Sense and Non-Sense About the Plays and Players

"Sis" Hopkins is to appear in motion pictures.

It is rumored that Flora Finch has quit the Vitagraph company. We hope not.

The Pathe company is hard at work on a six-reel Gold Rooster Play, which will be hand-colored.

Bray, the famous cartoonist, has quit the Pathe company and will draw pictures for the Paramount News picture.

Mabel Talliaferro has forsaken the stage and has signed a contract to appear in pictures for the Metro company.

Five new automobiles have just been added to the Lasky equipment. This makes a total of ten machines for the four companies.

Agustus Carney, who used to appear on the General program as Alkali Ike, has returned to pictures and is now with the Triangle company.

The great dramatic artist, Laura Hope Crews, will be seen here again soon on the Paramount program in the Belasco hit, "The Fighting Hope."

Geraldine Farrar, who recently finished "Carman" for the Lasky company, is to start work on another production soon for the same company.

Jas. J. Corbett, the pugilist-actor, has recently finished a states right feature for the Sun Photo Play company, called "The Burglar and the Lady."

Charles Chaplin will appear here soon in his latest picture "A Night In a Show." This is said to be something entirely different from anything he has yet made.

The famous actress, Valeska Surrat, has signed a contract to appear in pictures for the Lasky company. Her first picture will be "The Immigrant."

The Kalem company will release three "Hazard of Helen" stories during the month of January, that for deeds of daring and hair-breadth escapes surpass anything yet turned out by that company.

On December 23, the Famous Players company will release what is known as "America's Oldest Living Play." It is a film adaption of the celebrated rural classic, "The Old Homestead." This beloved old play was first played in 1875.

Arrangements have been made to bring the famous "Stingaree" pictures to Glasgow. These pictures are meeting with more success than anything the Kalem company have yet done.

Page Peters, brother of House Peters, is one of the youngest leading men appearing in pictures who, starting at the bottom without previous experience on the stage to aid him, has climbed to a place of prominence in the film world in less than two years.

A picture soon to appear here that is bound to meet with popular approval is that delightful old comedy, "Old Dutch," with that famous comedian Le Fields of the team of Weber and Fields, in the leading role. This play is conceded to be Mr.

Fields' greatest stage success, and the picture conforms very closely to the stage production. The World Film corporation, who release this picture, advertise it as "an opportunity to enjoy a two dollar Broadway comedy success at your favorite photo play theatre at photo play prices."

Macklyn Arbuckle, who has been seen here on the Paramount program in "It's No Laughing Matter" and "The County Chairman," has returned to pictures and will be seen again in Pallas pictures. He is at present busily engaged finishing "The Reform Candidate."

The first episode of "Neal of the Navy" was shown at the Orpheum Tuesday night to a large crowd. While the first episode was very much in the way of a prologue, the story bids fair to be a very interesting one. One episode or chapter of this serial will be shown every Tuesday night in addition to the regular show.

John Barrymore is a very busy man. In fact, he is about twice as busy as he has ever been before. The occasion for this great activity on his part is due to the fact that he is playing a dual role in his new production, now under way. He will appear as a Yankee adventurer and as a prince of one of the Balkan kingdoms.

Mary Pickford is so enamored of the Japanese maiden who supported her in "Madame Butterfly" that she is anxious to retain the services of one of these diminutive damsels as her own maid. The neatness of the daughters of Nippon has appealed to her very strongly. Little Mary declares that she believes they are unsurpassable in point of personal neatness.

Among the 200 extra people working in the Plattville scenes in the new Pallas picture, "The Gentleman from Indiana," an enterprising real estate salesman managed to sandwich himself in. When the day's work was over and the long line filed past the director for their pay vouchers, the latter, on coming to the salesman, had forgotten just what salary rate he had promised him and so inquired: "Let's see, brother, how much do you get today?" With a happy grin the salesman replied: "Two hundred and thirty dollars."

The director fell back aghast at the mention of that amount of wages for one day for an extra man, but the salesman blandly assured him by explaining: "You see, I sold five lots at Seal Beach today to the rest of the bunch."

A Large Corporation.
An old lady, traveling for the first time in a large city, saw a glaring sign on the front of a high building, which read:
"The Smith Manufacturing Company."

As she repeated it aloud, she remarked to her nephew:
"Lawsy mercy! Well, I've hern tell of Smiths all my life, but I never knew before where they made 'em."

IMPORTANT NOTICE
We have never before sold a remedy with the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the appendicitis preventative. ONE SPOONFUL relieves sour stomach, gas and constipation AT ONCE. Lewis-Wedum Co., druggists. adv.

The Obvious Remedy.
"There is only one thing which will effectually break up a deadlock."
"What is that?"
"A key to the situation."—Baltimore American.

Girls, don't listen to flattering beaux, for while as friends they always peaux, you will find in reality they are feaux. They flatter your eyes, mouth and neax, and sing your praise from head to teaux. They take you to balls, parties and sheaux, and are adepts at concealing their weaux—although as fickle as the wind that bleaux.—Indianapolis Star.
