At the residence of H. M. McIntyre there was solemnized the marriage of Rev. N. Sherman Hollis to Miss Amanda J. Huffman on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. B. F. Meredith. The ceremony was witnessed by about twenty-five friends of the bride and groom. Mrs. Meredith played the wedding march and Miss Cabell played the Angels' Serenade softly during the reading of the service. Miss Jane Wingard was bridesmaid and Mr. Henry A. Johnson acted as best man. After the ceremony and congratulations the company sat down to a most delicious four course luncheon which was served by Mrs. McIntyre. The color scheme was pink and white and was very effective. Rev. Hollis is the Missionary for the American Sunday School Association and the bride has been teaching school on the south bench. Their host of friends join in wishing them a happy married life. A striking feature of the wedding was that the bridegroom, the best man and six people attending the wedding were from Indiana.
