

Repair the Leak

A small leak may sink a ship. A small expense regularly incurred may hinder, if not ruin, your chances for success. You can watch the "leaks" when you pay by check. You will hesitate before you write a check for a needless purpose. Let this bank keep your checking account.

First National Bank
ASHLAND, OREGON.
Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

A. F. and A. M. Ashland Lodge No. 23
Grand Master Bristol and Grand Secretary Robinson will pay an official visit to Ashland Lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., on Friday evening, April 23, 1915. Neighboring lodges have been invited. The Grand Master will preside. No degrees will be conferred. Light refreshments. A full attendance is requested.
W. E. BLAKE, W. M.
W. H. DAY, Secretary. 24-2t

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miles Stewart motored up from Medford Sunday.
Sweet and sour pickles in bulk at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnhouse visited in Medford Thursday.
We fit your feet intelligently, never by guess. Briggs & Shinn.
Dr. Blake motored down the valley with a carload of friends Sunday.
You need-a-suit. I need-a-money. Let's swap. Orres the tailor.
George Gates was up from Medford Sunday with a party of friends.
See our snappy line of men's low shoes. Briggs & Shinn.
Harold Radcliff visited with Verl Barnhouse in this city Saturday.
An unanswerable argument for every infidel, at the Bible study. 1t
Harry Reames of Phoenix was a visitor in the city Sunday afternoon.
Jack Lilly spent the week-end with his family here, coming over from Weed.
Wanted, ten men and boys. Call Vining Theatre Wednesday, April 21, 5 p. m. 1t
M. A. Carter spent Friday and Saturday in Medford visiting with friends.
New and second hand pianos at C. F. Shepherd & Son's piano parlors, 658 Boulevard. 94-2t-Mon.
Ray Satchwell of Medford spent Sunday afternoon visiting friends in this city.
We solicit your shoe business and guarantee to please you. Briggs & Shinn.
T. W. Miles and wife of Medford spent Sunday with relatives in Ashland.
Walton strap sandals, patent, gun-metal and tan, for ladies and children. Ashland Trading Co.
Miss Grace Marlow went to Gold Hill Saturday to visit her uncle, S. B. McFaren.
La Valliere pumps. They are leaders in the dress parade. Briggs & Shinn.
Mrs. H. L. Norwood spent Friday in Medford visiting with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Reeves.
Mrs. J. B. Wilson of Dunsmuir is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Long.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Before Leaving For California

