

Sunday, November 21st, 1915

Paramount Picture Corporation Presents

"Brother Officers"

A dramatic military romance that will appeal to all. The play in which Margaret Anglin and Wm. Faversham appeared in a few years ago.

Special Matinee at 3:00 p. m. Evening at 7:30 and 9.

Admission 10c and 25c

THE ORPHEUM

Where Everybody Goes

Wednesday, Nov. 24th, 1915

The great emotional actress, Mme. Petrova, in an original production

"The Vampire"

The story of the regeneration of a woman more sinned against than sinning.

Don't fail to see this great actress in one of her best pictures.

Prices 10c and 20c. Reserve your box seats early.

Thursday, November 25, 1915

Jesse L. Lasky presents EDGAR SELWYN in a picturization of his own romantic play

"The Arab"

Produced by that Master Director, Cecil B. DeMille.

Special Matinee at 3:00 p. m.—Orchestra music. Evening 7:30 and 9:00.

Arrange for a Thanksgiving Box Party. It will be a treat for you and your friends.

Admission 10c and 25c

Local Brevities

News in and About Town

Good Soft Coal Heater for sale cheap. Inquire E. J. Dixon. 28-3t

W. S. Griffith of Scooby was in the city on business the fore part of the week.

We can now supply all our customers with cream. The Glasgow Cash Grocery.

Emil Lucht of Saco was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

Fred Weigel of the Toggery made a trip to Great Falls the fore part of the week.

D. L. Blankenship of Hinsdale was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

William Record of Beaverton was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

Attorney O. R. Hawver of Saco was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

We have a limited supply of bulk apples at $1.25 a bushel. Glasgow Cash Grocery.

Clarence Beede left Saturday for the Twin Cities to consult a specialist about his eyes.

Charley Martin was taken to St. Paul this week to undergo an operation on his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Spears are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl, born on November 10.

Frank Rider, a prominent business man of Saco was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mann of Bromhead, Can., arrived in the city this week and are visiting Fred Mann.

County Commissioner C. W. Baylor was in from his ranch up north Tuesday transacting business in the city.

N. V. Wilson, traveling auditor for the Imperial Elevator Co., was in the city the first of the week on business.

George Kaneen, traveling representative of the Minneapolis Paper Co., was in the city Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ewy are the happy parents of a baby girl, born at the Deaconess Hospital Tuesday night.

Mrs. Emily Whitbread and Mrs. George Woods expect to leave Sunday night for California to spend the winter.

Sam Grossman sold two new Fords this week, one going to H. T. Ratchford of Hinsdale and the other to M. J. Welton.

Louis J. Fischl left Tuesday night for Helena upon receipt of a telegram informing him of the serious illness of his mother.

A. G. Johnson of the Printers' Supply Co., of Minneapolis was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

Paul Vornholt returned Friday night from St. Paul, where he has been for the past week on business. He reports a good trip.

E. H. Page, Sunday school missionary for this district, returned Tuesday from St. Paul, where he attended a meeting of the society.

Mrs. A. M. Laird of St. Paul arrived here this week and will spend the winter visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lee Chouinard at Baylor.

A. J. Buell, superintendent of the Tribune Printing Co., of Great Falls, was in the city the fore part of the week calling on the trade.

Mrs. Mary Montgomery, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Havre, was here several days the fore part of the week visiting friends.

C. C. Johnson of the Johnson Farm Loan Co., is at Chinook this week looking after the work of transcribing the records of Phillips county.

R. L. Shinault of Spokane arrived in the city Thursday night and is now operating the big Model Eight Mergenthaler linotype for the Courier.

The famous picture "Hypocrites," which has caused such a sensation wherever exhibited, will be shown at the Orpheum Theatre on Sunday, November 28.

Leo Schaffer was called to Delano, Minn., Thursday night by a telegram announcing the death of his father. Mrs. Thos. Pierce accompanied him on the trip.

Secretary S. C. Moore of the Commercial Club and S. E. Murray of the Western Union Telegraph Co., are at Helena this week attending a meeting of the Masonic bodies.

E. T. Phelps of Baylor was in the city the fore part of the week on business. He states that enough snow fell Sunday and Monday up there to make sleighing fairly good.

