

NEW ORPHEUM FEATURES

SATURDAY, MARCH 6th

Marie Dressler—The Famous Woman of the Legitimate Comedy Stage and Charles Chaplin, the highest salaried comedian appearing in pictures in a big six reel comedy scream.

"TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE"
6000 feet of film crammed full of more laughs than any Picture ever produced.

Matinee 2:30—Evening 7:15 and 9:00
Admission 25c to Everyone No Free List

SUNDAY, MARCH 7th

Paramount Picture Corporation Presents Schiller's Immortal Drama.

"WILLIAM TELL"
In Five Big Reels

The Story of William Tell and the liberation of Switzerland is known to the Civilized World. It is staged on the Heights of the Alps, the World's Most Beautiful Scenery.

Matinee 2:30 Evening 7:15 and 9
Adults 25c—Children 10c

THURSDAY, MARCH 11th

PARAMOUNT PICTURE

A Photo Visualization of L. Frank Baum's Whimsical Extravaganza.

"THE PATCHWORK GIRL OF OZ"

A Picture Different from any you have ever seen.

Adults 25c Children 10c

Glasgow's New Picture Palace

Local Brevities

News in and About Town

George Sawyer of Opheim was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

Attorney George E. Hurd of Great Falls, has been in the city the past week on matters before the District Court.

Tom Coleman was in from his ranch north of town the first of the week to purchase supplies and look after business interests here.

Miss Magnes Torgerson of Williston, N. D., visited with her brother Andrew Torgerson last Sunday and was also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blycker, during her visit here.

John Sierts returned from Scooby Sunday, where he has been managing the branch store of The Hub. Sam Rugg is now in Scooby looking after the business there while Mr. Sierts is in Glasgow.

Mr. B. Landmask of Minneapolis visited with his sister, Miss Emily Landmask. Mr. Landmask is General Manager of the Empire Lumber Co., and is making a tour of inspection over the company's territory.

J. L. Truscott and J. C. Duncan of the Board of Appraisers between Valley and Phillips counties returned this morning from Chinook where they have been going over the records. They expect to be through with the work in a few days.

James Hill was in from his ranch on the north bench Saturday on business. He stated that he thought the indications were good for a good crop the coming year and that the farmers were already getting ready for the spring work.

P. E. Skjerseth, cashier of the First National Bank of Saco, was in the city the fore part of the week on business. Mr. Skjerseth stated that Saco was planning on a big reception when the new hotel opens March 10th. A number of people from Glasgow have expressed their intentions of being present on that occasion.

J. L. McIntyre returned this week from Manitoba where he had been on a business trip.

Attorney R. E. O'Keefe of Chinook was in the city several days this week, appearing as counsel in one of the cases in the District Court.

County Commissioner C. W. Baylor, of the town of that name, has been in the city this week attending the regular meeting of the county dads.

Judge Leslie of Great Falls arrived in the city last night from Chinook where he has been working with the board of appraisers between Phillips and Valley counties.

George F. Burke, John Hurly, and J. L. Slattery returned this morning from Helena where they have been working on the bill to get Sheridan county annexed to Valley. They made a hard fight for the bill.

Madam Theresa Meighan arrived from Minneapolis Thursday morning on No. 1 and will preside over the kitchen of the Coleman House. Madam Meighan was formerly with the Waldorf Hotel at Fargo, N. D.

Ed Olson and W. W. Stevens contractors of Poplar, stopped off in the city several days this week while on their way to Malta where they will look over the building situation. Both men are well known in this part of the state.

Evangelist J. M. Hupp was called by telephone to conduct a funeral at Saco last Sunday. Owing to train service, he was unable to attend, as it would necessitate his being absent from both the morning and evening service. Colporter Rev. W. E. Parks conducted the service at Saco.

Last Sunday evening the Baptist church appointed a building committee. This committee consists of the official board of the church. The pastor J. M. Hupp was elected chairman, John Crouch, Secretary, and Emory Pease Treasurer. Work on the basement is progressing very satisfactorily.

James Corcoran of Vandalia was in the city the first of the week transacting business.

F. H. Murdick of Glentana was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

R. L. Kuney of Opheim was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

R. E. Richardson of Malta was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

Emanuel Sklower of Malta, was a business visitor in the city the fore part of the week.

John Shady of Malta, was a business visitor in the city the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Roy Fick and little daughter left Thursday morning for Detroit, Michigan, their former home.

Clayton K. Reed, editor of the Redstone Review, was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

G. E. Kimmerole, of Topeka, Kansas, claim agent for the Rock Island Railway, was in the city Saturday in the interests of his company.

Mrs. M. F. and Gladys Brandon of Glentana, were in the city the fore part of the week and left Tuesday for their home.

Homer Harding and Julius Franzer of Hinsdale were in the city several days this week attending the term of court.

Wallace Coburn, of Malta was in the city several days this week, assisting in the organizing of the International Theatrical Association.

Mrs. Lou Chouinard who has been visiting friends in the city for several weeks, left Monday morning for her home in Anoka, Minnesota.

Mrs. May Heath of Maiden Rock, Wisconsin, arrived Monday night from Zortman for an extended visit with her sister Mrs. F. G. Van de Mark.

Charels A. Ross, of Dodson, one of the county commissioners of Phillips county was in the city Monday on business connected with his office.

The interior of the jewelry store of A. M. St. Clair & Co. has been undergoing a change the last few days. It is being painted and decorated and remodeled.

