

What Stanchfield Says

FALL SUIT REMARKS

The Suits of the Season suggest stateliness rather than baggy fullness.

Take the coat for instance—though the shoulders are broad, the lines conceal towards the waist, then flare out into long skirts, forming what is called the French Back.

Some of these suits have center vents with creased side seams.

The new big lapels tend to give the impression of a broad chest.

A noticeable feature of this long coat is the fact that it lends itself equally well to Short or Tall Men.

THERE'S A LONG PRICE RANGE

$15 $18 $20 $22

The exclusive Tailor can charge you twice these prices, and he will if he has the opportunity, but you can rest assured that he never can give you better Suits.

A FORMER TEACHER OF MILITARY TACTICS

Capt. Farnsworth, One Time at the State University, Visiting in City.

Capt. Farnsworth of the Seventh regiment, United States infantry, arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days with his wife who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bosard. They will remain here until October 1, when they will go to Ft. Wayne at Detroit, to which place the regiment has been transferred from Missoula, Montana. They will join the regiment at Fargo on its way east in a few days.

Capt. and Mrs. Farnsworth have seen considerable of the world since their marriage twelve years ago, as Mrs. Farnsworth has accompanied her husband on many of his assignments. They were married while the captain was an instructor in the university, and after making their home in this city for a couple of years, they went to Denver where they were stationed at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. The regiment to which Capt. Farnsworth was attached was ordered to the front and was among the first to reach Cuba. He participated in the fight at San Juan hill and in the other important battles which crushed the power of Spain in the island. Returning to this country at the close of hostilities, he was assigned to service on the upper Yukon and spent nearly two years in that region. At the termination of his service in that country he spent a year on the coast and was then assigned to service in the Philippines, where he spent some time, building while there, Fort McKinley, one of the most modern American military fortifications in the islands. He was detailed to the tower of Spain in the evacuation, Mrs. Farnsworth accompanying him on this trip. For some time they have been stationed at Missoula from which the regiment has been ordered October 1.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS OPEN

Campaign to be Short and Decisive—Some Noted Speakers.

All is activity at the headquarters of the republican state central committee. Secretaries H. M. Jewell and J. W. Fawcett arrived in the city yesterday and immediately began preparations for the opening of the fall political campaign. Quantities of stationery and office furniture were brought over to the Plano building and installed in the headquarters there much time was busy all day fitting up the rooms.

"The campaign this year is to be short and decisive," said Mr. Jewell. "It will last probably only about a month, beginning about October 1. The farmers are too busy just now to devote much time to politics and besides we think they know the situation pretty well.

"No, we will not issue any great quantity of literature," said Mr. Jewell in answer to a question. "The people do not care particularly to read it. They depend more upon their newspapers to keep them informed. Besides this is a strong republican state anyhow. All that is needed is to see that the voters get out and we will depend largely upon the county committee to look after this part of it and impress them with the importance of voting."

U. S. DISTRICT COURT ON TODAY

Adjourned Term Opens in Fargo This Morning—Several Land Fraud Cases Will Come Up.

The adjourned term of the federal district court opened in the Cass county court house today, Judge Amidon presiding.

Twenty Indian witnesses came in last night from the Fort Berthold reservation to testify in the case against W. Bristow, charged with the murder of an Indian named Snuffy Bear on the Standing Rock reservation about a year ago. As none of them can speak English, their testimony will necessarily have to be taken through the medium of an interpreter and this may delay proceedings several days.

There are a large number of land fraud cases and other matters. There are but two civil cases booked, the first of which is that of Alfred E. Logie vs. the board of education of Fargo and the matter of the involuntary petition in bankruptcy of Mr. Busse, Mr. Logie was formerly superintendent of schools of this city. One of the last acts of the retiring board of education was to make a contract with Mr. Logie for another year, and the first action of the new board was to rescind the action of the old one. Suit to recover a year's salary was then brought by Mr. Logie and the case in point is the result. It will be set for trial about Oct. 1 and Judge Morris of Duluth, it is learned, will be here to preside at the trial. As Judge Amidon was more or less interested in school affairs at the time Mr. Logie was here, it has been decided to call in a judge from the sister state.

Pessimists do not like themselves, therefore it isn't to be expected that they could like anything or anybody else.

W. C. T. U. DEDICATED FOUNTAIN

The Gift of the Park River W. C. T. U. to the City—Appropriate Services.