Martin Toftness, formerly employed at the Model Bakery here, returned to the city this week after several months' absence and will visit relatives during the winter.

Sidney J. Rundle, president of the Rundle Land & Abstract Co., returned Saturday from Great Falls and Helena, where he had been for a few days on business.

Miss Permelia A. Clarke, superintendent of the Deaconess Hospital, returned Wednesday night from a trip through Sheridan and eastern Valley counties in the interests of the hospital.

New arrivals in the colony at West Fork, are a girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miner on Saturday, November 13, and a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Droge on Monday, November 15.

James Sherman and Gertrude Hodgkinson, both of Glasgow, were united in marriage by Justice L. P. Evans on Wednesday, November 17. They expect to make their home in the city.

Dr. M. E. Trainor of Williston was in the city Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. While here Dr. Trainor has his offices with Dr. Hoyt. His next visit here will be on December 15, 16 and 17.

Miss Macie Moore returned Sunday from Detroit, Mich., where she has been visiting the past few months. Since leaving Glasgow she visited the expositions in California and from there went to Detroit.

W. B. Shoemaker, county clerk and recorder, was able to leave the hospital this week and is now convalescing at his home on the north side. He expects to be able to be around and on the job in a few days.

Mrs. H. A. DeLeo of the Coleman has arranged an excellent menu for Thanksgiving. Among the good things that will be served are young roast pig and roast turkey. See the complete menu in this issue.

Dr. M. B. Sherrard and Miss Maude Schlechter of Ophiem were united in marriage by Justice L. P. Evans on Friday, November 12. They will make their home at Ophiem where Dr. Sherrard has an extensive practice.

Miss Anna Arneson, who has a claim near Galpin, left last week for LaCrosse, Wis., to spend the winter. She expects to return in the spring and will farm on a large scale next season. Her crop this year was very good.

The new winter schedule which goes into effect on November 20 on the Great Northern, is meeting with opposition from the traveling men. Under the new schedule they will be compelled to do practically all their traveling at night.

John Lohr of Humboldt, Minn., arrived in the city the fore part of the week to look after ranching interests near the city. It is reported that Mr. Lohr will return to Montana next spring to devote his time to his ranch near Tampico.

Owing to our extra large amount of advertising this week and the delay we were put to by not having a linotype operator, necessitated the omission of the publication of the city council proceedings this week. They will appear in next week's issue.

A unique and clever window display has attracted much attention in the Glenn Maris hardware store this week. A replica of a locomotive was constructed out of articles handled in the store, a stove serving as the boiler part and a breadbox as the cab.

N. A. Mann, editor of the Oswego Reporter, was in the city on business the fore part of the week. He states that the ferry at Oswego has been doing a rushing business the past week due to the Wolf Point pontoon bridge being swept away by the ice.

The funeral of Grace May Brooks, the four-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks, was held Tuesday afternoon and the remains were interred in the local cemetery. Rev. A. U. Baer conducted the funeral services. Death was due to bronchial pneumonia.

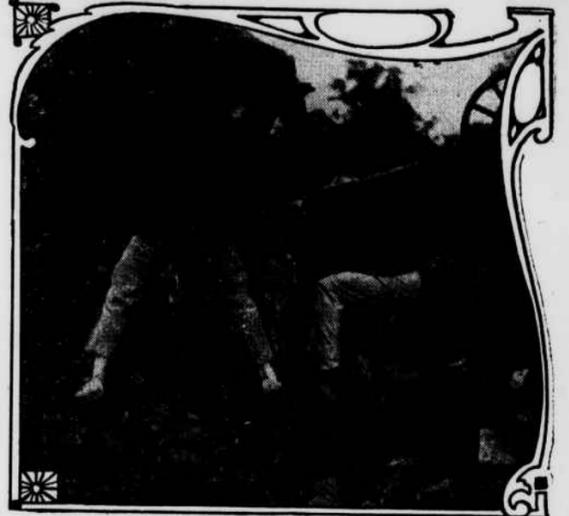

R. F. Carney, district manager of the Mountain States Telephone Co., was in the city Friday visiting R. J. Moore, president of the local company. Mr. Carney stated that he experienced a real surprise when he saw the progress the city had made since his last visit here.

