

ORPHEUM THEATRE

SATURDAY, JANUARY 1
GOLD ROOSTER PLAY
 George Probert and Fania Marinoff in the Celebrated Romance

"NEDRA"

From the Book by George Barr
 McCutcheon.

In Five Big Acts.
 Matinee at 3 p. m.
 Evening 7:30 and 9:00 p. m.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 2
PARAMOUNT PICTURE
The Captivating Star
MARGUERITE CLARK

In the Celebrated Trans-Atlantic
 Comedy Success

"SEVEN SISTERS"
 In Five Parts.
 Matinee at 3 p. m.
 Evening 7:30 and 9:00 p. m.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5
METRO FEATURE
 The Photo Play Adaption of Frank
 L. Packard's Novel Drama

"GREATER LOVE HATH NO MAN."

Starring the Eminent Dramatic Actor
EMMET CORRIGAN
 Two Shows at Night:
 7:30 and 9:00 p. m.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 6
PARAMOUNT PICTURE
INA CLAIRE

In a Picturization of Harold McGrath's Romance

"THE PUPPET CROWN"

With Carlyle Blackwell and an All-
 Star Cast.

Two Shows at Night:
 7:30 and 9:00 p. m.

"Neal of the Navy" every Tuesday

Local Brevities

News in and About Town

Miss Andrea Lanegraff of Saco spent Christmas in the city with friends.

Sam Morrin came down from Saco and spent Christmas in the city with the folks.

Mrs. A. L. Shaw of Saco was visiting friends in the city the fore part of the week.

John Betz of Vandalia was a business visitor in the city the fore part of the week.

F. E. Ruffcorn of Baylor was in the city several days the past week on business.

George Richardson of Saco was in the city the fore part of the week on business.

F. H. Derrig of Glentana was a business visitor in the city the first of the week.

Miss Julia Sweitzer left Saturday night for Minot for a short visit with friends there.

Alsa Sisk returned last week from Minneapolis, where he has been on a business trip.

Reuben Shodall of Wolf Point was in the city the fore part of the week visiting friends.

Blaine Williams of Plentywood was a business visitor in the city the fore part of the week.

Deputy Sheriff Clarence Hall was a business visitor in Havre the fore part of the week.

Chas. Tanner of Hinsdale was in the city the fore part of the week transacting business.

Jim McCoy, stock inspector for this district was at Baylor Tuesday and sold two stray horses.

John Oberg of Havre came down last Thursday and spent Christmas in the city visiting relatives.

Mrs. George Stratton of Saco is spending the week in the city, the guest of Mrs. Maurice Reuler.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter left this week for their home in Scobey, after a visit with relatives here.

Sejt. T. F. King of Saco was in the city Monday evening on matters connecting with the National guard.

Assistant county superintendent of schools, Miss Johannot, was at Vandalia this week visiting relatives.

Attorney and Mrs. D. E. McLaughlin of Froid were in the city the fore part of the week visiting friends.

Charles Hoffman left this week for Missoula, after spending the Christmas season with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Moore and little daughter arrived in the city this week and are visiting at the R. J. Moore home.

The dance given last Friday evening by the Good Fellows turned out to be a complete success. Although the date had been changed a good crowd turned out and to the tuneful strains of Darst's superb orchestra tripped the light fantastic.

Miss Ross Kamla left Monday morning for Scobey for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Peter Gritz.

George W. Gilpin of Cut Bank arrived in the city this week with a truck loading outfit and expects to locate here.

Attorney John Hurly left this week for Forman, North Dakota, and will also visit the Twin Cities before returning home.

Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Hoyt left Tuesday for Boulder Hot Springs, where they will spend the remainder of the holiday season.

Cecil Harrison left Monday morning for Minneapolis and other eastern cities, where he expects to spend a month visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Burke left this week for the west to spend the holiday season. They will visit Great Falls and Spokane.

Fred Arnot of the Glasgow National bank left last week for Park River, North Dakota to spend the holidays with his parents.

The Misses Jane and Margaret Cashman of Havre are spending the holidays in the city, visiting their sister, Mrs. Thos. Dignan.

Miss Ruth Space of Grand Lodge, Michigan, is here to spend the winter with her brother and his wife, at the Space ranch at Whatley.

Glasgow was caught in the grip of the cold wave this morning when the thermometer registered 26 below zero. This is the coldest it has been so far this year.

Everett Roop returned last week from Minot, North Dakota, where he had been in the employ of the city light plant. He is spending the holidays with his parents.

Little John Stafford, son of Mrs. Victoria Stafford, has been very ill this week with pneumonia. His condition is rather precarious, but his recovery is looked for.

