There will be nothing lacking in the way of argumentation and allegation on the side of the assailants of trusts when the question of their regulation comes up for consideration in congress. In fact, that side of the question has been so extensively covered from all the various points of view that are discernible by the antagonists of combination that there is nothing new to be said.

The Pacific states are alive to their own greatness, but hardly to the possibilities of their future. Their eyes are turned eastward, whence the impulse of their growth has come...

AMAZING LONGEVITY.

Instances of amazing longevity are by no means uncommon in Russia, but the case of the brothers Kovalenko, aged respectively 112, 118, and 126 years, is certainly very remarkable even for that country.