The turkey shoot at the ball park Saturday afternoon will undoubtedly be the rendezvous for all the local "cracks" with the rifle. H. L. McAtee, the prohofer of the shoot, states that he will also hang up a cash prize of $5 for the best shot during the day.

A wonderful transformation took place the other day on one of the city streets. Stone and Wood were talking over some matters, when a radiant creature passed by, dressed in the latest style with bewitching pantelletes showing at her ankles. Stone turned to Wood and Wood turned to Stone and they both turned to rubber.

James Currington, one of the pioneer residents of Glasgow, died at Minneapolis on October 20, according to news received in the city this week. Mr. Currington owned a meat market and restaurant here about twenty years ago and saw the town grow from a small wayside station to the metropolis of northeastern Montana. His last visit to Glasgow was last spring when he was here for a few days as the guest of Col. E. D. Coleman.

C. O. Spangler and M. G. Monroe, of the Crow Colony on the Reservation, were in the city the fore part of the week purchasing supplies for the winter. Mr. Monroe arrived a short time ago from Kansas and was so impressed with the reservation land that he filed on a half section. Mr. Spangler is one of the pioneer settlers of that community and says that it will be but a few years before the Crow Colony will be the banner farming district of the county.

Scene from the Paramount Picture "The Vampire," at the Orpheum Theatre, Thursday, November 25.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Sunday, November 21.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Miss Lind, superintendent. We have classes for all ages and are always glad to welcome new scholars.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The topic will be on Thanksgiving. One new member was admitted last Sunday. A very interesting meeting was held last Sunday, when the members discussed "The Social Creed," suggested by the commission on education of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Preaching service at 7:30 p. m. There will be no preaching service in the morning as the Lutheran congregation will have a service at 11 a. m.

The annual Thanksgiving service will be held on Thursday morning November 25, at the Christian church. We have splendid music and a hearty welcome for you to all our services.

A. U. BAER, Pastor.

Don't write personal affairs on a postal.

Dressed pork, from 50 pounds up at 10 cents per pound. Chas. E. Behner. 29tf

EPICUREAN

- Policemen should eat beets.
- Dentists—Gum drops.
- Atheists—Fried sole.
- Aristocrats—Well, bread.
- Truck drivers—Jam.
- Chiropradists—Corn.
- Politicians (before election)—Taffy.
- Husbands of Suffragettes—Quail.
- Office seekers—Plums.
- Railroad magnates—Dough.
- Plumbers—Leaks.
- Reformers—Roasts.

NOTICE.

I will make my next regular professional visit to Glasgow on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 15, 16 and 17, at which time I will be ready to give special attention to all cases of eye, ear, nose and throat trouble. Offices with Dr. M. D. Hoyt, in the First National Bank building.

M. E. TRAINOR, M. D.
Resident address: Williston, N. D.
Nov. 9-3t.

A Dutchman summoned to identify a stolen hog, being asked if the hog had any ear-marks, he replied: "The only ear-mark dat I saw vas his tail vas cut off."

Thanksgiving Menu
at the
COLEMAN

Thursday, Nov. 25
From 12 until 2 p. m.

- Relishes.
- Oyster Cocktail
- Olives
- Soup.
- Cream of Tomato.
- Entree.
- Fruit Salad.
- Roast.
- Young Pig, with Oyster Dressing.
- Turkey, with Chestnut Dressing and Cranberry Sauce.
- Riced Potatoes.
- Sweet Potatoes, Kentucky Style.
- Vegetables.
- Celery
- Sliced Tomatoes
- Mashed Rutabagoes
- Dessert.
- Apple, Mince and Pumpkin Pie
- English Plum Pudding
- Vanilla Ice Cream
- Tea
- Coffee
- Cocoa
- Milk
- Cheese and Wafers

75 Cents

WHO'S YOUR TAILOR?

Thanksgiving will soon be here and in order to be dressed correctly for the occasion you should wear one of our strictly up-to-date tailor made suits.

We have the only modern Dry Cleaning Plant in the city
Work called for and delivered

NIFTY TAILOR SHOP