Miss Josie Rancour of Nashua, was in the city Thursday transacting business. Miss Rancour is now proprietor of the Emporium at Nashua, a store devoted to ladies' furnishings and millinery.

The skiddoo engine got restless early Tuesday morning while in its stall in the round house and backed out, knocking off a couple doors and fell into the pit. A crew got busy the next morning and straightened matters out.

Charles Tanner, of Hinsdale, has been in the city this week, being interested in a case in the district court.

M. E. Crowe of Helena, was a business visitor in the city the fore part of the week in the interests of the Record Publishing Co.

C. P. Martin of Saco, was in the city Wednesday on business. Mr. Martin is manager of the Saco Co-Operative Association at Saco. They operate two stores, one at Saco and one at Beaverton and have been doing a record business.

Sheriff C. W. Powell left Saturday night for Deer Lodge, taking with him Blake and Miller, the Malta hold-up men who were given terms in the pen last week. The Sheriff had a good trip and delivered the men to the prison authorities without a mishap.

Claude O. Moore of the Moore Telephone Company, returned today from Malta where he has been installing the new exchange of the company at that point and moving into their new building. He states that Malta is enjoying a building boom at the present time and many new buildings will be built during the spring and summer months.

M. D. Taylor of Saco was in town the fore part of the week transacting business.

Harry Yeager former National Bank examiner for this district is in the city today transacting business.

Jacob Seel, one of the pioneers of Mondak was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

S. E. Ruyle of Hinsdale was in the city several days this week and appeared as a witness in a case in the district court.

There will be an auction sale at L. Heminger's ranch on Wednesday, March 10th. Col. E. F. Jacobs is auctioneer and J. E. Arnot, Clerk.

Mrs. John Sierts was operated on for appendicitis Thursday morning at the Deaconess Hospital, and at this writing is resting very well.

The Jolly Pulls appeared at the Gibson Opera House last evening and delighted those present with their performance. They will also appear tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Trafton of Malta left Saturday morning for California where they will spend a few months visiting the expositions.

W. D. Miller of Saco, county commissioner of Phillips county and editor of the Saco Independent was in the city the first of the week on official business.

The Coleman Hardware Co. received a carload of 1915 Studebakers this morning and have been delivering them to the new owners today. Several of the models will be on display at their store on fourth street.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will give a home talent play the fore part of April, around Easter. Further announcements will be made as soon as the details are perfected.

The Minot Symphony Orchestra gave a fine concert at the Gibson Opera House Friday evening. Every member of the orchestra is an accomplished musician and every number of their program was well rendered. After the concert the orchestra played for a dance.

C. J. Ernst, Jr. and J. W. Jamieson of Chinook were in the city several days this week on business. Mr. Ernst represents the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., making his headquarters in Butte. Mr. Jamieson is interested in a garage at Chinook and has the agency for several cars there.

H. B. Horton of Des Moines, Iowa, has been in the city several days this week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Fick. He is the father of Mrs. Fick. Mr. Horton was much impressed with the possibilities and opportunities of this part of Montana and thought Glasgow a very thriving little city.

William Powell, who was injured by the explosion of the Fick Garage is rapidly recovering from his injuries at the Deaconess Hospital. The bruise on his leg bothers him some, and it was thought for a while that amputation would be necessary, but it has greatly improved since then and is healing rapidly.

SOCIETY NEWS

(Continued from page 6)

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arnot returned this week from California where they have been for the past month. They visited both expositions and were much impressed with them.

The Young Mothers' Club had a very delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. B. P. Langen, Friday afternoon. A large number were present and a delightful afternoon was spent.

You will find more of the leading people of Montana registered at the Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, than at any other hotel in the Twin Cities.

Scene from the picture version of Schiller's Immortal Drama "William Tell" at the Orpheum, Sunday, March 7th, afternoon and evening.

"I want to be excused," said the worried-looking jurymen, addressing the judge. I owe a man $25 that I borrowed, and as he is leaving town today for some years I want to catch him before he gets to the train and pay him the money." "You are excused," returned the honor in icy tones.

"I don't want anybody on the jury who can lie like that."—Toledo Blade. The fellow who hasn't an enemy in the world isn't long for it.

American patriots. Show your American patriotism first and war sympathies afterwards.

Sunday Special

FEATURE DINNER—EXTRAORDINARY

With Music By

DARST'S SUPERB ORCHESTRA

12:30 'til 2:00 P. M.

AT

THE COLEMAN

BRING THE FAMILY—IT'S CHEAPER THAN EATING AT HOME

DINNER 50 CENTS

WE OFFER

Celery Olives Lettuce

Radishes Green Onions

Bisque of Clam

Fried Lake Minnetonka Perch
Saratoga Chips Tartar Sauce

Boiled Smoked Tongue
Spinach

Cottontail Rabbit, a la Maryland
Corn Fritters

Roast Native Turkey, Mushroom Gravy

Baked Swift Premium Ham,
Liquer Sauce

Roast Prime Ribs of Beef, au jus

Mashed Potatoes Sweet Potatoes

String Beans

Rutabagas Mashed in Cream

Apple Pie Mince Pie Cream Pie

Vanilla Ice Cream, Maraschino

Crackers Coffee Cheese

"Y and E" Sectional Card Record Desk

22,000 Records in Easy Reach

Without taking a step or pulling a drawer—just by reaching out your hand—pick out any one of 22,000 cards. Tremendous time-saver. Economizes steps, labor, wages.

As usual, this great improvement is a "Y and E" idea. You need but see it, to approve.

Glasgow Courier, Dealers