Mother's Face. Three little boys talked together One sunny day. And I leaned out of the window To hear what they had to say.

Gifts for Girl Graduates— While the mother of the sweet girl graduate is busily planning the commencement from the whole family and the long roll of the girl graduate's friends are thinking of what would be the very best presents to give her on commencement day.

While there is a long list of articles to choose from the taste of the person whose school days are drawing to a close should be the first thing to be considered.

In fact, a gift derives far more value from the thought spent in its selection than it does from the money expended for it.

Nearly every one has been so unfortunate as to receive, some time, a present which too plainly was what the giver wished to give rather than something selected with the idea of pleasing the person for whom it was intended.

For the "sweet girl graduate" a fan is always a happy thought. Frequently the less expensive ones satisfy the purpose for which the fan is intended far better than the most costly ones.

In the line of jewelry, some suggestions are the watch, shell combs, whether single or in pairs, and neck chains.

The neck chain suggests innumerable pendants, more or less elaborate in design.

As an accessory of the toilet, a parasol, gloves, silk stockings or belts and buckles are always welcome.

Of the dainty scarfs so much in vogue one cannot have too large a number, and a piece of real lace is something to be cherished long after the recipient's hair is tinged with white.

Many wish to give a ring because of the sentiment attached to it. If this be the choice, let the circle be simple. The birthstone always is a happy thought, whether in a ring or pin.

If the graduate is to study further, articles which will find a place in her boarding school or college room will be welcome.

Select Fine Picture. One never makes a mistake in selecting a fine copy of a well-known picture; if it can be artistically framed so much the better.

A chafing dish, or the now popular coffee percolator, will cheer the possessor's heart and will figure in many a happy gathering in the future.

Hand in hand with these gifts goes the little silver dish for fudge, the lemon fork for the tea, or the fancy spoon for the bonbons or rock candy crystals—and so the list might be extended indefinitely.

W. C. Nash's Birthday. W. C. Nash of East Grand Forks yesterday, hale and hearty, reached the ripe old age of seventy-six. The occasion would have gone by unnoticed by him had it not been for the thoughtfulness of a score or more of his admiring pioneer friends and neighbors. Last evening they gathered at the home uninvited and gave both Mr. Nash and his family a complete surprise, so complete that it was minutes before Mr. Nash could receive their congratulations and extend them the usual cordial welcome.

A beautiful supper had been prepared by the ladies and this was handsomely spread soon after their arrival and heartily enjoyed, after which a few hours of interesting and happy reminiscences were indulged in.

For forty years Mr. Nash has lived in the highest esteem of the residents of this locality and though his years are many, his actions are still young and he enjoys nothing more than telling tales of the pioneer days of Minnesota and the Dakotas when the buffalo and wild Indians were its chief inhabitants.

Guest From Mekinook. Miss Ruby Hultgren arrived this morning from Mekinook for a visit with friends.

Here for Commencement. Miss Hazel Nibbet of Mallory, a member of the Grand Forks high school class of '08, is in to attend the commencement exercises.

Returns to Crookston. Mrs. F. J. Bennett returned yesterday from her home at Crookston after enjoying a pleasant visit with friends in the city.

Alta Smith Graduates. The commencement exercises at Mount Ida, a school for young ladies at Newton, Mass., were held yesterday and among the graduates was Miss Alta Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith of this city.

To Enjoy Mississippi Trip. Miss Cora Gustison will leave on Friday evening for her home in Fairfield, Ia., to enjoy a two weeks' vacation. From St. Paul she plans to take the Mississippi river trip to Burlington, Ia., and will be in company with Misses Lavelle, Hamilton and Moss of the city schools who are going from St. Paul to St. Louis by river.

Will Return Home Shortly. Mrs. Frank Berisford of St. Paul who has been with her sister, Mrs. D. Mulreid, during her illness with diptheria will return home in a few days, both Mrs. Mulreid and her son, Gene, being well on to the road to recovery.

Grafton Bride and Groom. Mr. and Mrs. Haldor M. Hanson of Grafton whose wedding yesterday was the social event of the season in that city were here for a short time last evening enroute to the twin cities where their honeymoon will be spent.

