BADGER

W. R. Kirkham made a business trip to Glasgow Friday.

James Clark and Leland Templin were Opheim visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Day ate Thanksgiving dinner at the home of J. W. McMicken.

Mrs. James Clark and children left Friday for Saskatchewan to visit Mrs. Clark's father who is ill.

A crowd of young people from here attended the dance at Opheim Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cooper gave a dance at their home last Wednesday night. A very enjoyable time is reported by all who attended.

Messrs. Peter Gies, August Templin, Harry Fulbrook and Joseph Vogel all took loads of grain to Glasgow this week and are bringing back loads of lumber and other freight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kirkham entertained a very bountiful Thanksgiving dinner. Those present were Fred Mycoff and family; and the Misses Nora and Fay Lang and Grace Ford.

Alonzo Emonds and Miss Mary Oliver of Opheim, were married in Glasgow last Wednesday. Both parties are well known throughout the north country and their many friends join in wishing them much happiness. They will reside on Mr. Emond's homestead in this valley.

NASHUA NEWS.

(From The Independent)

J. L. Burgess was a visitor in Glasgow Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Neils transacted business in Glasgow yesterday.

Roy T. Gordon was in Glasgow on Sunday and Monday of this week.

Royce Biddle made a business trip to Glasgow on Monday of this week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Laws, on Friday, November 19, a daughter.

Mrs. Claude Mattingly of the south side was reported seriously ill last week, but at present is recovering rapidly.

Deer hunters in Nashua are patiently waiting for a fall of snow, but it don't seem to appear; in fact, we are having real summer weather.

The Imperial Lumber company has at last succeeded in getting all of their buildings moved to their new site, east of the State bank, and are now prepared to do business at their new stand.

A deal was closed last week whereby Mrs. Gina Currie became the owner of the H. E. Kiste farm southwest of Nashua. Mrs. Currie is quite a land owner as she owns a half section on the north bench.

C. M. Peterson was in Nashua on Tuesday displaying some of his famous brand of Gehu seed corn, and it is certainly of a fine variety. The Independent has a sample at the office which we would be glad to have you inspect.

H. L. Dillard, who resides near Nashua, was taken to St. Paul last week, where he will be placed in the charge of a specialist. Mr. Dillard is suffering from an attack of paralysis about the face and neck, and as his condition continued to grow worse, he was taken away.

Mrs. Lee Tenby died at her home south of Nashua on Monday morning as a result of child-birth. She has been hovering between life and death for the last week, and on Monday she was relieved of all her suffering and taken to the great beyond. She is a daughter of George Watters, having only been married a year.

WILLOW BEND.

Sam Paulson has not gone away as yet. He is looking around for a cook.

Jess Rogers is drilling a well for one of our neighbors three miles north.

It is generally understood that Bob Moore is going to start a singing school.

Dick Ebersole has a new saddle and now a jack rabbit can not outrun him and his horse.

Ross Dorr of Glasgow spent Thanksgiving with his brother Kelsey at Willow Bend.

H. H. Ebersole, Don Ewing and L. O. Carter are busy these days hauling wood from the river.

We are getting worried about Si Perkins. Have not seen him for some time. Perhaps his car has ditched him in some lonely place.

If one of the Belgian refugees had eaten a part of the dinner we ate at Mrs. A. L. Ebersole's Thanksgiving, we would both be in better health.

We thought we saw a flying machine the other evening. It proved to be Dr. Pease with a lantern bringing the girls home for Thanksgiving.

The Lloyd brothers have completed their house and gave a dance Thanksgiving evening. A large crowd of neighbors and friends attended. A nice lunch was served at 12 o'clock.

Orley Rogers was home for Thanksgiving. He has a claim a hundred miles west of here. He reports a good country, plenty of water and grass, and he is only two miles from a coal bank.

It is reported that Tom Ferrell wants to buy some cedar fence posts. Mrs. Bennet, Mrs. Horace Ebersole's mother, after spending the past summer in Iowa, has returned. It is the same old story. No place like Montana.

But say, you should have been there and seen Jim with his glad rags as master of ceremonies and Bill was smiling as usual. When they went home at five in the morning they all expressed themselves as Henry Watterson once did after attending a reception when he bid the lady of the house "Good evening." She said, "Say something original, Mr. Watterson; say you have had a good time in an original manner." Calling the lady by her name, he said: "Well, I have had a H—ll of a time" That is the way they all felt after attending the boy's party.

NORTH BENCH

C. A. Parker was out to his ranch last Sunday.

F. C. Miles is selling some of his surplus corn on the poor farm.

Miss Pearl Anderson will entertain her pupils at her home on Sunday, November 28th.

Elmer Byer left Saturday for his home at Egeland, North Dakota, by the way of Fargo, Grand Forks and other points.

Still we're having beautiful weather while some of our sister states are snowed in. Montana isn't such a bad place to live in after all.

Miss Elmina Stewart came in Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with her parents. She returns to her post of duty Sunday.

Luther Byer and little son, Durward returned Tuesday from a two week's visit with relatives and friends at Egeland, North Dakota.

Ivan Collins returned home Wednesday to spend the winter with his folks.

WELLS BROS. Prop. Highest Cash Price Paid for Hides, Furs and Pelts

He has been working near Hinsdale during the summer and fall.

C. A. Collins lost another valuable calf last week in the same manner as the one the week before, it having been beaten severely so that it died a short time after. Upon examining it, he found the hide loosened from the body and the greater part of the body covered with black and blue bruises. This is certainly a miserable act and the guilty party or parties should be punished to the full extent of the law.

The Ladies Aid society of the North Bench met with Mrs. F. C. Miles last Thursday. It being Thanksgiving they all came in the forenoon and brought something in the line of eatables, so a bountiful dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Miles and son, Ford; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Collins and sons, Ivan, Albert and Allen; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Byer and children, Durward, Alica and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and daughter, Miss Elmina; Mr. and Mrs. John Gilchrist; Mrs. Siddens and children, Donald and Ina; May and L. P. Gamble. After dinner an interesting program was rendered. The evening was spent telling funny stories, riddles conundrums, etc. Later refreshments were served after which all departed for their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Miles many more happy Thanksgivings. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Richardson, December 9th. We will discuss plans for our Xmas entertainment at that meeting.

There are twenty-six Republican postmasters in Montana who will shortly lose their jobs, according to a Washington dispatch, and democrats will be named in their stead. In most cases their terms expire this winter. The list is as follows: Broadview, Browning, Butte, Chinook, Columbia Falls, Culbertson, Denton, Drummond, East Scobey, Forsyth, Gilman, Glendive, Hardin, Hobson, Malta, Missoula, Philipsburg, Plains, Red Lodge, Ronan, Roy, Sidney, Stanford, Thompson Falls, Virginia City and White Sulphur Springs.
