Attorney Frank M. Catlin of Culbertson was in the city on professional business the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Lou Chouinard of Anoka, Minnesita, arrived in this city this week and will visit here for a few weeks.

Matt Murray left the fore part of the week for Great Falls to look after business interests there.

Editor T. J. Hocking of the Courier returned Monday from the Twin Cities where he had been on a business trip.

Tom Coleman come down from the north country the first of the week to purchase supplies and look after his business interests here.

Roy Gordon, editor of the Nashua Independent, was in the city Saturday to be present at the first meeting of the "scribes" of the county.

Dave Watson of Hinsdale, deputy health inspector, of Valley county, was in the city the fore part of the week attending to his official duties.

The Markle Transfer Co., have a car of corn coming which they will dispose of for $1.85 per cwt. The corn was bought in Sioux City, Iowa, and will make excellent feed.

Adam Spelletich left yesterday morning for Menominee, Wisconsin, after spending a month in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Charles Kops, the pioneer piano merchant of Great Falls, was in the city over Sunday transacting business. He also graced the masquerade with his auspicious presence Monday night, and almost won the prize waltz.

Clement C. Prentice returned Monday morning from the Twin Cities where he spent several pleasant weeks. While away he had his eyes treated and reports them in good condition now. That he had a good time we take for granted.

John Moore of Great Falls, traveling representative for the Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder Co., was in the city Thursday calling on the merchants. He looks for a good year in this part of the state and that Valley county will see much development the coming year.

Mrs. J. H. Rutter and son went to Glasgow last Friday evening for a short visit with relatives and to secure treatment for the latter's eyes, which have been causing him considerable discomfort of late. They returned on Sunday morning.—Hinsdale Tribune.

A number of fine feature pictures are booked to be shown at the Orpheum Saturday night. The picture will be "Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch" with Henrietta Crossman in the leading role. Sunday and Monday, the nine reel feature, the "Spoilers" will be shown. This picture has created a sensation wherever presented and Manager Bishell has arranged to have matinees both on Sunday and Monday so that all will have an opportunity to see it.

Charles M. Durall, formerly in business here was in the city for a few days the fore part of the week visiting friends.

J. C. Duncan, county treasurer, made a trip to Malta on Tuesday to attend to some official business.

Editor Dan McGovern of the Glasgow Democrat returned Monday from Helena, where he has been enjoying a short visit.

Dr. G. H. Klein returned this morning from St. Paul, where he has been on business. He also received treatment for a thumb, infected with blood-poisoning.

Emil Lucht, manager of the Saco office of the Rundle Land and Abstract Co., came down from Malta the first of the week where he had been working on the new county records.

R. E. and C. C. Johnson of the Valley County Abstract Co., were at Malta, the new county seat of Phillips county Tuesday to bid on the work of transcribing the county records, and having the lowest bid they were awarded the contract.

Jesse L. Moore, advance man for the Minot Symphony Orchestra was in the city Friday and made arrangements to have the orchestra here next Friday, February 26th. The Minot Symphony Orchestra is considered one of the best in the northwest and their engagement here should be well attended. After the concert the floor will be cleared and dancing indulged in at the Gibson Opera House.

W. R. Duncan of Galpin, was in the city Wednesday and reported that at the election held at Nashua recently, the people of the district had voted to consolidate the schools and instead of having three log school houses as at present to have one central school house that will be a credit to the community. Mr. Duncan has worked hard to bring this about and is certain that the plan will prove a success in District 20.

Fred Weigel was envied by the unmarried men at the masquerade Monday night when he escorted one of fair sex to that big event. She was a heart-breaker from the word "go" and there were many who inquired as to her identity. She was a graceful dancer and evidently a favorite with the male sex, but very few knew who she was. Joe Sternhagen was missed by many during the evening, and it may be that he would know.

The Great Falls Tribune, is laying special stress on the fact that a lady in that city registered to vote and gave her age as 71. Malta has a lady in the person of Mrs. A. A. Morton, mother of Mrs. Ed White, who not only registered but came out and voted for the county division and for the new officers, and her age is 74. She is very spry for one of her years, and enjoyed the novelty of voting quite as much as some of the younger ladies of the city.

On Friday of last week County Superintendent of Schools Miss Alene McGregor, was in Nashua for the purpose of conducting a hearing in the case of C. L. Duvivant against the school board of this district. Mr. Cline an attorney of Glasgow, was here in the interest of the board. A number of witnesses were called upon the stand, and considerable evidence introduced. All the proceedings were taken down and sent to the State Superintendent who will render a decision in regard to the matter.—Nashua Independent.

WOMEN'S FASHION SHOP

Mrs. J. L. Slattery, Prop.

Glasgow, Mont.

Our policy for the year of 1915, is to give our many loyal customers throughout Valley, Sheridan and Phillips counties, the biggest values, with the largest stock to select from, of any year, since the beginning of our business, almost seven years ago.

We have secured the services of Mrs. Hammer of Chicago, who is now in the market buying our Spring Merchandise. Mrs. Hammer is an expert milliner, dressmaker and corsetiere and will have full charge of these departments.

We have never claimed to sell the CHEAPEST merchandise on the market, so far as the first cost is concerned, but have aspired, rather to sell up to the minute, dependable merchandise that will be a pleasure and satisfaction to the purchaser as long as it is used. We prefer to cater to the customers who appreciate and know quality. Our spring line of coats, suits, dresses, shoes, corsets, hosiery, millinery, etc., will be as reasonably priced as possible, consistent with good quality.

We have just received a big line of wool and silk dresses for Spring from $8.50 to $25.00.

A big line of house dresses at $1.50 to $2.75.

Aprons at 35c to $1.00.

C. P. Ford Guaranteed Shoes for Spring at $3.50 to $5.00.