Gay Summer Coming. The younger society of the city is anxiously waiting the return of many of their number from the eastern schools for with their arrival comes a season of gay social entertaining.

To Attend Crary Meeting. Mrs. J. Grassick and Mrs. W. M. Sears will go to Crary tomorrow to attend the district meeting of the Congregational church. They go as delegates from the church and missionary society. Rev. Fehlandt will also be in attendance and take a prominent part in the program.

Bert Prescott at Lake. Crookston Times: Bert Prescott of Grand Forks, who figured in the Crookston Club minstrel show, was in the city Sunday between trains enroute to Maple Lake where he has accepted a position in the Rapid grocery store. Mr. Prescott was a member of the Maple Lake quartet last summer and it will be pleasure to those who spend their summers at this resort to know that he is to return. A member of the quartet who is to be absent this season is Hector Rapin, who is employed in the west. The other two members are Charles Rapin and Byron Leick, who will be at Maple Lake all summer.

Bouquet for Miss Mahon. Townner News and Stockman: We are constantly reading of the beautiful voice of Miss LaBelle Mahon, and do you know we feel a great glow of pride in this, because the sign of "Mahon & Robinson" has stood in Townner for years. Of course the same sign in many towns, but that is no reason why we should not feel proud of Miss Mahon's voice. It would be a splendid act for Miss Mahon to treat the people where her father's business is represented to one glorious vocal solo.

A Handsome Reception. Never before in the history of the Grand Forks high school have the sweet girls of the graduating class enjoyed such a delightful honor as that tendered this afternoon by two of their most charming members, Misses Temple Irwin and Gretchen Oeschger. At the cozy home of the former on South Fourth street these young ladies held a reception from 5 o'clock and in addition to the girl graduates the guest list included the ladies of the high school faculty, making the happiness of the occasion complete. The hostesses received in the drawing room which was made festive in the class colors, red and green, with fragrant carnations and foliage while in the dining room where the faintest of refreshments were served purple lilacs were used. Vivian Dinnie, Kattie Sturtevant and Viola Wood in dainty summer gowns presided over the refreshment service.

The graduates in whose honor the pretty event was given were Misses Maud Begg, Ethel Berg, Edna Brooks, Jessie Budge, Kate Bryson, Gertrude Cunningham, Nellie Edwards, Lena Gillan, Mathilda Horte, Theodosia Houghton, Tressie Hultgren, Maude Iverson, Angie Johnson, Vera Kelsey, Isabella Larson, Edith Londergan, Anna Lindas, Cecilia McGrath, Anna Margach, Ruth Norquist, Florence Opsahl, Minnie Paulson, Grace Vikoren, Annie Poupore, Eva Roke, Mary Ryan, Martha Williams, Frances Collins, Margaret Sande and Ethel Rosensweig.

Golden Wedding Today. Today at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. Harry McNicol at 124 South Sixth street in East Grand Forks, Mr. and Mrs. James Mullally are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary of their golden wedding. Surrounded by eleven of their twelve living children and their families, including grandchildren and great grandchildren, they are the happiest of couples in the world and though they have reached the ages of 72 and 70 years respectively, they are as hale, hearty and active as many several years younger. But few residents of these prairie states live to see the half century mark of wedded happiness.

Directors' Meeting. The board of directors of the Kindergarten association are meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bates on Gertrude avenue.

Returns From Fargo. Howard Maher has returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Fargo.

Will Attend Fair. Among those who have planned delightful pleasure trips this summer are Mr. and Mrs. James Dinnie, who with their daughter, Miss Vivian, will take a coast trip. They will visit the exposition at Seattle, Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles and Pasadena, Cal. At Los Angeles they will attend the Elks national convention and at Pasadena they will be guests of Mrs. Dinnie's mother.

Guests From Crookston. Mrs. J. F. Gould and daughter, Miss Lillian, of Crookston, are visiting friends in the city.

