

We have a very artistic calendar which we are giving to our friends this year and you may have one for the asking. They come in two sizes, a small one for the home and a large one for the office.

The picture showing a view of our new banking house as well as one of the old log building which stood for many years on this same corner, makes an interesting contrast, and demonstrates in a concrete way the progress of Glasgow.

If there is any way during the new year in which we can serve you, we trust you will give us the opportunity.

Jas. Deegan of Hinsdale was a Glasgow visitor this week.

Fred Morgan drifted into town with an east wind from Nashua this week.

Mrs. George Rapp and daughter returned this week from a trip to Minneapolis.

John Fryburg returned from Belt this week, where he has been employed mining.

Mrs. Thos. Dunn visited Mrs. Los Blackman at the Home ranch near Pearmond this week.

Mrs. Robt. Perrett, who has been visiting friends in Nashua for a few days, returned home Tuesday.

T. M. Patten returned this week from the Belknap agency, where he has been employed as special mineral surveyor.

W. C. Harris and family left for Hansboro, Mississippi, Monday to join a colony formed on the Edward Bellemy plan.

John M. Lewis left Thursday for St. Paul for a visit with friends and relatives. He will spend Yuletide with the family at home.

Ben Davidson seems to take a little more pride than is generally allowed mortals over the advent of an 8½ pound boy, that arrived Sunday.

Bob Conaster of Pearmond is in Glasgow. He expects to stay until New Years and will partake of turkey every time it is on the board.

O. D. Polley and family left Thursday for Seattle where they will make their future home. Mr. Polley expects to go into the fruit growing business extensively.

S. A. Willis and Richard Gardner will open up the Merchants' hotel in Havre about the first of the year. They have secured a lease of the building and furniture.

From advices from prominent and reliable stockmen in this county, it is learned that the wolf pest is almost as bad as it was two years ago. The condition is about the same in other cow counties.

Chas. Roberts, formerly of Fergus county, has located a ranch on Porcupine creek about six miles above Nashua and is engaged this winter in erecting buildings. He contemplates extensive irrigating.

Milk river has been running about six feet of water during the week. The sudden rise is due to the chinooks that have taken the snow from the mountains and plains. Yesterday the water fell about two feet.

T. W. Enright, who has been spending a few days at his ranch on the Porcupine, returned to town last evening to witness the thrilling escape from the stone quarries in the production of the Gold King.

Plas Price of the Needmore ranch near Hinsdale is in town this week. He states that the Needmore went up in smoke the other night, the fire originating from spontaneous combustion caused from a "greasy twine," tied to his saddle.

Robt. Walsh, the town merchant of Hinsdale, was in town yesterday with a large bunch of coyote hides. Bob is one of the most enterprising men in the county. This winter he is employing large bands of men to fell the forest trees and cut them into cordwood, thus making a profitable investment to a large number of people.

Wm. Beary has moved his tonsorial parlors from the Mabee building to the store recently occupied by Mrs. S. A. Willis. Billy Griffith has opened an extensive fruit, confectionery and cigar depot in the same building and will, no doubt, do an excellent business, being well known and popular and particularly adapted to the business.

The report is current that James Deegan of Hinsdale will accept the office of under-sheriff under Sheriff-elect Kyle. If it be true Mr. Kyle has made a splendid selection and one that will be approved by the people. There are a number of people who do not believe Mr. Deegan will accept the office as he could have had the office of sheriff by permitting the use of his name in the convention that nominated Mr. Kyle.

James Thompson of Pearmond and Miss Jennie Clark of the same place, were united in matrimony Thursday evening at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in this city, the Rev. St. Hill wedding the matrimonial chains. A small coterie of mutual friends witnessed the launching of the young lives in the placid waters of love and confidence. Messrs. Harry Rudder, Robt. Conaster, Walter Dawson and the Misses Clough attended what proved to be a very pretty wedding. The ceremony by the Rev. St. Hill was impressive and the "God bless you, my children" by everyone, fervent. The young couple will make their home in Pearmond. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends who hope their journey adown life's thorny path may be a happy one.
