MALTA.

(Too late for last week.)

Miss Cecil Grace spent Sunday with friends in Havre.

Mrs. R. W. Graland was hostess to the guild this week.

The Oddfellows lodge will initiate seventeen into membership soon.

Sidney J. Rundle, of Glasgow, was a visitor at Malta Monday.

In the district court Friday Peter Miller was acquitted of a statutory charge.

The Doney cases are to be tried this week, and this brings many to town as witnesses.

Miss Florence Crawford, of Glasgow, was the guest of Mrs. Lyman Barnes several days last week.

C. J. Kops, of the Kops Piano House in Great Falls, was in town on business from Friday until Monday.

The Bachelor Girls' Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Best on Thursday evening, and a good time by all was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Rund, of Casselton, N.

D., have taken charge of the dining room of the Fifth Avenue Hotel and are serving good meals from reports. They will make a specialty of Sunday dinners.

Judge T. A. Thompson and his court stenographer, Dean King, are well liked and have made many friends while here.

Members of the Epworth League met at the parsonage last night to make arrangements for a social to be held in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Robinson celebrated her birthday Saturday by inviting about twenty little friends to enjoy it with her. She received many pretty and useful gifts.

Robert Lilly was acquitted of the murder of Guy Hamilton last Wednesday about 11 o'clock P. M. He with his wife and children left for their home at Whitcomb a few days afterward.

Mr. Burton, of the Montana Children's Home Society, was in town several days last week soliciting for the home. He made speeches at the Rebekahs' lodge Friday evening and at the churches Sunday.

Attempts were made to throw out the jury on the Doney cases, on a similar technicality as last time, but Judge Thompson overruled it, and the trying of the cases will continue. This decision meets with public approval.

The Oddfellows and Rebekahs joined in having a social time after the Rebekah meeting was closed Friday evening. W. G. and Mrs. Schneider were admitted to Rebekah membership by card and invitation respectively. Whist was the leading diversion of the evening, ten tables being in play. Music was furnished during the evening by Winnie Partridge, Ellis Blumenthal and Miss Florence Crawford, the latter from Glasgow. Supper was served about 11 o'clock, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake, ice cream and coffee.

N. W. Halsey & Co., of Chicago, were the successful bidders for the $200,000 Phillips County funding bonds. There were over a dozen agents from different bonding companies. F. W. Hall, of the First State Bank, entered the bid for N. W. Halsey & Co.

The many friends of Mrs. J. Ray Watson, whose husband lost his life in March, 1913, trying to rescue a companion who had suffocated in a well near Lovejoy, will be glad to hear that she has been awarded a Carnegie bronze medal and pension.

The Woman's Club has rented the Congregational Church to hold its meetings in. There is no reason whatever that this club should not buy lots and erect a club building with library in connection. The club consists of over forty members now and that number of ladies could easily devise plans for their building. Other smaller clubs have signified a desire to join with them in building a club house, so that it could be self-supporting.

MALTA.

Mrs. G. W. Schneider and son, Richard, spent the week-end at Saco with friends.

Mrs. James LeMoir will be hostess to the Ladies' Aid this week of the M. E. church.

Quite a number attended the Masonic doings at Dodson Monday night of this week.

Mrs. H. Caselberg and family have become established in their new cottage in the proposed Survant addition during the past week.

The school children will enjoy a week's vacation Thanksgiving week, while the transfer is made from the old to the new school house.

The Epworth league of the M. E. church will give a pie social Friday evening at the storeroom of the Fifth musical program will be given also.

A very pleasant meeting of the Woman's club was held at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon. The club is planning to go to Saco Dec. 4. to give a program before the Saco club.

The Oddfellows' lodge will admit 37 new members tonight. A jolly time is anticipated. The order is growing so rapidly of late, that there is considerable talk of building a hall, as the quarters at the school house are entirely too small to attend to business.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week to the following: Dan F. Hilliard, Malta and Johana Marie Drabbels, Malta; Leslie Dettman and Lizzie Mauch, both of Valletown; Lawrence Larson and Rose Nordberg, both of Malta.

NORTH BENCH.

Mrs. Wm. Peters was shopping in town Monday.

Mr. Miles and son, Ford, are husking corn this week.

Miss Josephene Anderson is attending high school in Glasgow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sauge are rejoicing over the arrival of a big boy baby.

We are having some winter weather, but not as bad as it is in some parts of the state.

Luther Byer and son, Durward, left Thursday evening for a few days' visit with Luther's parents at Ege-land, North Dakota.

Mrs. Stewart entertained the Ladies' Aid Thursday afternoon but owing to the inclemency of the weather, not very many were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. C. Miles, November 25. Weather permitting, we will have a neighborhood Thanksgiving dinner with a short program in the afternoon.

