Alex Stewart employed on a farm in Steele county, became temporarily insane and cut his throat with a jack-knife. He was near the Griggs county line that for some time there was a question as to which should take charge of the case. The unfortunate man, it is thought, will recover.

Walcott comes to the front with a mysterious disappearance case. Gilbert Nelson, wheat buyer for the Northwestern elevator, son of N. O. Nelson of Browns Valley, left Walcott Aug. 16 with a railroad ticket to the former place but never reached there and no trace of him can be found. He was traced from Walcott to Breckenridge but no further. Before leaving Walcott Nelson drew out of the local bank what money he had deposited.
