

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Grant Coleman was a Medford visitor last Wednesday evening.

Real Mexican chili in the Dutch dish at Rose Bros. 53-3t

E. V. Carter was a business visitor to Medford Saturday.

Telephone 420-J for dry tier wood, $2. 49-tf

Shirley Keene, dancing. Memorial hall. Phone 702-R. 43-tf

Pierre Provost has built several additions to his Oak street residence.

Mrs. W. E. Newcombe was returned from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Another shipment of dishes at the 5, 10 and 15 Cent Store. 53-3t

Councilman Cornelius has built a screen porch addition to his Oak street residence.

Save five dollars on your new suit. See Paulserud & Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner returned from a visit at the exposition Friday evening.

City Attorney W. J. Moore left for San Francisco Friday evening and will return December 6.

If you know the way to Rose Bros., you know your way to the best chicken tamales in town. 53-3t

Harry Hayes and wife of the Table Rock district spent most of last week with friends in the city.

Don't forget the parcel post show-er. 1t

Mr. and Mrs. George Tyson of 260 Hargadine returned Friday from a week's stay at the exposition.

Telephone 420-J for dry tier wood, $2. 45-tf

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson are among those who are making a last-minute visit to the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Casebeer left the last of the week for southern California, where they will spend the winter.

Ladies, why shine your own shoes when you can get them shined at the Hotel Oregon? 1t

Miss Bertha Eliason, who is teaching school at Gold Hill, spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Ashland.

Miss May Conner journeyed to Table Rock last Thursday, where she is visiting her friend, Miss Angeline Cameron.

Willard Scott of Oregon City has returned to his northern Oregon home after a visit with friends in this city and Medford.

D. M. Horn of Hornbrook was among the northern Californians who attended the Thanksgiving ball at the Elks Temple.

Chili for that chilly feeling at Rose Bros. 53-3t

Mrs. J. E. Barrett was over from Hill, where she is teaching school, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with her family in Ashland.

Mrs. Cora Bacon and baby of this city spent the Thanksgiving week with friends and former neighbors in the Williams creek section.

Mrs. J. C. Devine of Lebanon returned home on Sunday after a month's visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan.

Paul Winter motored down the valley Saturday, taking with him his cousins, Miss Boyd and Leonard Boyd, who were Thanksgiving week visitors in Ashland.

If you are thinking of buying a suit stop in and see us. We have a few offerings in short lines which we can offer at astonishingly low prices. Paulserud & Barrett.

Judge C. B. Watson was a Medford visitor Friday.

Get your watch repairing done at Johnson's Jewelry Store. 97-tf

Miss Cecil Creed of Central Point, who is teaching school near Ashland, spent the week-end with her parents.

Despite the rather threatening aspect of the weather, a good many Ashlanders strolled up through the new Lithia park Sunday.

Mexican chili, hot tamales, oyster cocktails, cold weather specials, at Rose Bros. 53-3t

Miss Minnie Poley, who is teaching in the Gold Hill schools, was a Thanksgiving week visitor at her home in Ashland.

Five years of victory makes Thursday's defeat seem unreal. Basketball is next in line, and the locals intend to retrieve lost honors.

The Bullis people who are building an electric line from Medford to Jacksonville hope to have the line in operation by the first of the year.

Eat your Mexican chili in the Dutch dish at Rose Bros. 53-3t

"The Eternal City," the great eight-reel film production shown at the Vining last week, was a marvel of scenic beauty, construction, plot and acting.

The big gray interurban cars have been put upon a winter schedule which leaves out the late trip on week days. The new schedule is printed herein.

Fifty automobile loads of football fans from Medford attended the Thanksgiving day game and made merry in the downtown district after the Medford victory.

Our leading wholesale house is closing out several short lines in popular fabrics at big reductions, and we can offer you prices on these suits which are worth investigating. Paulserud & Barrett.

Mary Pickford at the Vining treat- Friday evening drew the biggest crowd of Thanksgiving week. The picture, "Rags," was said to be the best Pickford picture yet shown in Ashland.

Mrs. W. T. Grievie and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, Guy Harper and C. W. Wilson were among the Jacksonville football enthusiasts who motored up for the Medford-Ashland game Thanksgiving day.

Gus Ramsey of Red Bluff, Cal., has been visiting in Ashland and other valley points during the past week, and expresses himself as being well pleased with the outlook for better times in the immediate future in the valley.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Civic Club will have a parcel post bazaar at Provost Brothers' store on Thursday, December 2, afternoon and evening. All ladies must have their packages in by 2 o'clock December 2. 1t

Everett May of O. A. C., who refereed the football game Thursday, left on the evening train for Corvallis, where he will aid in putting the O. A. C. team in condition for their game with Syracuse, N. Y., University, which occurs in Portland on December 1.

