Z. J. Foust was in from his ranch south of town the first of the week on business. Mr. Foust had a narrow escape from death in a runaway last week and now bears a swollen ear as a mark of the accident.

Al Herstrom proved his prowess as a cue expert the other night when he won the $5.00 prize offered by Smith & Verholt for the high run in straight pool. His run was 25, topping the next highest by one point.

Sam Grossman, of the Grossman Motor Company, advises the Courier reporter they have sold a carload of Fords during the last ten days and have orders for two more carloads as soon as they can be delivered.

The Glentana Hall Company, a social organization, has been formed at Glentana. The incorporators are F. H. Derrig, Hermo Felland and Arthur W. Charles, with a capital of $10,000, of which $1,170 has been subscribed.

Art Floren has been laid up for the past week with a broken arm sustained at Brockton while attempting to board a freight train. The injured member is healing rapidly and he will be on the job again in a short time.

W. S. Griffith, of Scobey, was in the city several days the forepart of the week looking after business interests. Mr. Griffith states that Scobey is enjoying an exceptionally good fall and that crops turned out better than was first anticipated.

Nels A. Levang of Homestead, deputy inspector of weights and measures was in the city the fore part of the week on work connected with his office. He left Tuesday morning for Dodson, and from there will go down into the Little Rockies on a tour of inspection.

A shack occupied by several Japs on the north side of the tracks caught fire early Monday morning and burned to the ground. Flames were bursting from every part of the building when the alarm sounded and the efforts of the fire department to save it were unavailing.

S. S. Moen of Culbertson was in the city over Sunday renewing acquaintances and looking after business interests here. It was Mr. Moen's first visit to the Valley County metropolis in two years and his surprise at the rapid growth and development was genuine.

E. C. Fotheringham of Butte, representative of the Northern Assurance Co., was in the city Saturday and spent the day with the local agent for the company, S. J. Rundle. Sunday he made a trip over the north country and stated that he never saw better crops or a better farming country.

C. D. Rice, vice-president of the Milk River Valley Bank, of this city, who has been spending several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Storing, left Monday evening for his home at Northfield, Minn. Mr. Rice expressed himself as very much pleased with the outlook in northeastern Montana.

A new police signal has been installed on a telephone pole in the alley next to the O. M. Christenson land office. When the light flashes, it calls the policeman, who goes to the nearest telephone and calls central and finds out where the trouble is. In case of an urgent call, all one has to do now is to call up central, who will flash the signal.

A fried chicken dinner will be given at the Hotel Shannon on Saturday, October 23rd, from 5 until 8 o'clock P. M. This will be one of those good, old-fashioned chicken suppers, with all the trimmings and those who wish to have a real treat, should be present. The supper is given for the benefit of the Altar Society. A general invitation and cordial welcome is extended to all.

John F. Dawson, vice-president of the Rocky Mountain Fire Insurance Co., accompanied by W. A. Brown, the cashier of the First National Bank of Great Falls, and Leo P. McNeel, secretary of the Rocky Mountain Fire Insurance Co., were in the city for a short visit this week. They are making a tour of inspection of northern Montana and left Thursday for the north country.

Under-Sheriff Henry J. Landre returned this morning from Glendive, where he had been on business connected with the sheriff's office. He states that one of the large elevators at Sidney burned to the ground Wednesday, destroying about 14,000 bushels of wheat. He also stated that a man was murdered at Fairview this week, but details are lacking as to just how it occurred.

The Orpheum Theatre has booked the feature service of the Metro and World feature film companies. One of these features will be shown weekly, thus making three feature nights a week at the popular show house. On Sunday and Thursday nights, unless other arrangements are made, Metro and World features will be the attraction. The first of the new features, "The Dollar Mark," was shown Tuesday night and pleased the large audience in attendance.

The Johnson Farm Loan Co., of this city, are rapidly bringing to a close the transcribing work for Phillips County. They have a large force of stenographers at work here at the present time and expect to have the entire job completed within the next thirty days. This makes the second big transcribing job for this firm in the past two years and they are receiving much favorable comment on the efficient manner in which the work has been handled.

The supper given by the ladies of the Baptist Church Saturday evening was a tremendous success from every standpoint. The great abundance of delectable viands would tickle the most fickle palate and the manner in which those present did justice to the what was served speaks well of the ability of those ladies who prepared it. The Baptist ladies certainly surpassed all former efforts in preparing this supper and all those who were fortunate to share their hospitality are eagerly anticipating the next supper.

City Engineer Severance has been working at the ball park this week getting it in shape for the municipal rink. The embankments were made now, before the heavy frosts, and as soon as it gets cold enough water will be turned on and the people of the city will again have the opportunity of enjoying the great winter sport under excellent conditions. Glasgow is one of the few cities in this part of the state that has a municipal rink, and the city dads deserve credit for going out of their way to provide an adequate place for the skaters.

Nick Wellenstein was up from his ranch again last Friday having some dental work done. He was accompanied by "Bob" Majors of Glasgow, who is a guest at the Duell and Wellenstein ranch. Mr. Majors spent the day very pleasantly visiting with James Swisher. The two gentlemen were members of the same company of Texas Rangers about thirty years ago, and had not seen each other for several years. Mr. Majors has been in Montana for many years and was at one time employed in this section of the country in the old days of the big cow profits.—Jordan Gazette.

The entertainment given Monday night under the auspices of the Altar Society at the Orpheum Theatre, by C. R. McCalley and Miss Zella Bramletee was most satisfactory in every way. As a laugh maker, Mr. McCalley has few superiors and his interpretation of the work of the famous Hoosier poet, James Whitcomb Riley, was excellent. His violin selections and imitations were always good for an encore and his stories were told with that little touch which distinguishes the good story-teller. The singing and playing of Miss Bramletee was also very good. She has a very sweet soprano and a personality that blends well with it. The entertainment was well worthy of the patronage hat blends well with it. Wetronage of the people of Glasgow and the Altar Society are to be congratulated on being able to furnish entertainments of this nature.
