WHAT OF GRAND FORKS?

There is in all probability no class of business concerns in the entire country which are so conservative in their expenditures in making improvements as the railroads.

COURTESY TO CITIZENS.

The effect of the democratic rally in this city last night which formally opened the state campaign of that party, will have but little effect upon the result of the November election.

REFORMING THE JUDICIARY.

The plan of increasing the number of judges of the supreme court from three to five is in all probability a wise one.

DRAINAGE AND DIVERSIFICATION.

There have been numberless stories of late years to the effect that the Red river valley is becoming one of the deserted portions of the northwest and that, because of the imperative need of drainage, the value of the land is even now on its decrease.

ORDER COURT MARTIAL.

Russian Soldiers Who Objected to Fighting to Be Tried Now for Murder.

SELECT NORFOLK.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The great council of the Improved Order of Red Men in session at Niagara Falls, has decided to meet at Norfolk, Va., next year.

ple of the valley have a sort of drainage revival, in which the enthusiasm reaches the boiling point, and the press gives to the public the speeches and proceedings of the meetings, in which, like everything else which is specialized, the only thing considered is drainage.

Drainage conventions talk drainage, and from the talk on this one topic when all others are excluded, it might be inferred that unless such drainage was forthcoming the valley would soon be as deserted as the hillside farms of New England were a few years ago.

The professional reformer is having a hard time of it this year. Both Bryan and LaFollette have suffered reverses of an irreparable nature.

It actually looks as though the Cuban insurgents had the best of the contest in that inland so far as military successes go.

The Evening Times does not believe that Judge Engender will resign from the supreme bench.

It is said that Stensland tried to commit suicide by taking poison.

The printing combine steal, furnished the only public scandal that North Dakota has ever had.

The latest cure for incorrigible boys is a surgical operation performed on the brain.

It is believed that Fargo will show up this fall with about 2,400 school children of school age.

It is maintained that Minot is the third city in the state as respects population.

The republican state organization has nothing to explain, and it will make an aggressive campaign from the start.

Organized labor lost considerable standing when Gompers attempted to defeat Congressman Littlefield of Maine and failed.

The Consumer Gloats. The loeman is in limbo and the butcher's ship of arrogance has gone upon the rocks.

I go to work of mornings with my head among the stars. For all my old-time enemies I have the sun for a banner.

The baker got a year of it for giving me short weight. The railroad man's indignation for his rebates on my freight.

In days of old they scorned me and they sneered when I would write. Through the mire of these I said nothing, but sawed wood.

The Minneapolis Journal should not lend itself to the business of disseminating the slanders concocted by the discredited Grand Forks Herald.

Four-thousand acres quantities as they did a few days ago in the western part of this state—twenty-seven purchasing adjacent tracts—it does not look as though there was any danger of desirable immigration to this state ceasing.

The referendum plank in the Minot platform pleased the Herald because it saw therein a chance to embarrass the republicans.

ARMY MANEUVERS

Americans and Other Foreigners Watch German Army Encampment.

Special Correspondence to The Evening Times. Lieke, Prussia, Sept. 13.—The military maneuvers which continued today in the first light of the morning.

Empire William and his guests arose at 3 o'clock. They had breakfast on a special train at a quarter before four, and arrived in the neighborhood of the Terrian where the maneuvers are being held, at half past four.

The troops were in the morning, began deploying on the wide stretches of meadow and wheat fields, lying below the level of the hills.

Instead of remaining with the imperial party the American officers rode over the field, observing for themselves at first hand the appearance and conduct of all arms of service.

William J. Bryan and Bishop Potter Send Their Congratulations. Associated Press to The Evening Times.

London, Sept. 13.—The Tribune publishes a series of notable congratulations from eminent men in all quarters of the globe on Premier Campbell-Bannerman's seventieth birthday.

William J. Bryan—I congratulate Campbell-Bannerman on rounding out his three-score years and ten and I wish him many more years of usefulness.

Booker T. Washington—in common with all citizens of the world who recognize worth and world-wide services of high order, I wish to send my hearty congratulations and the gratitude of the negro race to Premier Campbell-Bannerman.

Mark Twain—To Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. Congratulations, not condolences. Before 70 we are merely respected at best, and we have to love ourselves all the time or we lose that asset.

Joseph Pulitzer—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's career is a great lesson in its force of tenacity and perseverance in the moral course.

During the Boer War farmers in this country were at their wits' end to obtain hands for harvest work.

The proprietor of a large farm in Larimore undertook to supply his workers with an unlimited quantity of harvest beer and a gramophone entertainment three times a week.

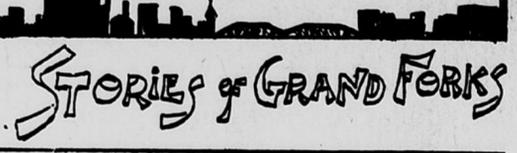

Another undertook to provide a quart of milk per day for each worker free, and butter and eggs at half price when required.

WYOMING DEMOCRATS. Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 13.—Democracy of Wyoming in this city today to nominate a full ticket.

Orangeburg, S. C., Sept. 13.—Several scores of delegates from various parts of this state and from North Carolina as well as here to attend a convention.

Temperance Workers. Orangeburg, S. C., Sept. 13.—Several scores of delegates from various parts of this state and from North Carolina as well as here to attend a convention.

STORIES OF GRAND FORKS

The people of Grand have often shown their endorsement of President Roosevelt's ideas regarding race suicide by increasing the cities population with twins and triplets, but not until yesterday it was noticed that Grand Forks animals had absorbed the president's theories.

When one of the men in a south end dairy went to the barn yesterday he found a cow surrounded by three woolly-legged calves, of which the mother seemed exceedingly proud.

The owner says that a short time ago his cow swallowed a newspaper which contained a report of utterance by Roosevelt on the race suicide question.

"Now children," said a teacher in a northside school the other day, "let us see what you remember about the animal kingdom and the domestic animals that belong to it."

They had quarreled. Everybody in the neighborhood knew it. Some had noticed that he had not called nightly as had been his custom while others received the news of the quarrel from Johnnie, her "kid" brother, who is not at all adverse to peddling his sister's secrets.

Sunday evening the young man was seen in the neighborhood. But he apparently could not muster up the courage to enter.

"No, he just went out," was the reply. "Did you wish to see him on particular business?"

Some time since, Judge Fisk was called upon by a couple of young people and asked to perform the marriage ceremony for them.

The hobo class which infests the two cities now, under the guise of workmen, is about the toughest looking bunch that could be found in several states.

Among the crowds are a number of criminals who have records familiar to the police, and while the names of many of them cannot be recalled, the police are able to point out faces which have appeared in the rogues' gallery.

WAS GOOD BAIT FOR LABORERS

When a farmer has acres upon acres of golden grain ready to be cut and gathered in, and not the requisite hands to do the work, he is driven to novel expedients to obtain them.

To avoid a loss of crops a still more enterprising farmer has gone one better than chicken dinners and motor rides.

As a further inducement to all and sundry to assist him in his harvest work he offers the unrivaled attraction of a balloon ascent in a captive balloon.

Other equally entertaining offers have been made by a farmer who has upwards of a thousand acres of wheat.

Any widower or single man wishing to enter the married state he undertaken to "splice" free of charge, provided that the marriage takes place before harvest time comes round again.

The same farmer also promises to "hand" coming from an adjacent town to provide a conveyance for them to and from their work.

The proprietor of a large farm in Larimore undertook to supply his workers with an unlimited quantity of harvest beer and a gramophone entertainment three times a week.
