on Famous American Inventors, and Mrs. Baynham read a well written paper on the Development of American Pottery. The afternoon was a most delightful one to all present.

Altar Society.

Mrs. O. P. Toole entertained the members of the Altar society Thursday afternoon. Auction bridge was played, after which selections were played on the pianola. After a short business session a three-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The next entertainment will be given by Miss Gaynor and Miss Fair, and will consist of a card party at the rectory, Friday evening, March 3.

Wild Rose Club Surprises Mrs. Terry.

The Wild Rose Sewing circle surprised Mrs. C. L. Terry last Friday afternoon. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. Joe Frazer and went in a party to the Terry home. It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Terry, as she was expecting to go to Mrs. C. M. Reece's to attend the circle there, and she was very much pleased to be remembered by the circle in this way. The afternoon was spent with conversation and laughter. A splendid luncheon was served and the members adjourned to meet again in two weeks on March 3, at the home of Mrs. F. W. Jackline.

Miss Schroeder Entertains.

Miss Violet Schroeder was hostess to a party of friends at her home Wednesday evening. Various games afforded amusement to the guests during the evening, and a delightful lunch was served by the hostess. Those present were: Mrs. Grace, the Misses Della Detchman, Lilly Hoey, Helen Baer, Ethel Lezie, Rose Lezie, Leah Longtin and Aggie Illman and Messrs. Lou Bretzke, John Bardell, K. R. Peterson, M. J. Keenan, Oscar Stein, Chet Grace and Ingul Erge.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The services at the Congregational church next Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., with classes for everybody.

Preaching service at 11 a. m.

At the preaching service, it is expected that the Reverend Dr. Pope of Billings will speak. Dr. Pope is one of the most eloquent speakers of the church in the state and all who hear him will enjoy a rare treat.

The special music will consist of a duet, for soprano and baritone, "Come Unto Me, Ye Weary," by Andrews; and the quartet will sing Nevin's "The King in His Beauty."

There will be a union mass-meeting in the afternoon at three o'clock, at Gibson Opera House, where Dr. Pope will again speak.

In the evening, at 7:45, all the city churches will again unite in a mass meeting at the Opera house. The addresses being given by Dr. Pope and others.

BALL GETS OFF EASY.

George Ball, convicted in Canada for the killing of William Long last May, was last week sentenced to serve 22 years, or life imprisonment, as it is at Port Royal. His sentence as first pronounced was that he be hanged, but at the urgent request of the president of the United States, this was changed and he will now serve about 22 years, with time off for good behavior.
