He is out on extension work for his college and is greatly assisting in bringing up the standard of the rural schools.

The walls for the new laundry are now up and Contractor Bell is now working on the roof with a crew of men. Messrs. Hawley and Woody, the proprietors, expect to have the building completed by the first of June, and unless there is a delay in shipping the machinery, the laundry will be in full operation within a short time after that date.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stephens of Glentana, were in the city Wednesday morning, taking the train from here for Culbertson, where they will visit for a few days.

The game scheduled to be played at Baylor Sunday was called off on account of cold weather. However, S. J. Rundle and J. P. McIntyre made a trip up there, returning home in the evening.

County Commissioner Peter A. West suffered a heavy loss this week, when his thoroughbred stallion died. The horse was valued at $1200.00 and was one of the best in this part of the state. Mr. West was attending a meeting of the Board when he received word that the horse was in bad shape. Dr. Frisch made a hurried trip to the West ranch but the horse was dead when he arrived.

There will be a Ghost Social at the Badger School House on May 22nd, and a large crowd is expected to attend. Every lady who attends is requested to bring a sheet to put around her when she is auctioned off, the gentlemen bidding for the ladies' company at supper. There will be bushels of fun and the services of a good jolly auctioneer have been secured, and not a dull moment is promised for those who attend. There will be a dance after the auction which will last until the wee sma' hours of the morning. Good music has been secured and a good time is guaranteed to all who attend.

Sammy Grossman, proprietor of the principal garage in Glasgow came up from the Valley County seat Tuesday in his big eight cylinder Cadillac. Sammy has one of the most up to date garages in the country at Glasgow and is a business getter. He reports having disposed of several carloads of Fords already this spring and has several more loads on the road.—Saco Independent.

Two carloads of Fords were received this week by Sam Grossman, the local agent, and already five of them have been sold, those in the city buying them being W. H. Grogan, A. I. Uilman and S. H. Orvis. Two will go to Shady and LeVesconte at Malta. The Ford Company expect to have 300,000 cars sold from August 1914 to August 1915. If they do this, all Ford owners will receive a dividend.

Al McIntyre of the new town of Baylor, was in the city yesterday and today renewing acquaintances with friends here. Al is manager of the Baylor base ball team and promises a good game when Glasgow goes up there next Wednesday. After the ball game there will be a dance in the Baylor hall. Arrangements have been made by the people of Baylor to take care of a large crowd and many will probably make the trip from Glasgow.

There will be an inter-Sunday school track meet at the ball park Saturday afternoon, May 8th, at 2 o'clock p. m. All boys 12 years and under will be eligible to participate and many of the events will be closely contested. Ten cents admission will be charged, the receipts to go into the Summer Encampment fund. Crack teams from each Sunday school will participate and as they have been practicing for some time, they expect to make a good showing.

The Commercial Club met in regular session last evening. One matter discussed was the train service in Nashua. It was moved that a petition be drawn up and presented to the railroad officials, asking that trains No. 3 and 4, which are due here in the evening, be stopped on signal. The present service is something awful and we are certainly entitled to better. We now have but one train a day, the local "skiddoo" which arrives in Glasgow at the noon hour, making it very inconvenient for those who wish to transact business in the county seat.—Nashua Independent.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burke and County Superintendent Alene McGregor were in Opheim Monday on a tour of the North Country. Miss McGregor is making an inspection of the schools up here and is well pleased with the work done. The Optimist man interviewed Miss McGregor in regard to the report that there will be no more teachers furnished to new schools because of lack of funds, and she promised to have the trustees of the district give us a statement for publication for the information of the people up here who have been deprived of school privileges for children.—Opheim Optimist.

With two stage lines running cars Scobey to Glasgow via Opheim the Opheim garage sending a car to Glasgow every day and several private cars carrying passengers every few days, there is ample accommodation for the great number of people who are visiting the North Country this season. And it is surprising, even to the most optimistic boosters, that all of these passenger autos are loaded on every trip they make. The Opheim country certainly is attracting attention, and this season will witness a wonderful growth.—Opheim Optimist.

Scene from "The Rose of the Rancho". Thursday, May 13th, at the Orpheum

At the meeting of the Commercial Club last evening Daniel O'Toole reported that he has been in touch with a Minnesota man, who is seriously considering the erection of a grist mill in Nashua. This section offers a splendid opening for such an enterprise. Steps are being taken to persuade the gentleman to locate here as it will not only be of financial benefit to him, but of considerable commercial benefit to us.—Nashua Independent.

Virgil C. Vaupel, of Saco, a constable and moving picture house employee, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court and been declared a bankrupt. The debts of Vaupel are given at $1,583.38 and his asse of $200, of which he claims $100 is exempt.

AUTO CLUB TO BAYLOR
 Every automobile owner in this city is urged to be on hand at a meeting to be held on Monday evening at the office of the Glasgow Commercial Club to formulate plans for a run to Baylor on Wednesday, May 12th. The Glasgow Automobile Club should have out no less than 25 cars for this trip so that all bad spots in the road may be fixed.

HARNESS SLASHED WITH KNIFE
 W. I. Gardner and G. A. Hausen were tried in Justice Evans' Court Wednesday afternoon on a charge of malicious mischief, but were released on account of insufficient evidence. The complaint was sworn out against them by C. B. Kraus, timekeeper for W. J. Hoy, one of the contractors on the irrigation project, who alleged that following their discharge from the employ of the Hoy company, they had entered his barn and ruined eleven sets of harness. This occurred Friday night, and while no one saw who committed the crime, suspicion pointed to the two men and they were arrested. The harnesses were ruined beyond repair, every part being so cut and slashed that they were rendered utterly useless.

CHURCH AT BAYLOR
 On Sunday, May 16th, church services will be held in Baylor Hall at three o'clock P. M. The choir of the First Congregational church and Orchestra will go up there in automobiles and assist in the services. There will be good speaking and a good time for everybody is assured.

BALL TEAM TO PLAY BAYLOR
 On Wednesday, May 12th, the Glasgow base ball team will go to Baylor or to play the team of that place. Baylor has quite an aggregation of diamond stars and a large crowd is expected to witness the game. The Auto Club will make a trip to Baylor on that day and a large number of automobiles are expected to make the run.

Don't miss the first ball game of the season Sunday. Nashua vs. Glasgow.
