Courier 6, Roundhouse 5

In a hard fought and thrilling seven inning game Saturday afternoon, the Courier team proved its right to be called the "Champions" of the City League. The game was the culmination of a long existing rivalry between the printers and the "Nut Splitters" and showed decisively the superiority of the former on the diamond.

All the receipts of the game went to the Roundhouse team, to help to pay for the new suits in which these sturdy athletes appeared for the first time Saturday afternoon. A fair sized crowd turned out to see the contest of athletic skill and all seemed pleased with the outcome of the game.

"Peerless" Johnny Gritz, although not quite a printer, but a good enough pitcher to be one, was on the mound for the Courier and Jess Pierce, the "Mathewson" of the Rumelys hurled the sphere for the Roundhouse. It was a pitcher's battle throughout, with Gritz having the best of the argument, eighteen of Jim Hill's proud henchmen smiting the ozone. Pierce was also in good form and pitched a good game.

The Roundhouse were the first to score, getting four runs in the first inning. Catcher Hal Fagan for the Courier who has hardly touched a ball since leaving the leagues, had difficulty in holding Gritz's fast ones and although the Peerless one struck out four men in the first inning, the Roundhouse scored four runs. But as soon as Fagan became accustomed to the hooks and curves, he had the opposing batters at his mercy, and it was like giving the Roundhouse boys a lesson in geometry, for they were unable to find the intersecting point between their bats and Gritz's tangents and circle curves.

Gritz Fanned Eighteen

Mighty Nick Hahn, the "Home Run Baker" of the Railroad boys was unable to get a hit, yielding reluctantly to the bewildering delivery of the Courier pitcher.

For the Courier, Hocking was the batting star, getting his eagle eye on three of Pierce's shoots, one of them sailing high and far into the atmosphere, almost hitting the fence. The stellar shortstop for the Courier also gave a perfect demonstration of a new way of sliding into home plate, landing on his back in the dust, to the applause of the spectators.

A game is being arranged by Manager Peterson of the Courier team with the Court House for the week. The exact date will be announced later.

The box score of Saturday's game follows:

Scobey 13, Madoc 1

Scobey evened up the defeat at the hands of the Madoc team by defeating them by a score of 13 to 7, on May 16th. "Spike" Shannon for Scobey held Madoc hitless for four innings and had them swinging at all times. Jack Stahl's hitting featured, getting four hits in five times up, two two baggers and two singles with five stolen bases, one of which was home plate.

Fort Benton 8, B. & M. 2

The fast Fort Benton team had little difficulty in defeating the B. & M. team of Great Falls Sunday, May 16th. Spaulding, on the mound for Fort Benton, held the visitors in check at all periods of the game, striking out eighteen and allowing but two safe hits.

Glendive 6, Richardton 5.

Glendive came near being defeated by a "pick-up" team from Richardton, Sunday, May 16th. Although the score at the end of the ninth was 6 to 5 in favor of Glendive, they only managed to get two hits off the Richardton pitchers, while Richardton got six off the Glendive slab artists.

A chief of police when asked what type of person gave the police least trouble replied: "The man who lives within his means, who saves a part of his earnings each day and week and year." The truth of this statement may be proved by any one; you don't have to take any one's word for it.

Stallings Wants Twenty-four Players.

George Stallings is very much put out over the new roster limit of twenty-one adopted by the National league. "The twenty-two suggested by the American league would have been much better," said he. "Twenty-one will give no one an opportunity to carry a uniformed catch. Take me, for instance. A great deal of my success with the Braves was due to co-operation with Fred Mitchell. I cannot afford to sacrifice him. That, then, will mean that I will have to get along with twenty men. I think a manager should be allowed to carry at least twenty-four players."

$4,200 to Win One Game.

Colonel Robert Lee Hedges of the St Louis Browns claims to have paid the record price for one victory last season, $4,200. This was Lefty Leverenz's yearly stipend last year, and he cashed in just one win for the Browns, though he had a dozen chances. And the colonel blames the Feds for this high figure. He only paid Leverenz $2,200 in 1913, but the Feds offered him $6,000 last spring, despite the fact that the pitcher injured his arm on the round the world tour, and Hedges had to pay him $4,200 to hold him.

MUST HAVE LICENSES

Deputy Game and Fish Warden George F. Burke was in the north country several days this week looking after several matters connected with his office. As the fishing season is now in full swing, Mr. Burke wishes to remind those who indulge in this sport that licenses may be purchased for $1.00 or $1.10, and in case a deputy finds them fishing without a license, a fine of $25 or more may follow. He suggests that all sportsmen procure their licenses which are on sale by practically every justice of the peace in the county, or may be had from Mr. Burke himself.

MATTESON'S BODY FOUND

The frightfully decomposed body of Roy Matteson of Chinook, who disappeared near Rocky Point last winter, was found Saturday near the power plant of the Ruby Gulch Mining Company. Several searching parties had tried at different times to find trace of Matteson, dynamite being used this winter in efforts to raise the body.