Our best paying ads are satisfied customers. That's why we continue to sell so much Globe underwear mackinaws, shirts, suits and shoes. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Beswick and daughters, Miss Sarah and Mrs. Lottie Pope, left Saturday evening for San Francisco, where they will visit the exposition, after which they will continue their journey to southern California, where they will make a visit of indefinite length.

Gates King, fourteen-year-old high school boy who suffered serious burns around his eyes when melted lead splashed in his face while he was moulding bullets, will escape with eyesight unimpaired. He will be forced to wear dark glasses for some time. The bandage was taken from his eyes Saturday.

Gloves, dressed or undressed, kid and mocha, silk lined, which makes them warmer and better, at $1.75. Mitchell & Whittle.

One of the big $120 pneumatic tires on the big gray interurban car blew out in front of McNair's East Side pharmacy Thursday evening, making a report which rattled all of the plate glass windows on Main street and could be heard all over the city. The blowout made a hole as big as a dinner plate in the tire.

Three-dollar Conqueror hats usually conquer your mind and conscience as to their superior qualities, and we guarantee satisfaction. Mitchell & Whittle.

J. W. Finnell has returned from a nine months' stay in southern Ohio. He brought back with him his cousin, Mrs. Jennie McCoy, who will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Finnell. Mr. Finnell says that the people out here do not know what hard times are and that in some sections in the east not affected by the war orders or the big crops, the coming winter will be hard felt.

V. L. Potter spent Saturday in Medford attending to business matters.

To remind you of the Memorial hall dance Thursday evening. Fifty cents. 1t

Probation Officer C. R. Gay of Medford was in Ashland Friday for a brief official visit.

A. T. Warner was under the weather last week with the gripe, but is now feeling "better than ever."

Shirley Keene announces a Thursday evening informal dance at Memorial hall Thursday, December 2. Fifty cents. 1t

Mrs. P. L. Ashcraft was overcome by an attack of dizziness on the street Sunday morning while on the way to church and was taken to her Woolen street home. Her many friends will be glad to hear that she is much better today.

The Crown overalls at $1 are a good heavy, indigo blue denim which are cut full and roomy, and for sale by Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wimer and daughter Laura returned last evening from San Francisco and the exposition.

Coyotes and cougars are reported to be numerous in the Antelope district and are causing some damage to stock.

If you need an extra pair of good blue serge trousers, we have a splendid one at $4, and have all sizes. Mitchell & Whittle.

The Rogue river rose over two feet last week and is muddy. Fishermen will remain at home until the water clears.

The famous "Silver" shirts fit your purse as well as your body. We have many new and pretty patterns at $1 and $1.25. See window. Mitchell & Whittle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson and Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Smith of Jacksonville autoed to Ashland to attend the football game Thursday.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who will speak tonight at the Elks Temple, arrived on the noon train and are stopping at the Hotel Oregon. Mayor Johnson and President V. O. N. Smith of the Commercial Club met them at the station.

G. S. Butler, E. D. Briggs and G. W. Trefren motored to Jacksonville Saturday morning and attended to legal business. Mr. Butler stated that although Ashland experienced a clear, sunny day, a cold fog made being out of doors very unpleasant in the lower valley.

Chester Stevenson is moving into his Wimer street residence today. This home has been undergoing repairs following a fire which did considerable damage. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson have been living in the Owens residence during the period of rehabilitation.

The rainfall on last Wednesday and Thursday was the heaviest in a comparatively few hours which the valley has experienced in the past few years. Rain fell steadily from about 2 o'clock Thursday morning until shortly after noon. Fall plowing is now in order.

With us it is easy to fit you in a suit of clothes and at the same time satisfy the fancies of your wife, mother or sister. Come try us. Mitchell & Whittle.

W. W. Usher, local manager of the Pacific T. and T. Company, returned this Monday morning from Portland, where he attended a meeting of the telephone managers from all over the state. The main problem discussed was the increasing of the revenue from long distance tolls.

Manager Dobbins of the Hotel Oregon tells us in confidence that he has evolved a lithia cocktail the ingredients of which are a deep, dark but not dangerous secret, and which will be offered to the public in the Hotel Oregon grill after the first of the year. The new concoction will be brought to the especial attention of visiting Medfordites.

