Sense and Non-Sense About the Plays and Players

The Hearst-Selig News Pictorial will be discontinued. In its place will be released the Hearst-Vitagraph News.

Five hundred people are employed by the Lasky company for several scenes in one of their coming releases.

"The Birth of a Nation" will be shown in Minneapolis in spite of the opposition met with by the colored people of that city.

It is said that anyone sitting through "Madame Butterfly," Mary Pickford's latest release, is either shy a heart or a handkerchief.

The first release of Mark Twain's stories by the Lasky company will be "Pudd'nhead Wilson," with Theodore Roberts in the leading role.

The Orpheum has added the Gold Rooster Plays to their program. These features are produced by the Pathe company in five reels and will be shown every Saturday night.

The General Film company are now releasing four reel pictures on their regular program. The popular demand in pictures nowadays is for the longer length pictures.

The international famous dancer, Maud Allen, will appear here shortly in a charming romance produced by the Bosworth company, "The Rug Maker's Daughter."

Practically everyone in Glasgow is anxiously awaiting the coming of "The Spoilers." This great picture will be the attraction at the Orpheum Wednesday, December 15.

Robert Warwick, who appeared here recently in "The Dollar Mark," will be seen again soon in the World Film corporation play, "The Man of the Hour." Mr. Warwick has many warm friends in Glasgow who will be pleased to see him once more.

Arrangements have been made for the showing at a later date of "An Alien," featuring George Beban, at the Orpheum. Many will remember Mr. Beban for his exceptionally clever work in "The Italian." In "An Alien" Mr. Beban assumes the role of an Italian as in the play of that name.

"Little Pal," the next Famous Player attraction to be shown here provides Mary Pickford, the unrivaled favorite of the screen, with one of the most unique roles in which she has ever been presented. The characterization is unusual, but nevertheless pleasing.

The first rains of the season in California caught the Lasky company unawares with many lavish interior sets in place on their open stage. They were covered with the big tent before any serious damage resulted. Everyone around the studio was very busy for awhile, however.

A new brand of films has made its appearance on the General program, known as the "Knickerbocker." For settings and photography they are on a par with any make of films released on that program. The first one, "Hamlet," was shown at the local theatre last week.

Hazel Dawn, the Famous Player star, being photographed by one of the big weekly magazines recently, was required to pose before a millionaire's palace on Fifth avenue. A former musical comedy associate, riding by on the top of a bus, exclaimed: "Gee, look at Hazel. I didn't think she was making enough money to buy a place like that."

After viewing "Hypocrites," the Bosworth picture that is meeting with opposition by local censors in many places, it appears to be a case of much-ado-about-nothing. On its showing here it was greeted by a packed house and all who saw it were strong in their praise. Many declare it to be the greatest picture ever shown in Glasgow.

A Butte paper has this to say regarding "The Spoilers," on its showing there recently:

One of the largest and best pleased audiences thus far this season taxed the Broadway theatre to capacity last night to see the splendid motion picture presentation of Rex Beach's great book, "The Spoilers."

The excellence of this film production is the talk of Butte. The pictures will be shown again tonight and tomorrow night.

"The Spoilers" will be shown in Glasgow December 15.

What will no doubt be the attraction of the season will be presented to Glasgow show goes Monday, December 13. Manager Bishell of the Orpheum has made arrangements to bring Blake's Hawaiian singers and dancers here. These artists are making a tour of the world and are being greeted by packed houses wherever they appear. They furnished the entertainment at the Shriners' banquet held at Helena recently, and all those who were present at the banquet from Glasgow are loud in their praise of their ability as entertainers. One of their members is conceded to be the greatest Ukulele player in the world, having produced many records on that instrument for the Victor Phonograph company. They come here direct from the Gem theatre at Great Falls, where they close a four days' engagement.

THE HAY-RACK RIDE

The hay rack like many other fond pastimes, is caught in the whirl of mechanical revolution, and must eventually pass from custom.—Toledo Blade
Time was when yellow harvest moons Their glamor used to hold;
When sweeping mist and frosty air The timid heart made bold—
And, Ah! to feel the slender form A-nestling at one's side—
And, Ah! to feel the magic of The old-time hay-rack ride!

Time was when beat of horses' feet upon the hard highroad Was music to the youthful hearts That formed the hay-rack's load;
Today the chugging motor car Disturbs the countryside—
Quite out-of-date, forgotten is The old-time hay-rack ride.

Time was when e'en a slender gift Of comedy would please;
When crowded in amid the hay, Sweathearts might hug and squeeze;
Ah, merry was the laughter then! Convention was defied—
And, Ah!, what loves were kindled on The old-time hay-rack ride!

TOO GOOD TO LIVE.

He never smoked he never drank;
He never said "How dry am I!"
The filthy weed he thought was rank;
He never used the cuss word "!!!"
He came home early every night—
Of this fact I am positive—
And on his tombstone one might write
"ALAS, HE WAS TOO GOOD TO LIVE!"

A model man in all respects,
He even went to Sunday school;
Quite free was he from all defects;
He'd never heard of Kelly pool;
His hard earned salary each week
To friend wife he would always give,
And those who would his tombstone seek
Might read: "HE WAS TOO GOOD TO LIVE!"

He paid subscription in advance;
He never knocked his native town;
He wielded no reformer's lance;
He never sought for cheap renown;
If you but pleased him he would write
And tell you how much joy you give
(Not many persons so polite)—
ALAS, HE WAS TOO GOOD TO LIVE

A CHALLENGE TO THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Inasmuch as some of your representatives have taken it upon themselves to misrepresent the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints of which I am a representative, and inasmuch as Rev. Parker did, on the evening of December 7, 1915, in the church at Glasgow, preach doctrines that I claim will not stand a Bible test, and as he claims to be a representative of Christ, and as I also claim to be a representative of Christ, and as we greatly differ in our teachings, and as I believe it is our duty to comply with the teachings of Jude, to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints, I hereby challenge the said Rev. Parker or Rev. J. L. Wilkinson or any of the representatives of the said church to meet in a friendly public discussion in the city of Glasgow and discuss the following proposition:

"Is the Church of Christ or Christian Church, identical in Faith, Ordinances, Worship and Teachings and Practices, With the Church of Christ as Left Perfected by the Apostles."

This is to be affirmed by a representative of the Christian church and the same church of which I, the undersigned, am a representative in good standing, to deny. And the same proposition to be affirmed by a representative of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and the Christian church to deny. However, each party should consider the other as standing on equal footing in regards to the subject in debate and each should have a desire that truth will win and realize that mortal man is always liable to be wrong. The debate to be held in ten sessions or more of one hour each night, each debater to have one-half hour. Each party to choose one moderator, these two to choose the third man to act as chairman, the date of debating to be agreed upon later.

With best wishes, I remain,
Yours for truth,
Adv.—It. R. NEWBY.
