with lightning like rapidity, put them neatly in boxes to be sent to the weaver. Taking all in all this film is one of the best ever shown in the city and all who desire to see an instructive and interesting show, should walk over to the Empire theater and see the "Walk-Over" shoe factory.

Then when you have seen the interesting process of making, go to Rand Bros. Shoe company and see the product in reality.

She Stoops to Conquer. It is probable that very few people give a thought of the life's troubles of the actors when they see them either apparently care-free in a comedy or their entire thought centered on a heavy piece of acting; the domestic and personal side of the actors life is seldom actually known to the public, but on Wednesday the company who will present "She Stoops to Conquer" will have no hidden troubles in their daily lives, for they are all young people just preparing to face life with unbounded confidence.

They are this year graduating from the Grand Forks high school. "She Stoops to Conquer," the play chosen, is possibly known to a great many people who will prove good advertisers of the merits of this delicious comedy.

Are You Crazy? Laughing is a far better habit than weeping and a little amusement of the right kind is a good incentive to laughter. If you need a tonic for your vein of humor you should see "Are You Crazy?" that Ben Claman and his company will present at the Metropolitan today. It is for laughing purposes only.
