Double Six Club

Mrs. A. E. Blycker entertained the Double Six Club at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Three tables of bridge were played, Mrs. Severance winning the head prize and Mrs. Axt the second prize. The hostess served delightful refreshments. The invited guests were Meses. Severance, McDonald and Carr. The Club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Wharton.

Mrs. Rugg Entertains

In honor of Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Gibbs of Minneapolis, mother and sister of Mrs. C. C. Storing, Mrs. S. L. Rugg gave a reception Thursday afternoon, August 12th.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing fancy work and listening to a number of beautiful selections on the Victrola. A dainty luncheon consisting of iced tea, brick ice cream and white cake was served by the hostess. Those invited were Meses. Gibbs, Storing, M. Reuler, G. R. Jamieson, John Willis, Thomas Dignan, Owen Yerkes, and Miss Gibbs.

Opheim Couple Married

John B. Lee and Miss Amelia Blikken slipped one over on their friends last week by quietly going over to Chinook and getting married. Only the bride's family were in the secret, they being present at the ceremony. However, the news leaked out on their return Sunday. John has pulled so many joshes in the past that it was to be expected he would fool his friends on the most important occasion of his life, and many of them were loath to believe he had joined the ranks of Benedicts even when he admitted it.

Mr. Lee is a member of the firm of Irgens & Lee, the pioneer store of Opheim, and is one of the town's most able progressive citizens. Everybody knows and likes him. His bride is a handsome and capable young woman who is also a pioneer of this section. Mr. Lee has purchased the P. J. Kennedy house on Burke avenue and they will go to housekeeping there in a couple of weeks.

The Optimist joins with the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them long life and happiness.

The Royal Neighbors of Woodcraft gave a banquet on Tuesday evening at the Baptist church to the Woodmen and their wives and a few invited guests. The tables were arranged according to the four points of the compass, converging in the center of the banquet room.

The color scheme of the order, purple and white was carried out in the flower decorations, which consisted in the main of sweet peas in profusion. Each table was literally loaded with a large bouquet of sweet peas.

The tables were laden with well prepared, inviting edibles, which had been prepared by the ladies, demonstrating their exceptional abilities in the culinary line.

After the luncheon the officers of the Royal Neighbors each responded, and then W. H. McLean, District Manager of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, who was an invited guest made a very helpful talk. Rev. J. Maurice Hupp was then called upon for a short talk and he spoke on "Fraternity" in a most interesting manner. Mrs. Hupp was also called upon for a short talk.

Plans were made for 90 guests, but the threatening storm kept a number away so that there were only 65 present.

This banquet surpassed anything ever given by the ladies of Woodcraft up to the present time in Glasgow.

Frazier-McGregor

The wedding of Miss Alene McGregor, county superintendent of Val-County schools, and Mr. William Hardy Frazier, assistant cashier in the First State Bank of Saco, was solemnized Wednesday night, August 11th, at 8:30 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hall in Malta, the latter a sister of the bride. Rev. W. M. Walton, local rector of St. Mary's parish church, used the Episcopal service in the presence of relatives and few immediate friends of the bride and groom. Miss Effie McGregor, a cousin of the bride attended her while Mr. Paul E. Skjerseth of Saco, was the groom's attendant. The house decorations were of sweet peas and these were banked and festooned in such profusion in the room where the ceremony was performed as to give the appearance of a floral bower, and when, closely following the ceremony, Mrs. Hall sang "O, Promise Me," the effect was most impressive. Besides the town guests there were present, Mr. and Mrs. H. McGregor of Hinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kahla and Mr. Joe Dychtovitz of Saco. After the wedding supper was served, Mr. and Mrs. Frazier left for Glacier National Park, where some time will be spent. Mrs. Frazier is one of Phillips county's fairest and most accomplished young ladies, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGregor of Hinsdale. A graduate of the state university, one of the leading educators in the county schools, and later efficiently serving as county superintendent of schools. While Mr. Frazier is a more recent acquisition, the position he has held for the past two years in the Saco bank and the host of friends he has made in the county attest his character. After their return from the park, Mr. and Mrs. Frazier will reside near Saco on the latter's homestead where he has built a pretty bungalow for the reception of the bride.

CHAPTER 110

Of the Twelfth or 1911 Session Laws. "An act, defining the term "Itinerant Vendors," to regulate the licensing of same, to fix the amount of such licenses, to provide penalties for the violation of such regulation and for other purposes."

