The Bedtime Story

JIMMY SKUNK IS JUST IN TIME.

After Jimmy Skunk had pulled over the big piece of bark and found Old Mr. Toad, it was thinking of the fat beetles he had expected he had started on down the Crooked Little Path...

"If he's still up there," thought Jimmy, "Old Mr. Toad is hopping right straight into trouble, the very worst kind of trouble. How stupid of him not to have asked me when Mr. Blacksnake was!"

"I hate to go way back there," he grumbled, for you know he is naturally rather lazy. "Still, the Green Meadows wouldn't be quite the same without Old Mr. Toad. I should miss him if anything happened to him."

"And maybe he will," said Jimmy, right out loud. And with that he started back up the Crooked Little Path and, strange to say, he found Jimmy Skunk hurries for anything or any one.

So he suddenly gritted his teeth. Old Mr. Toad! He gave a frightened squeal and fell right over on his back and he didn't get up for a long time.

"What are you going to do to Mr. Toad?" demanded Jimmy. "None of your business," hissed Mr. Blacksnake. "Get out of my way or you'll be sorry."

Jimmy Skunk just laughed and stepped in front of poor Old Mr. Toad. "You're kidding," he said. "I didn't see Jimmy at all, for he had been looking behind him, and he didn't even know who it was he had run into."

"Right behind him came Mr. Blacksnake. Of course, he saw Jimmy, and he stopped short and hissed angrily. "What are you going to do to Mr. Toad?" demanded Jimmy.

"None of your business," hissed Mr. Blacksnake. "Get out of my way or you'll be sorry." Jimmy Skunk just laughed and stepped in front of poor Old Mr. Toad.

"Those Drawers Won't Stick, John."

"See how the sides of the drawers are carefully rounded at the bottom and fit into these grooves. See how easily they slide in and out. If there's anything that rouses your temper when you are in a hurry, John, it's a drawer that sticks. Now you won't have any more trouble in that line. This is only one of the valuable features in

Luger "One-Line" Drawers and Chiffoniers

There's the cedar bottom which makes the lower drawer practically a cedar chest, the extra dust-proof mouse-proof bottom, the strong, durable interlocking construction and one-piece triple back panel, the careful finishing inside as well as outside, and several others. You pay no more for the Luger. Why not have the best?

Ask your furniture dealer to show you. Write us if he can't.
