favor than that going by the way of the Suez. I noticed that when I was in the tea trade. The boats going by the way of the canal have to cross the equator, and this robs it of some of its flavor. On the Pacific the tea is kept in a mild climate all the way across and over the continent.

"For the new crop tea, time is all important. It is desired to get the tea into the market at the earliest possible time, and this can best be done by the Pacific route.

"For the reason that New York is no longer the important tea importing center, I don't believe the secretary of the treasury will listen to an appeal from that quarter to have tea inspection on the coast and at St. Paul and Chicago discontinued."

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon, September 3, 1899.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by W. G. Howell, contestant, against homestead entry No. 11811, made October 29, 1895, for the NE 1/4 section 5, township 5, N. range 10 W. by Ole Peter S. Axial, contestee, in which it is alleged that "said Ole Peter S. Axial has wholly abandoned said tract, that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than one year since making said entry, that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged." Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m., on October 23, 1899, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Oregon City, Oregon.

The said contestee having, in a proper affidavit, filed September 1, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