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the state of Montana:

Section 1. Every person, company or corporation, who at temporary quarters sell or offers or exhibits for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, and every person who travels about from place to place and transports by any mode of conveyance and sells, offers or exhibits for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, and every person who personally solicits orders for the future delivery of any goods, wares or merchandise, either by or without samples, including peddlers and hawkers, is an itinerant vendor within the meaning of this act; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to wholesale dealers selling to dealers or merchants, nor shall it apply to any person or the representative of any persons, company or corporation, doing business at a fixed place of business, and taking orders for the future delivery of any goods, wares or merchandise, kept at or in connection with and handled through such fixed place of business, nor shall it apply to the sale of books, papers or school supplies or the sale of any fruits, vegetables, meats or other farm produce when sold by the grower or producer thereof.

Section 2.—A "person, company or corporation doing business at a fixed place of business," within the meaning of this act, is any person, company or corporation who keeps, offers or exposes for sale to the general public, in a building of permanent nature any goods; wares or merchandise of any description; provided, however, that this definition must not be construed as including any person, company or corporation keeping any goods, wares or merchandise, or transacting any such business in any rented apartment or apartments, in any hotel, boarding house, lodging house, or private residence, or in any other building or structure not designated for or commonly used as a store or shop.

Section 3. Every person, company or corporation desiring to do business in any county in this state as an itinerant vendor must, before commencing such business, obtain a license from the treasurer of such county, for which he shall pay as follows: If such itinerant vendor travels on foot and sells, offers or exhibits for sale only such goods, wares or merchandise as he carries upon his person, the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) per quarter.

If such itinerant vendor travels or carries and sells or offers or exhibits for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, by any other mode than walking and carrying such goods, wares, or merchandise upon his person, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per quarter.

Section 4. Any person, company or corporation desiring to obtain a license under the provisions of this act must file with the county treasurer of each county in which he desires to do business an application in writing, subscribed and sworn to by such applicant before an officer in this state authorized to take oaths, which application shall set forth the name of the applicant, his residence and principal place of doing business, the business for which he asks the license; whether he is acting as principal, or as agent, and if acting as agent, the name and place of business of his principal and such applicant must at the time of filing such application as above provided, pay to the county treasurer with whom such application is filed, the sum specified in section three hereof as a quarterly license for conducting and transacting such business.

Section 5. Upon filing of the application required by section four of this act, in proper form, and upon the payment to him of the sum required by section three of this act, the county treasurer shall issue to such applicant a license to carry on the business described in such application, in the county in which such license is so issued, for the period of three months from and after the first day of the month in which such license is so issued, which license shall be non-transferable, and shall have printed across the face thereof in large letters the words "Non-Transferable."

The county treasurer shall indorse upon each application the date of issuance of the license, and shall file such application with the county clerk and recorder of his county, who shall file the same and keep an appropriate index thereof, which shall show the date filed, the name of the applicant, his address and the business for which the license is issued, and an appropriate reference to the file number, and the number of the file box in which said application may be found. Such index and such application shall be open to the inspection of any person during the regular office hours in the county clerk's office.

Section 6. Every such itinerant vendor doing business under the provisions of this act, must, upon demand of any citizen of this state, exhibit his license and permit the same to be then and there read by the citizen making such demand; and any such itinerant vendor who shall willfully refuse or fail to exhibit his license as above provided is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10.00), nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each offense.

Section 7. Every itinerant vendor as herein defined, doing business without first obtaining a license in any case where a license is required by this act, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Section 8. Nothing in this act contained is intended to operate so as to interfere with the power of the congress of the United States to regulate commerce between the states as such power is defined by the supreme court of the United States.

Section 9. All acts and parts of acts in conflict or inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 10. This also shall be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved March 6, 1911.

There are many unnecessary laws but there is reason behind every measure calculated to insure humanity against preventable "accidents."

Summing up the results of the first year of the war, one finds that little has been accomplished beyond the transformation of Europe into a cemetery.

In Colorado baseball umpires are beneficiaries under the workmen's compensation act. We have always maintained that baseball umpires are human beings.

While still doing everything he can to maintain peace our Uncle Sam is beginning to make a few preparations to defend himself from any possible attack.

This nation might soon have a citizenry trained and accustomed to arms if people were permitted to practice shooting at all the queer looking hats the men are wearing this summer.

Very, Very Tough

A small, henpecked little man was about to take an examination for life insurance.

"You don't dissipate do you?" asked the physician, as he made ready for tests. "Not a fast liver or anything of that sort."

The little man hesitated a moment looked a bit frightened, and then replied in a small, piping voice: "I sometimes chew a little gum."—Collier's Weekly.