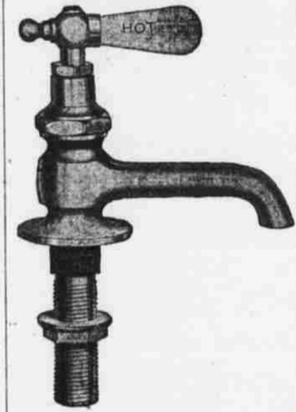

to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition or any other trip you decide to take, secure some of our Travelers' Checks—the safe, convenient medium for getting cash quickly.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Aetna Hubbard left Saturday for Hornbrook, where she will spend several days visiting friends.
Dried peaches, apricots, split plums, pressed figs now at the Ashland Trading Co.
The biggest turnout of the year graced the benches of the city hall for band practice Friday evening.
We fit arch supports scientifically to your individual foot. Briggs & Shinn.
Mrs. A. W. Hansen, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Holly, left Sunday for her home in Seattle.
If you want your piano tuned by a reliable factory tuner, phone 326-J, Ashland, Ore. 94-2t-Mon.
Art Shepherd returned Friday from the McKercher ranch, where he has been "making little sticks out of big ones."
Why wear a ready-made when you can get the same quality tailored to your measure for less at Orres' tailor shop?
U. C. Collins, superintendent of schools at Medford, was up Saturday afternoon visiting with E. R. Lawrence.
Lady Maccabees on Wednesday, May 5. General good time, dancing and refreshments, 25 cents. I. O. O. F. hall. 94-3t
Stuart Saunders left Sunday evening for Chicago. He was called to the Illinois city by the serious illness of his mother.
Undenominational, unsectarian, the meeting at the church, corner B and Second, is for Bible study alone. Come, Wednesday evening, 7:30. 1t
The old barn on the city's property opposite the high school has been torn down, thus removing an eyesore from the district.
Spirilla corsets give comfort and satisfaction. Try one. Call at 108 Fifth avenue, or phone Mrs. H. O. Butterfield. 93-tf
Gilbert Stewart of Medford, who has been spending the past week on his father's ranch above Ashland, was in town Friday.
Everybody is invited to the Bible study held at the church, corner B and Second, Wednesday, April 21, 7:30. Don't forget to come. 1t
L. L. Mult, bank examiner for this district, passed through Sunday evening bound from San Francisco points to his home in Portland.
We specialize on commencement gifts. Many articles suitable for the purpose, lasting as well as beautiful. O. H. Johnson, jeweler.
J. L. Coyle, district foreman for the Postal Telegraph Company, left Saturday on an inspection trip of the lines between here and Seattle.
White canvas Emmy Low and Cinderella pumps with leather ventilated insoles. Briggs & Shinn.
Mrs. Sarah E. Cox returned Sunday evening from Portland, where she attended the state convention of Maccabees as a delegate from Ashland.
All musical artists concede that there is no finer grand piano made than the Knabe. See C. F. Shepherd & Son for grand pianos. 94-2t-Mon.
Miss Elizabeth Wagner returned to her school at Myrtle Creek Sunday after a several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner.
Call at 658 Boulevard and examine C. F. Shepherd & Son's fine stock of new pianos and player pianos now on exhibition for spring trade. 94-2t-Mon.
Fred Tostevin, who has been spending the spring vacation with Fred Schuerman, returned to his studies at the University of Oregon at Eugene Friday.
Tom Fuson spent Sunday afternoon in the city. He has been on the Stewart ranch above town for the past few days recuperating from a slight attack of typhoid fever.
The parcel post is used in a variety of ways, but the express company may also claim distinction along these lines. Two calves were expressed from Ashland to Gold Hill Saturday.
A. C. Koller has completed the foundation for the new bungalow which he is building on the corner of Allison and Sherman streets, and now has a force of carpenters at work on the framework.
Mrs. E. J. McCollum while en route to her home in Minnesota from Phoenix, Ariz., where she spent the winter, stopped off Saturday for a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Roland, of this city.
Crowds of people thronged the park on Sunday afternoon. A number of auto parties from down the valley were up. The Ashland park promises to be the big drawing card for Sunday crowds when the weather gets still warmer.
Grant Coleman, cigarmaker at Grieve's cigar factory, is the proud father of a ten-pound boy which arrived at the Coleman home in Medford last Thursday. In all probability Mr. Coleman will move his family to Ashland in the near future.

Bath Room Fixtures

Four Big Special Days in Plumbing Materials Including

Everything for the Bath Room, Brass Fittings, Pipe and Pipe Fittings—in fact every item needed in any kind of Plumbing or Plumbing Repairs.

Wed., April 21
Thurs., April 22
Friday, April 23
Sat., April 24.

This is the opportunity to arrange for plumbing, either new or repairing.

We will also continue our specials on Lawn Mowers and Garden Hose the same four days.

Special checks on the Grafonola during the four day's special sales.

1,000 Votes, each 10c purchase
5,000 Votes, each 50c purchase
10,000 Votes, each $1 purchase
50,000 Votes, each $5 purchase

