Mrs. Will Bartlett arrived in Ashland Tuesday evening from Michigan and will visit for some time among her friends here, as she was a former well known resident of this city. Her daughter Bernice, who has been spending the summer here, will return to her home with her mother.

Miss Florence Pool, county home demonstration agent, who has been devoting considerable time lately to teaching how to make dress forms of plaster paris at neighborhood gatherings, held such a meeting at the home of Mrs. Lennox in the Valley View district Wednesday afternoon.

A fine girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jacobs of Talent, August 23. The little lady tipped the beam at 7½ pounds and is lively as a cricket. Her name is Alice Caroline and her parents are about the happiest people to found in this "neck of the woods" just now. Mrs. Hattie Lynch of Ashland is special nurse, and as usual when she is on the job everything is going smoothly.

Librarian Accepts State Position

Miss Maude F. Barnes, who has been the librarian in the Grants Pass public library since its establishment in 1914, has accepted a position in the Oregon state library at an increase in salary and will go to Salem as soon as her place here can be filled. Miss Barnes will be missed by a host of friends and by the patrons of the library. She has worked untiringly to build up the library here and to interest the people of Grants Pass and of the county in the use of books and magazines. —Grants Pass Courier.

Miss Barnes is a former Ashland girl who went from here to Grants Pass a few years ago.

Gets Good Ideas From Auto-Camp

B. J. Grant of Manteca, Calif., while looking after property interests in Southern Oregon, is making his headquarters in the auto-camp. During his stay here he is making a careful study of the auto-camp, which bears the reputation of being the best, and will take home some interesting ideas for a camp at Manteca.
