The music of the Glasgow band was one of the big features at the fair. They livened up things wonderfully and their street concerts were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. R. E. Gibbs and Miss Gibbs, mother and sister of Mrs. C. C. Storing of this city left this week for their home in Minneapolis after spending several months here visiting.

Gregg Phelan is the first reservation farmer to haul wheat into Naahua, says the Nashua Independent. He threshed a 30-acre field on Sunday obtaining an average of 17 bushels per acre.

K. O. Slette of Culbertson was a visitor in the city Monday. Mr. Slette is one of Culbertson's best boosters and states that business is good in the metropolis of southern Sheridan county.

A number of local nimrods were up with the sun Sunday morning and started out after ducks and chickens. From the number who went out and the bags they reported, the feathered tribe was greatly diminished.

Cliff Movold came down from Saco Monday and spent the day in the city visiting friends. He left Tuesday morning for Tacoma where he will spend the winter and expects to return with warm weather in the spring.

Editor H. A. Johnson of the Malta Enterprise passed through the city Monday on his way to Williston to get a new automobile. Mr. Johnson's old car went up in smoke and he went to Williston to Williston to get its successor.

The special train from Malta and other points along the line brought a number of fair visitors Wednesday morning. The rains the day before failed to dampen the ardor of many who came from the western part of the county.

County Commissioners Peter A. West, Carl J. Anderson and C. W. Baylor have been in the city this week for the regular September meeting of the Board. They were daily visitors at the fair and watched the races with interest.

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Combs of Opheim last week, says the Glentana Reporter. The two little ball players are getting along fine and have already protested Umpire Ed's decisions several times. Mrs. Combs is also getting along nicely.

H. L. Wolfe, formerly a resident of this city and now practicing law at Malta, was appointed County Attorney last week to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Dennis McGrath. Mr. Wolfe's many friends here wish him the best of success in his new position.

C. F. Kinney returned to the city Saturday after spending a month on his claim on the state land up north. The land which he has settled on is also claimed by another homesteader and both are living on it. A hearing will be held within a short time to decide which one is to hold the land.

C. A. Hulbush, Deputy State Veterinarian, ordered 41 horses killed at West Fork last week. These were afflicted with dourine. Forty of the horses belonged to the McLeod family and one to James A. Mead. The government pays the owner one half of the assessed valuation of the horses and the state pays the other half.

In the mile race at the Fair Wednesday afternoon, the riding of Little Dave Anderson, who rode Buella Lee, one of Frank Cusker's horses deserves special mention. Although quite a distance behind the leaders at the half mile post, the little fellow pushed his horse to the limit and crept up on the leaders and won out by a safe margin.

Messrs. McKenna and Steward on the Fort Peck reservation brought in a sample of oats to Nashua last week, says the Nashua Independent, that is estimated will yield 100 bushels to the acre. Some of the stalks have as many as 125 kernels and the average is 100 kernels. The oats were planted on spring breaking and they have about 15 acres in crop.

Mr. Keeler, a member of the firm of Keeler Bros., financial agents of Denver, Colorado, was in the city the fore part of the week and met with the board of county commissioners and completed the $143,000 bond issue made by Valley County. From Glasgow Mr. Keeler, went to Plentywood where he has bought a bond issue and will also go to Malta to buy Phillips county bonds.

Emil Flint was painfully bruised Wednesday noon while riding on the Inter-State car that was to race in the afternoon. He was hanging on to the side and when the car gave a lurch lost his balance and his left foot was caught under the rear wheel. His leg was given a frightful twist, tearing the shoe off his foot, but fortunately no bones were broken. Emil is now hobbling around on crutches.

Henry Haima left the fore part of the week for Bainville where he has taken over the management of the Imperial Lumber Yard. Of his coming to that city the Bainville Tribune says: "Henry Haima assumed his new duties as manager of the Imperial Lumber Yard Wednesday. Henry is not an entire stranger here, having had charge of the Company's yard here last winter for several weeks and made many friends who are glad to welcome him back."

Chas. E. Peterson & Co., have on display in their window two dining room tables, one carried in stock by them and the other sold by one of the big catalog houses. The table sold by Peterson & Co., is a genuine oak table, is built better than the other, and longer, while the catalog house table is of imitation oak. While the table sold by the local firm has it outclassed in every way, it is cheaper than the imitation. Peterson & Co., have sold their table for years at $13.50 while the table from the catalog house costs $14.09 laid down here, and the purchaser has the setting up to do after it gets here. The comparison in prices and quality is only one of many that could be made.

Mr. J. P. Ring of the State Nursery Co., was in the city this week and had charge of the company's display at the fair. The exhibit came in for a great deal of praise as it was one of the largest floral exhibits ever made at the fair and the beauty of the flowers and plants attracted a great deal of attention. In the collection were an orchid from Brazil, and a Bull Moose fern that were very beautiful. The State Nursery Co., is one of the largest in the west, having four and one half acres under glass. They have 54 green houses and two large warehouses and handle all kinds of cut flowers, plants, trees and shrubbery and seeds. They handle about nine carloads of alfalfa seed annually and its quality is of the best as a sample of their seed won the gold medal at San Francisco. They already have a number of customers in the city and the list is steadily growing.

COUNTY FAIR SUCCESSFUL

riding the machine that had won Monday, in the first race and copping off the big end of the purse. Jess Pierce was second and L. Belzer third. In the second race Wednesday afternoon, Larry Belzer, riding the "racing" Indian had little trouble in again taking first money with Jess Pierce second and Wm. Belzer, third.

The event that caused the most excitement and in which the spectators took the most interest, was the auto race. The entries in this were Sam Grossman with a Ford, Glenn Fick with a Buick "Six", Hal Fagan with an Inter-State was side-tracked and the Cadillac substituted. The Buick Six had clutch trouble and some repairs were necessary.

When the cars lined up under the wire and signal to start was given, Sam Grossman in the Ford took the lead and maintained it throughout the race. The Big Six had difficulty in getting started and after circling the track a few times dropped out of the race on account of clutch trouble. The other Buick piloted by Lesherness took second money and the Cadillac third.