Warner
The Low Priced Hardware Man
Phone 146 375 E. Main

Howard Jeters visited Medford Sunday afternoon.
Try the Park Hotel for home-cooked meals. 86-tf
O. H. Johnson motored to Medford with his family Sunday.
Try the Park Hotel for Sunday's chicken dinner. 86-tf
Miss Ruth Scott visited friends in Medford Thursday afternoon.
Homes just like paying rent. See Beaver Realty Company. 93-tf
Mrs. W. E. Dean of Grants Pass is visiting her sister in this city.
The East Side meat market has installed a new refrigerating plant.
Wanted, ten women. Call Vining Theatre Wednesday, April 21, at 5 p. m. 1t
Dan Applegate, Wells-Fargo agent, has been on the sick list several days past.
Look over our display of gifts for commencement. Johnson's jewelry store.
Harry Hosler spent several hours visiting in Medford last Thursday evening.
Why pay rent? Better own your own home. See Beaver Realty Company for facts and figures. 93-tf
Miss Martha Rease spent part of last week in Medford visiting with friends.
Mrs. W. M. Blowers of Grants Pass visited with friends in this city the last of the week.
For homes, low prices and easy terms, see Beaver Realty Company. 93-tf
Henry Winings returned the last of the week from a business trip to Klamath Falls.
Royal Society crochet cotton 10c per ball, all sizes, in white and ecru. Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.
Miss Mattie McGee returned to her Grants Pass home Friday morning after a business visit to this city.
Let us fit you with a pair of Scholl's Foot Easers for your tired, aching feet. Briggs & Shinn.
Miss Blanche Seaman of Rogue River spent last week visiting with her sister, Miss Bessie Seaman, in this city.
Orres cleans clothes cleaner than any cleaner that cleans clothes clean. Phone 64. We call for and deliver.
Mrs. W. E. Dean of Grants Pass arrived Wednesday for a visit with numerous relatives in town and country among the Neil, Murphy and Tozer families.
C. C. Moore, teacher of science and athletic coach during the past two years at Medford high school, has been selected principal of that institution.
Do you know all you care to of the Bible? Come teach others. Do you want to know more? Come and learn. Corner B and Second, Wednesday evening, 7:30. 1t
E. M. Coldren, editor of the Oberlin (Kan.) Herald and an old friend of P. L. Ashcraft, is in Ashland for a few days looking over our scenery and visiting with his old friends.
Have you seen the new Mary Pickford low heel pumps. They're classy. Briggs & Shinn.
Winifred Phillips, while working at the power saw in the manual training department at the high school, slipped and fell against the machine. His hand came into contact with the saw and his little finger was severed.
Look over our bargain counter. Shoes for your big boy and girl. Briggs & Shinn.
The insurance companies have adjusted the loss suffered by the Weed Lumber Company in the fire of March 10, when yard No. 3 was destroyed, at $129,000. The actual loss was much greater than the insurance loss.
Mrs. Sue Day has been a visitor this week with the Anderson and Wheelless families at Hornbrook, previous to their departure for Virginia, where the former will visit for a time with her daughter, Mrs. Wheelless, in the vicinity of Richmond.
Mrs. J. W. Aldrich of Oakland, Cal., field secretary of missionary work in Pacific coast and intermountain states under Presbyterian auspices, was in Ashland Thursday, investigating the status of the church movement in this locality, on her way to Grants Pass.
"When other lips and other tongues their tales of love shall tell," then will follow revelations in light opera incident to the staging of the "Bohemian Girl," by local high school talent, scheduled for April 29. This promises to be the leading amateur musical entertainment of the school year drawing to a close.
A new hotel will be built at McCloud at once to replace the one burned last month and preparations for breaking ground and cleaning away the debris of the former structure are now under way. The new building will be 75 feet wide and 225 feet long, and will contain 70 rooms.

Suits Now $12.50 to $19.50

Coats Now $6.75 to $14.75

—and when we offer our best suits at $19.50 you are assured of getting most style, quality, workmanship, service.

Why You Should Buy Your Parasol Here

—Because we are showing more new shapes.
—Because most of our better ones are made with folding handles.
—Because of season's guarantee on covers.
New shapes shown are New Port, Palm Beach, bell shape.

Kayser Underwear

—The name Kayser is too well known to need introduction and the placing of this line of light and medium weight garments in this store is another evidence of our desire to give the best values for your money. Vests 25c to 50c. Union Suits 50c to $1.50

32-inch Imported Pongee at 60c yard.

—A value we considered so good that we bought a quantity of it and can offer you an imported pongee at the price of a domestic.

Discontinuing Premiums May 22

—We will give no premium coupons of any kind after this date when new law becomes effective. All outstanding coupons must be redeemed by that time

The regular spring campaign of trail building by the forestry department will begin in the next ten days. The first work is being done on the Cook and Green Klamath river trail, and when this is completed they will patch various trails in southern Oregon.
Hats cleaned and blocked at Orres'.
A central location, a reasonable hour, an important service. Where? When? What? Bible study. Corner B and Second, Wednesday evening, 7:30 to 8:30—just one hour. Bring your notebook. 1t
The Curtis ripe olives, large, rich fruit, 25c, 30c and 35c can. Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

VINING THEATRE

ONE NIGHT ONLY Tuesday, April 22nd
JOHN EMERSON In that Big Theatrical Success
"The Conspiracy"

A Detective Comedy Drama
Presented with the Original Star that was a Broadway Dramatic Triumph.
Children 10c, Adults 15c