BADGER.

Gordon Cooper was in Hinsdale a few days this week. Gordon Cooper made a business trip to Glasgow last week.

Mrs. John Henry and Mrs. Wilbert McMicken drove over to Opheim Monday.

Mrs. J. W. McMicken and Mrs. S. W. Day drove over to Opheim Friday.

Fred Wycoff brought another big load of freight out from Glasgow last week.

James Clark, who has been threshing in North Dakota, returned home this week.

W. R. Kirkham returned from Outlook last week, where he has been threshing.

J. J. Vogel returned home this week from Outlook, where he has been threshing.

Miss Nora Lang and Mrs. Fred Wycoff were Opheim visitors Thursday of this week.

Harry Fulbrook has been doing some plowing over near Opheim for the last few days.

W. R. Kirkham has been busy the past week trying to get rid of his big patch of turnips. He has been selling several loads each day, a great many loads going over near Opheim.

Among those who attended the Halloween and box social at the Tango schoolhouse last Friday night were: Misses Nora Lang and Grace Ford, Mrs. W. R. Kirkham, Mrs. Fred Wycoff and children and Peter Geis.

MALTA.

(Too late for last week.) The hotels and restaurants are doing a good business this week.

W. H. Taylor, one of Saco's prominent citizens, was in town Monday.

John Hurly and Goe. E. Hurd are among the out-of-town attorneys here this week.

The county commissioners finished a very busy three days' session during the week.

Several bond men are in town this week trying to make arrangements to buy the county bonds, as advertised.

Quite a number of witnesses are in town on the Lilly murder trial. This week the defendant was on the witness stand.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Schneider will become members of the Rebekah lodge. It being "home day," the Oddfellows will join with the Rebekahs in a social time after the business of the evening is concluded.

Malta presents a lively appearance these days, as court is in session and commissioners, too, which brings many people to town.

The dining room of the new hotel is open for business this week. We understand some parties from North Dakota are in charge of it.

Homer Heath, a brother of George Heath, both of Zortman, fell dead in the latter's store Sunday. The remains were brought to Malta, then shipped to his old home in Wisconsin.

Quite a number of jurors have been excused from duty and others subpoenaed to take their places. It is a bad time of year for farmers to leave home just now, they being so busy with their harvesting.

Mrs. H. A. Parker and Miss Cecil Grace entertained the Woman's Club last Saturday with a Halloween social, the menu and decorations being orange and black. Everyone had a most enjoyable time. Music was rendered by Mesdames F. W. Hall, Chas. Blankenhorn and Ray Campbell. Mrs. Sklower read a paper on "Destructiveness of Halloween," Miss Berg one on "Origin of Halloween," Mrs. Wm. McLellan one on "Halloween Pranks" and one other paper on the "Salem Witchcraft" was given.

WILLOW BEND

Good morning, nice weather! L. O. Carter built an addition to his house.

The Lloyd brothers are hauling wheat to town.

H. Ebersole is hauling wheat to town these days.

Tom Farrel hauled a load of wheat to Glasgow Saturday.

Martin Rogers was in town Saturday with a load of flax.

Sam Paulson and Ray Phelps were getting out fence posts last week.

J. E. Carter was a Glasgow visitor over Saturday and Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Miss Nora Ebersole was a Willow Bend visitor Saturday and Sunday looking after her farm.

A. L. Ebersole has bought 160 acres off Martin Rogers. Al thinks he has struck a bargain and Martin is satisfied, so there you are.

It is reported that Ralph Perkins has traded his farm for a Ford car. He was making demonstrations around the neighborhood lately.

We noticed Mac Hunter with his car hit the high places one day last week. Mac says no hill is too high for him to climb, but the depot steps got his "goat."

Al Ebersole believes in full-blooded stock. He even imported a couple of cats. He sent one of them out to the ranch. We don't know whether they are Angora or Maltese. They look to us like just cats.

Mrs. Thompson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Ewing, left Friday night for Minneapolis. Mrs. Ewing accompanied her. Mrs. Thompson intends to come back in the spring and buy a farm for her boys, so that leaves it to Bob and Don to do their own cooking.

NORTH BENCH.

John Gilchrist is repairing his house this week.

Messrs. Gizer and De Vore visited at the poor farm Sunday.

The Lange and Burger threshing rig pulled in one day last week.

Pretty frosty weather these mornings, but pleasant during the day.

Luther Byer is hauling flax to town this week. Prices are raising some. It was $1.69 per bushel last Thursday.

Several have quit plowing on account of it being so dry. Rather discouraging for our future crop but still we're hoping.

Bill Curry left Saturday for his home in Kansas City, Mo., to spend a few months. He expects to farm here next spring.

Mrs. Cora Siddens returned to her home in Glasgow, Monday, after spending the week's end with her mother, Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. Miles and son, Ford, have been building a granary this week. They certainly have some fine corn to put in it—and plenty of it, too.

Another wedding is expected to come off in our vicinity about Christmas, so boys get your bells, pans, etc., ready and we'll give them an old-time "charivari."

Bill Curry attended the Halloween dance in Glasgow Friday night.

Elmer Byer is with his brother again after spending two weeks on the Ridgers well drill.

C. H. Richardson closed a deal with J. W. Wedum in which the former became the possessor of 135 acres of land along the river. In most places this land is heavily wooded, therefore a valuable place. Consideration, $2,200.

We'd be glad if every woman in the neighborhood would meet with Mrs. Stewart on our regular meeting day (November 11th). We're planning to have a Thanksgiving dinner and program on that day and would be glad to have the assistance of every lady in the neighborhood.

Our Halloween social at the poor farm Saturday night was a decided success. Owing to the inclemency of the weather not so many were present as was expected, but all present seemed to enjoy themselves, immensely. Mrs. Stewart, with her wit and humor never allowed the entertainment to lag a minute. It was sure amusing to see the gentlemen hunt their ghost partners by following up strings. At midnight refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, assisted by Luther Byer.

true and buy the one that tells what really is. We must refuse to repeat unproved gossip or scandal because we like it. This will soon grow into the habit of not liking it. We shall learn to hate the unconscious lie as well as the intentional one. There may sometimes be a question whether we should tell the truth to others who cannot see it or understand it; there should be no question at all that we should tell it to ourselves. And when a man has learned to tell the truth to himself the problem of telling it to others becomes comparatively easy. The whole fabric of American society rests on the assumption that we are going to be honest in our dealings."

The small boy who was visiting on his grandfather's farm sent his mother the following letter:

"Dear Mother—I am having an awful good time, and I have seen lots of animals and an accident. It was an exciting accident. You know Bill Hitchcock, the hired man's neck? Well, he fell in the creek up to it yesterday. Your loving son, Jim."