Elsworth Space of Whatley has been in the hospital at Minot since December 8, suffering from an accident which has caused the loss of an eye. Mrs. Space returned from Minot Saturday, where she has been since the accident.

One learned physician informs us that zellgewebentzuendung means boils. It will be recalled that Job scraped his zellgewebentzuendung with a potsherd, but advance medical science will keep the kaiser out of any such scrape as that.

Next Friday night, January 7, the Havre basketball team will be here to play the local team. The game will

The work of remodeling the Model bakery began today and the work will be rushed so as to have the restaurant open for business by Monday. A lunch counter is being put in and there will be waiter service at every table.

It will be of interest to every taxpayer to carefully note the annual financial statement of the county for the fiscal year ending November 30. Comparisons with other administrations show the strict adherence to the slogan of "economy," by the present office holders.

The D. M. Ferry company of Detroit paid to the Paradise valley ranchers south of Livingston, more than $50,000 for seed peas this fall, according to a news item in a state paper. Some of the farmers netted as high as $80 an acre. This is the fourth year in which the Paradise valley farmers have supplied about thirty cars of the seed peas to Michigan seed men and the crop proves more satisfactory each year.

According to the annual report of State Dairy Commissioner A. G. Scholes, there are 12,243 dairies in Montana making a total of 15,601 cows. There are 53 creameries and cheese factories operating in the state, an increase of 20 per cent over last year. Mr. Scholes says creamery promoters have given considerable trouble this year in attempting to promote creameries in communities which are not sufficiently developed to support them.

Mr. and Mrs. Markle of Everett, Washington arrived in the city last week for a visit with their son, T. H. Markle and his family. Their coming was entirely unknown to Tom and his surprise was genuine on finding them at home. About 15 years ago the elder Mr. Markle was through this part of the country looking for land, but at that time they thought this country was good for nothing, and he was astonished when taken over the north bench and shown the fine farm houses and fertile fields.

be played in the new gymnasium of the high school and a large attendance is hoped for and expected, as the expense of bringing the Havre team down here is very big. Last year the Havre team won the northern Montana championship and has another strong team this year. Glasgow's decisive defeat of Malta last night shows the caliber of the local boys and they will make Havre, go some. The home team will need the encouragement of loyal local rooters to win. Better go.

Opheim was the scene of a hard-fought battle last night, says the Opheim Optimist. The English army was entrenched on the south side of Main street and was attacked by an invading German army. The English sallied out from their fortifications and finally routed the Kaiser's forces with terrible slaughter. This is the first victory of the British in the war and we expect King George will send over a carload of medals for the victorious Opheim regiment in the near future.

Lewis W. Frazee returned Sunday from his home, Rushville, Indiana, says the Glentana Reporter, where he has spent the past couple of months. They were all glad to see Lewis back, but a number of the locals were disappointed when they learned that he had returned alone, as great supplies of Chink food, old shoes, etc., had been accumulated by his friends to properly introduce the new bride to the north country. No new bride and no alibi with Lewis, so the rice is wasted and they have gone to wearing the ancient shoes again.

Orval E. Mason has rented the log house owned by E. D. Coleman on Second avenue south and Fourth street and fitted it up for his headquarters from which he will operate his insurance business. This log house is intimately connected with the history of Glasgow, having been one of the first buildings erected in the city. Its central location in the business section of Glasgow makes it a very convenient office both for Mr. Mason and his patrons. "The Log House Insurance Agency," is the name Mr. Mason has conferred upon his business and it will, no doubt, prove an attractive caption and serve to remind the public that he is on the job all the time and can readily be located by anyone seeking him.

ODD BITS OF NEWS.

Berwick, Eng.—Lightning struck the wedding ring on the finger of Mrs. Mason of Castlegate, taking a piece out of the ring, but leaving her finger uninjured.

Sheboygan, Wis.—Gertrude Grass' particular claim to beauty was her long, golden tresses. In a dream recently, she awoke from her bed, obtained a pair of scissors and clipped her head as bald as an egg.

Hillsdale, Mich.—At a social in the Adams schoolhouse in Cambria township, the women stuck their toes through holes in a sheet, and men bought them for the evening. The sale netted the school $7.80.

Indiana, Pa.—Someone put a hen in the back of J. H. Stewart's buggy and closed the flap. Twenty-two days later Stewart opened the flap and found the hen reduced to a skeleton, but still living. The hen will recover.

Danville, Ill.—A mad dog rushed into the home of Louis Smith, overturned some of the furniture and knocked the telephone from the table. The receiver fell from the hook, and when the operator heard the dog's howling she called the police, who came and killed the beast.