The state W. C. T. U. delegates to the convention in Park River are having an interesting time. The first service Sunday was conducted by Mrs. L. B. Chamberlin of Lisbon.

The feature of the afternoon was the presentation and dedication of a new public drinking fountain in the public square. The fountain, which is of beautiful design and workmanship, is the gift of the Park River W. C. T. U. to the city and has just been completed and set up. Mrs. Phair, president of the Park River W. C. T. U., made the presentation address, to which Mayor Daugherty, accepting the gift in behalf of the city, made a very happy response. Appropriate addresses were made by Mrs. Harford, national organizer, and Miss Anna Shaw, national vice president. Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, state president, was given the first drink from the fountain.

Another interesting meeting was the children's rally. Miss Ferguson of Grand Forks conducted the exercises. The Loyal Temperance Legion was addressed by Mrs. Harford.

The feature of the day was the address of Miss Anna Shaw, the vice president of the national association, and life long companion of Miss Frances Willard, at the evening service. The address was inspiring and most impressive.

The diamond medal contest was another of the big things of the convention. The contestants were Miss Lena McLarty of Starkweather, Mr. Thomas Chambers of Churches Ferry, Mrs. Buck of Starkweather, and Miss Dickinson of Tower City.

The morning session yesterday was devoted to reports from the different department superintendents, and an address on "Hereditarily and Hygiene" was given by Mrs. Morley of Ohio.

This afternoon the opening exercises were conducted by Mrs. A. L. Woods of Grand Forks. Mrs. Lillie B. Smith of Thompson gave an interesting address on "Why the Women of North Dakota Desire the Ballot."

Another of the interesting features of the convention was the Y. W. C. A. meeting, with a number of five minute addresses as its feature. Miss Hazel Kneeshaw of Pembina discussed "What a Y Should Do Morally."

EAST SIDE

SUIT IS CALLED OFF

Mrs. Joseph Jarvis Does Not Seek a Divorce From Her Husband.

The report was circulated around town today that Mrs. Joseph Jarvis had applied for a divorce from her husband on the charge of cruel treatment. Upon investigation it was found that although initial proceedings had been started, these were called off last evening. Mr. Jarvis states that certain parties told lies to his wife and believing them to be true she consulted an attorney, but he states that when she found out the falsity of the charges she immediately called the suit off and the lawyers will now be turned on to the meddlesome informers.

COUNCIL HELD A LIVELY MEETING

Mayor O'Leary Will Investigate the Charges Made by the Aldermen at Meeting.

The principal matter that was to have come up at the city council meeting last night was the consideration of bids for the electric lighting. However no bids were received last night and the electric light committee will hold a meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The petition from the Third ward for a policeman brought forth considerable discussion as to the merits of the police force. Alderman Sherlock stated that there would be no occasion for an additional man if the present force was put on instead of going about in pairs. Mr. Sherlock said a policeman brought forth considerable discussion as to the merits of the police force. Recorder Gorman stated that the Northern Pacific wanted to know about what material would be acceptable for a walk on Fourth street. The aldermen favored letting the road put in a soft cement walk.

The council adjourned to this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Perrault Held. Henry Perrault was given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon in Judge Sullivan's court on a charge of stealing $20 from the person of McDonald and was held to the grand jury in the sum of $200. THE KIDS WERE TOO CURIOUS Immigrant Outfit Came Cheaply From Iowa to Fargo.

A unique scheme for securing cheap transportation for himself, his wife and four children which has been invented and was being carried out by an Iowa farmer was frustrated through the vigilance of Superintendent Burt at Fargo added to the curiosity of the children. While walking past the through freight from the east which was standing in the yards, Superintendent Burt observed some youngsters looking out of the side of a box car. He decided to investigate and was greatly surprised to find not only the children but father and mother, two cows, two horses and a farming outfit all loaded in one car. The party carried a supply of food sufficient to last several days and had evidently made careful preparations for the trip.

In explanation of his conduct the farmer related a very pitiful tale. He stated that he did not have sufficient money to purchase tickets for his family and so conceived the idea of chartering a car and thus transporting family, live stock and goods in the same conveyance. But for the overweening curiosity of the children who grew tired of their cramped quarters and wanted to see something of the outside world the scheme would doubtless have been successfully carried out.

Arrangements were made by Superintendent Burt for transporting the wife and children on the west bound passenger as far as Windsor, the destination of the party.
