Queen Vic" who, thirty-five years ago, created her baroness. At that time there was not a single peeress in her own right in the three kingdoms, but shortly after that Lady Bergers succeeded to a barony and there are now at the present time ten peeresses of England and two—Lady Kinloss and Lady Gray—of Scotland.

Last Wednesday evening Hon. M. N. Johnson was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by the citizens of Petersburg, as a token of their appreciation of his address there on July 4th. Hon. T. E. LaTourrette presented the cane to the distinguished gentleman in a neat little speech to which Mr. Johnson responded in his usual happy and eloquent manner. On one side of the gold head is engraved the initials "M. N. J.," while the other side bears the legend, "July 4th, 1906."

Mr. A. H. Yerxa and family contemplate moving from Milton, N. D., to Texas in the near future to make this their future home.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. B. Turner, of Devils Lake, with their little son, Charles, are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Turner at Larimore for a few days. On Monday afternoon Charles entertained a few little people on the Rectory lawn, all enjoying a very happy time.
A card received from the Powies family of Milton this week says that they had a pleasant voyage across the ocean and have arrived safely in England. They will make an extended European tour.

Mrs. Jane M. Smith, teacher of piano, organ and theory, may be found at room 72, Security building, Thursday mornings.
"A dwarf may keep pace with a giant if he will but move his legs a little faster." And a "want advertiser" may realize FULLY AS GREAT RETURNS UPON HIS INVESTMENT IN ADVERTISING SPACE as the largest merchant.

Subscribe for The Evening Times.

The M. H. Redick HIDE & FUR CO.
Northwestern Dealers in Fine Northern Furs, Hides, Felts,
Wool, Tallow, Roots, Etc.
Largest and Oldest Hide and Fur
House in the State.
GRAND FORKS N. DAK.

DAKOTA BOTTLING WORKS
Importers, Manufacturers and Jobbers of Carbonated Beverages, Phosphates,
Fountain Syrups
and all kinds of Flavors
Siders, Malts and Seltzer Waters
N. W. Phone 1009-L. Tri-State Phone 818
Grand Forks, N. Dak.

Guarantee Stock Food Company
Incorporated
Capital Stock, $80,000
Manufacturers of Stock Food, Feeding
Food, Worm Powder, Lice Killer,
Hive Cure, Pink Eye Remedy, Fever
Cure, Calf Cure, Gall Cure, Foot
Bleed and White Liniment.
GRAND FORKS, N. D.

Rasmussen, Bemis & Company
Wholesale
Dry Goods, Notions, Etc.
GRAND FORKS N. DAKOTA

O. YOUNG
Wholesale Furniture, Pianos, Carpets, Sewing
Machines, Bank and Office Furniture
125-126-129 South Third St.
Grand Forks, North Dakota

C. G. MYERS, C. E., Grand
Fork, N. D., Insurance
Five years. Will make special the twenty part of the State. Write to him.

Chief Dayolheasala's
MOHAWK REMEDIES
State Agents GUS MYERS,
320 S. Third St., Grand Forks, N. D.

BOTH PHONES 145-M
SIG WOLFF

..FURS..
STORED AND INSURED
Have Your Fur Garments Repaired Now!
By ordering your next winters Furs at this time (to be delivered and paid for in the fall) you can save 50c on every dollar.

The old road would also be lost over marshy ground, and now and then, but very rarely, modern buildings would appear on it, and then, of

O. Young's Furniture and Music House
White Frost Sanitary Refrigerator
SEWING MACHINES
Victor Talking Machines
CASH OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS
O. YOUNG
125-126-129 South Third St., Grand Forks, North Dakota
Pianos
Music
A Few Household Necessaries
GO-CARTS SPECIAL PRICES
Carpets
Rugs
Linoleum
ALL GRADES
Lace Curtains
Everything