Columbus, Ohio.—An apple pie which won a prize of a bushel of apples at the O. S. U. apple show, was baked by a five-year-old cooking marvel, Esther Rae Johnson. She was pitted in the contest with 75 housewives and one man. The prize was a special one awarded for the excellent cooking.

Newville, Pa.—Mary Murphy, tearing a mattress apart to throw away, found her mother's will which had been lost and $16,000 in securities hidden in the cotton. The will has been admitted to probate. It leaves the entire estate to the finder of the securities and will.

Elkins, W. Va.—Wild hogs rushed down the mountains and into the home of Sanford Phillips in the foothills, where they attacked Phillips' two-year-old son. The child, frightened, rushed to the corner where a mirror hung. When the hogs saw their reflections in the mirror, they became panic stricken and rushed back to the hills, leaving the child uninjured.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Following is a list of advertised letters remaining in the postoffice at Glasgow, Montana for the week ending December 25, 1915.

Aweae, Eunies.
 Ahiena, Henry.
 Anderson, W. A.
 Celay, Masinnino.
 Dawson, Gilbert.
 Greenman, Lyman C.
 Hawk, Lynn C.
 Jones, M. E. (2)
 Jones M. S.
 LaRoque, Alfred L.
 Logue, Wm. J.
 Norton, Mrs. Wm.
 Newman, Henry.
 Ottosen, Charles.
 Roberts, G. H.
 Riddle, George.

Rogers, E. H.
 Stephens, Eva.
 Schnell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry.
 Smith, Alta.
 White, Mr. and Mrs. R. J.
 Walsh, R. P.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

Subscribe for your oil, stock from Orval E. Mason. 34¢.

Subscribe for your oil stock from Orval E. Mason. 34¢.

Write to Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, for descriptive booklets. 1¢.

Housekeeper Wanted—W. G. Hartland, Glasgow, Montana. 1¢.

$2.25 Aluminum Griddle
For 85 Cents in Cash

Special Offer to Karo Users
 Read the Offer and Write Today So As to Be Sure To Get Your Griddle

BY special arrangement you can get this fine 10 1/2 inch Solid Aluminum griddle for less than the wholesale price.

Go to your grocer, get 50 cents worth of Karo and send us the labels and 85 cents and you'll get the Aluminum Griddle by prepaid parcel post.

You know Aluminum ware—you know how long it lasts, how much easier it is to cook with. It doesn't chip, it doesn't rust and it always looks so bright and clean and inviting.

You don't have to grease this Aluminum Griddle, it does not smoke up the house; it bakes griddle cakes and corn cakes crisp and light—the way you want your griddle cakes to be. And the cakes are far more digestible and better flavored.

At great expense we are seeking to place a Karo Aluminum Griddle in the homes of all Karo users, so that Karo—the famous spread for griddle cakes and waffles—may be served on the most deliciously baked cakes that can be made.

Last year the people of this country used 65,000,000 cans of Karo—the largest demand ever given any syrup.

That shows you what people who know Karo think of it, how much better they like it than any of the old kind of syrups.

Take advantage of this chance to get this solid Aluminum Griddle at a clear saving of $1.40 in cash.

Get the Karo Today—and send us the labels and 85 cents (P. O. money order or stamps) at once. We will also send you free the Corn Products Cook Book.

Corn Products Refining Co.
 P. O. Box 161 New York Dept. PX

The Glasgow Steam Laundry

THE finest equipped laundry in the Northwest. All modern machinery and experienced employees. We are anxious to handle your work, no matter how much or how little. Visit our laundry and be convinced that we have the plant to turn out the work.

HAWLEY & WOODY, Props.
 Glasgow, Montana

Hot and Cold Water in Every Room
 $1.00 a Day Up Most Reasonable Rates by Week or Month

HOTEL OXFORD
 D. P. CONRY, Proprietor

Headquarters for Glasgow People

Phone 6632
 512 1-2 Central Ave. Great Falls, Mont.

Lewis W. Frazee returned Sunday from his home, Rushville, Indiana, says the Glentana Reporter, where he has spent the past couple of months. They were all glad to see Lewis back, but a number of the locals were disappointed when they learned that he had returned alone, as great supplies of Chink food, old shoes, etc., had been accumulated by his friends to properly introduce the new bride to the north country. No new bride and no alibi with Lewis, so the rice is wasted and they have gone to wearing the ancient shoes again.

Orval E. Mason has rented the log house owned by E. D. Coleman on Second avenue south and Fourth street and fitted it up for his headquarters from which he will operate his insurance business. This log house is intimately connected with the history of Glasgow, having been