COULD NOT WED. Bottineau, N. D., June 2.—Herman W. Kohler, Kramer applied for a license to wed Miss Martha Zimmerman, also of Kramer. They are both of lawful age and good young people but the law stepped in and prevented the union as they are cousins so the young man had to go home very much disappointed.

Are You Afflicted With The Itch King of the Blood Eczema

The prevalence of Eczema among the young and old is the result of impurities in the blood. This impurities, sores and eruptions upon the face, neck and body are all caused by impure blood. 2890 LADIES' DRESSING SACK. Paris Pattern No. 2890. All Seams Allowed. Made up in flowered blue and white lawn, this little one-piece dressing sack, or nightgown, is easy to make, and one of the most convenient garments in a woman's wardrobe. The deep collar, fronts and lower edges are trimmed with a wide border of white lawn and the front is held together with a narrow light blue ribbon. This model is also adaptable to any of the pretty bordered foulards or organdies, or in plain white lawn with border of colored lawn it is pretty and attractive. The pattern is in 8 sizes—small, medium and large. For medium size the sack requires 1 1/4 yards of material 2 1/2 or more inches wide, with 3/4 yards of contrasting material 10 or more inches wide for bands and 1 yard of ribbon for ties. Price of pattern, 10 cents.

Crookston Times: Bert Prescott of Grand Forks, who figured in the Crookston Club minstrel show, was in the city Sunday between trains enroute to Maple Lake where he has accepted a position in the Rapid grocery store. Mr. Prescott was a member of the Maple Lake quartet last summer and it will be pleasure and still fewer reach it in good health and with eleven admiring sons and daughters and a score of grandchildren able to gather under one roof and celebrate the occasion with them. But such is the joy bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. James Mullally and the pride that fills their hearts cannot be described in words.

Fifty years ago today their wedding bells rang in Perth, Ont. Their happiness seemed complete. But compared with the happiness of the reunion of a grand and large family, it was but a drop in a bucket. Guests to the number of fifty-one had all arrived by noon and all within the hour. Mr. and Mrs. Mullally were deluged with congratulations and hearty wishes for many more years of health and happiness.

At 6 o'clock this evening a bountiful four course dinner will be served at the McNicol home and the honored guests will be presented with a handsome purse of gold, the gift of their sons and daughters. The home has been made festive with potted plants and lilacs and two large tables, each with covers laid for thirty, will be spread.

One son, Thomas Mullally, who is located at Bellingham, Wash., is the only one of the children who was unable to be present. The others are Dan of East Grand Forks, John of Grand Forks with his wife and three boys; James of Staples, Minn., with wife and four children; William and Edward of East Grand Forks; Mrs. George Shannon and three children, and Mrs. Morgan Curran of Grand Forks; Mrs. Alex Robinson of Wall-halla with her husband and six children; Mrs. O. Wurdeman of Mandan and two children; Mrs. G. Purcell and two children and Mrs. J. H. McNicol, husband and two children of East Grand Forks. Other relatives present are Miss Curran of Grand Forks, Mrs. Kate Nolan, a sister of Mr. Mullally, of Rainy River, Can.; Mrs. D. McNicol, Mrs. Kate Betts, Duncan McNicol, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Purcell, Mr. R. S. Griggs and daughter and Miss Abbie Purcell, all of East Grand Forks; Miss Anna Danek of Staples, Minn., and Mrs. James Ashwin of East Grand Forks, whose daughter, Miss Edna, is the only great grandchild present.

O. G. Storaker to Wed. The announcement of the approaching marriage of Olaf G. Storaker, a prominent young man of this city, and Miss Maud Magorris of Aneta, a sister of Mrs. Gunderson, wife of Hon. J. G. Gunderson of that city, was made recently at a chime shower given by Mrs. S. H. Porter of Aneta. The news came as quite a surprise to the Grand Forks friends of the groom but all join in extending him the heartiest congratulations. It will be a June event but the date has not yet been announced. The happy couple will make Grand Forks their home, the groom to be having recently purchased a cozy home on Cheyenne avenue.

Directors' Meeting. The board of directors of the Kindergarten association are meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bates on Gertrude avenue.