The first signs of Christmas appeared at the postoffice Saturday with the posting of notices by the postal department urging that all holiday packages be carefully wrapped and addressed, and securely tied. The first Christmas packages are now being received and sent out. Many who have friends and relatives in the war zone will send gifts across the waters, and they will constitute the first of the rush.

The University of Oregon defeated Multnomah Club of Portland 15-2 on Thanksgiving day and cemented their claim to the championship of Oregon. Syracuse University is sending a team out to the coast which is rated as one of the best in the east and which will meet O. A. C. in Portland December 1. The easterners played a tie game with the University of Montana last Thursday. The poor showing made by the easterners is probably due in part to the altitude at Missoula, Mont., where the game was played.

Extra Special Suit Sale

For This Week

One lot new fall suits, values up to $17.50

$9.00

One lot new fall suits, value to $25.00

$12.50

One lot new fall suits, values to $30.00

$17.50

The Stock Reducing Sale

Continues as advertised, all this month and on many lines will continue until closed out.

All piece goods that have not been reduced before will bear a 10 per cent discount for the balance of this month.

Take advantage of this sale

Eskay Gloves $1.50

Derby Semi-Dress Gloves $1.75

Redfern, the new washable kid gloves, $1.00

Kayser Gloves

Chamoisette and Leatherette 50c, 60c, $1.00

Gossard Corsets Front Lace $2.00 up.

American Lady Corsets, front or back lace $1.00 up.

Lackawana Twins the new wool union suit for children and a good one, too, $1.00.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

Invited And Welcome

Your account subject to check is invited by The Citizens Bank of Ashland, who will be glad to welcome you as a depositor and extend to you every courtesy and privilege within the sphere of safe, conservative banking.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Miss Helen Scott returned from a visit with relatives at Dallas Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. Edward Thornton and two little sons, Carvil and Merrick, are visiting Mrs. Thornton's sister, Mrs. Volney Winchell, in Eugene, and will remain in that city until after the Christmas holidays.

Bargain prices on Tidings and Weekly Oregonian for $2.50 close on November 30. You must have your subscription in by next Tuesday evening to get advantage of the low price.

Bob Garrett, who was taken with a stroke of apoplexy in Sayles' billiard hall last Wednesday and whose recovery was doubtful, is out on the street apparently none the worse for the stroke.

The beet sugar committee at Medford are making a terrific effort to secure the final 500 acres needed for beet raising to secure the factory. The campaign closes December 1. Shasta Valley newspapers are hinting at a possibility of the factory being secured for northern California, should the Rogue River valley fall down on the campaign.

H. G. Gilmore and wife left last week for an extended trip through California. They expect to be gone until after the Christmas holidays and will visit San Francisco and Los Angeles. Mr. Gilmore has recovered from the effects of a recent fall over an electric wire pole which lay across the sidewalk. A damage settlement was effected by the light company without recourse to legal aid.

Siskiyou News: Sam Bell, one of the old-timers of Siskiyou and who has spent a great part of his life in the interior of the county, went to Montague last Friday and took his first ride on a railroad train since 1857. He got on a Southern Pacific train and went up to Hornbrook. He rode in the Pullman and took dinner in the diner, and in fact had a fine time.

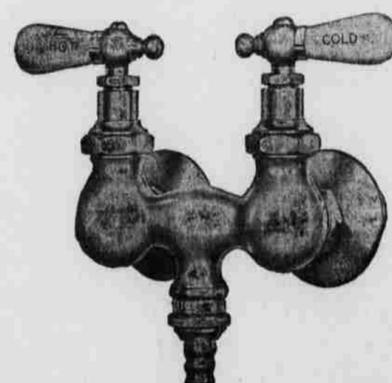

Fulton Smith of Talent was bound over to the grand jury under heavy bonds in the circuit court at Medford Saturday under the charge of failing to provide for a six-months-old baby of which Smith is claimed to be the father by Miss Viola Jones, the mother. The case is creating no little amount of talk in the Talent district, where both young people are well known.

Medford Tribune: Les W. Murphy, one of the former owners of the Nettle orchard tract near Talent, is a visitor in Medford and Ashland for two or three weeks. He will have his Thanksgiving dinner in this city with friends. Mr. Murphy is now in business in Kansas City, Mo., but has begun to yearn for a home again in the Rogue River valley. There are two reasons, one being it is the most charming place to live on the Pacific coast, and the other—will be given later.

$2,000.00

WORTH OF PLUMBING GOODS

To Close Out in 30 Days

We will make the prices so low that everyone can put his plumbing in good shape at this time. We will figure on new work, as long as we have any supplies.

WARNER

The Low Priced Hardware Man

PHONE 146
375 EAST MAIN