OSWEGO.

Dan Knapp has been on the sick list the past week, but is now better.

Chas. Cook, Chas. Burglan, Hugh Manham of Nashua were Tuesday visitors.

Mrs. Starts entertained her lady friends on Saturday. All report a pleasant time.

Mr. Knopp's new building that he is having erected for office rooms is nearly completed.

Tom Jarvis of Weldon was with us a few days. He is hauling in flax a distance of 40 miles.

Miss L. H. Connor of Denby, N. D., has the past week been visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. Clyde Flint.

The club dance at the opera house, given on the 13th, was a great success. Messrs. Knopp and Jelmsberg are to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which the dances are conducted. It is much to their credit.

The Wolf Point pontoon bridge took its departure one day this week and was captured some distance down the river.

Mrs. Monk and her little son, Steward, left Sunday night for St. Paul, where they will spend the winter with relatives.

C. D. Nelson returned on Saturday from Chicago, where he has been this past month, looking after business matters.

W. A. Goldschmidt has been in very poor health the past week. One of his old attacks. We are glad to see him out again.

Ray Edholm left on Monday for a visit with the old folks at home at Albany, Ore. He expects to be away until spring work begins on his farm.

Max Morrison, Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. H. S. Morrison were Glasgow visitors. While there Max filed on 320 acres of reservation land. Watch Max farm.

Ginger Snaps

There appears to be a fine opportunity for southwestern train robbers to masquerade as Mexicans.

We understand that the "opry" is using quite a large chorus, and we hope to "see a good deal" of them.

No satisfactory theory has been offered as to what outlaws do with all the money they get by robbing trains.

Travelers are not permitted to take gold out of England. However, much of it eventually arrives in this country.

Judging by the slow progress of those Italians at mountain-climbing, Doc. Cook must be in command over there.

"Nicholas" our office Standard sagely informs us, means "Victory of the people." But it doesn't say which people.

Lord Kitchener is a great general, but the responses to calls for recruits do not indicate that he is very strong as a persuader.

Manufacturers are willing to dye for their country, if Washington will promise to give them a satisfactory protective tariff.

Don't waste too much sympathy on Serbia. Fighting against long odds is one of the very best little things that plucky country does.

It seems possible that Mr. Mellen is working as hard just now as he did when he was drawing a large salary from the New Haven.

The great trouble about $18,000,000 battle cruisers is that the jingoes will probably begin to insist on some action for their money.

Before agreeing to accept the Island of Cyprus, Greece may feel justified in waiting to satisfy herself that the goods can be delivered.

Gen. H. F. Hodges, whoever he is, announces that the Panama slides are really a ruse in disguise. Well, the disguise certainly is complete and baffling.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Mason City, Ia.—Thirty-two years old and married five times is the record of Ethel Wickes-Noble-Pump-Jurdy-Hughes, who is under arrest for bigamy.

Portland, Ore.—Is Doc Osler in the audience? Jeremiah Paulsell, 99 years old, has just applied for a license to hunt big game. "I don't take water from any young fellow," says Uncle Jere.

Cincinnati, O.—Archbishop Moeller, of the Roman Catholic church, in a statement to the Ohio Temperance Society, says he is opposed to prohibition of the liquor traffic and believes that a well-regulated saloon is not undesirable.

Minneapolis, Minn.—White, Earth near here, claims the champion mother of this state and perhaps of the entire country. Although Mrs. Myrtle La Chappelle is only 19 years of age, she has been the mother of nine children. Her husband is 22 years old.

A paroled convict of South Dakota must serve out his term because he got married while at liberty. Pretty hard lines for a man who was taking the best way to behave himself.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Ask your husband to buy you a nice new Range

Ask him to let you come to our store and pick it out. You use it—he doesn't.

When you come in you will find a range which will delight you.

Then the bread and pies you can bake will delight your husband and the whole family. Everybody will be happy.

Ask him to-day.

WHAT YOU OUGHT TO KNOW BEFORE YOU BUY YOUR CHINA.

Our Chinaware Department is complete now. We are selling to you our Dishes in any way you want to buy them; single pieces, sets of regular composition or of your own composition and carry the same patterns always in stock to enable you to replace anything that might break, so you can always have a full unbroken and fully matched set of Chinaware.

ABOVE ALL, we want you to know, though it may seem unbelievable to you, that we are selling our dishes right in your home town, ourselves paying the heavy freight on Chinaware, cheaper than you can buy it at any catalog house. Here is an illustration:

Sears, Roebuck & Co., price: A 56-piece gold band set at $6.95, shipped from the pottery at Ohio. The freight charges will amount to $2.75 on the set and will cost you net $9.70. Our price on this set is $8.25. Fancy flowered dishes they price still higher; we sell them at nearly the same prices.
