THE ONE-ATTEMPT MAN OR WOMAN

who, for example, publishes a Want ad once, and if it does not bring the result desired decides that "advertising does not pay," should study the practical results, in all lines of endeavor, of perseverance. The law of "try again" is as potent in want advertising as in any other effort or enterprise.

Wake Up and Paint Up

Don't overlook the fact that it is as important to paint up as it is to clean up while the renovating war is on hereabouts.
 Paint is not only a cleanser and a beautifier, but it is a disinfectant as well. Also it preserves the life of buildings, fences, wagons, etc. Many a barn is leaky because Farmer John would not spend a few dollars and a few hours on the simple job of giving it the needed coats of paint from year to year.
 Many a community has attracted new residents, new business and new reputation by having a bright, prosperous appearance. Well painted buildings and fences, cleanly kept streets and sidewalks and neatly trimmed grass plots do more to give the impression of prosperity than any other things we can suggest.
GET A MOVE ON, FOLKS.
 And where you consider the use of paint to be a useless expenditure use whitewash. It is cheap and clean and not unpleasing to the eye. Cleanliness never is annoying.
