

Week In Society

There is already some talk of affairs to be given after Lent.

Members of the Library Association report progress in the entertainment to be given by them April 5 for the benefit of the library. It was originally intended to give this entertainment April 4 but the date has been changed to the 5th. The entertainment will consist of a drama entitled "The Spinner's Return from Oklahoma," which is a sequel to a drama given by the association nearly two years ago entitled "The Spinners' Fortnight Club." It will be remembered that this was a great success and the members say that the sequel will be just as good, if not more interesting.

The entertainment is bound to be a social and financial success, as the ladies of the committee are enlisting the services of some of the best-known of our young maids and matrons, and the cause is a good one.

Another affair on taps, and which will probably materialize, is a dance under the auspices of the Assembly Club on the second Friday after lent.

It is quiet evident that the Lenten spirit prevails in Astoria for social events there are but few to record for the week just closed. Of course, this does not mean that there are no opportunities for enjoying a few hours during the week in a quiet way. On Monday evenings there is always a throng of fair bowlers at the Irving Club alleys, and on Thursday nights the Commercial Club alleys are open to the ladies. On Wednesday and Saturday nights the Ralston Physical Culture Club meets, and the classes are extremely popular.

The only general gathering of the week was the dance given by the Cottillion Club, in Hanthorn's hall, on Friday night. The attendance was not as large as at former parties given by this club, but the affair was highly enjoyable, and there is no doubt that if more dances are given later on, they will prove fully as popular as the ante-lenten series.

A birthday party was given Mrs. A. Scherneckau at her residence yesterday afternoon, it being her 52nd birthday. There were present about 30 of her friends and the event was celebrated in a happy manner. Besides a general social occasion, lunch and refreshments were served. The party did not break up until late in the evening. A large number of valuable and appropriate presents were received by Mrs. Scherneckau, too numerous to mention, as Mr. Scherneckau put it last evening.

Tomorrow night at the Methodist parsonage, a St. Patrick's day social will be given by the young men of the church. An entertaining program, in which some of the best local talent will participate, has been prepared, and there is assurance of a good time for all who attend.

Mr. Harry T. Findlay left yesterday morning for Portland, where he will hereafter reside, having accepted a position with the Standard Oil Company. During the many years of his residence in Astoria Mr. Findlay made a great number of friends, all of whom will regret his departure.

On Wednesday evening Miss Tallant will entertain the members of the Wednesday Night Chaffing Dish Club at her residence.

Dr. Finch entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening. His guests being J. R. A. Bennett, C. A. M. Heilborn, L. I. Herz and D. A. McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Thing entertained the members of the Senior Chaffing Dish Club at the Stevens on Friday evening.

James D. Taylor spent several days in Portland last week, visiting with Frank Sanborn, who is attending college there.

Society ladies are taking up with bowling and billiards. Of late there has been a revival of interest in the latter game.

Mrs. E. W. Tallent entertained several of her friends last Thursday afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. B. Belcher and daughter, Miss Maud, have left Astoria and become residents of Portland.

Captain Cloke and Lieutenant Weeks were visitors in the city from Fort Stevens yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Finch spent several days in Portland during the week.

BOWLING NOTES.

The Commercial Club and Irving Club teams will meet Wednesday night at the Irving alleys. It is expected the scoring will be much better than that which has heretofore characterized the work of the players. The detailed summaries show that all the bowlers are improving in percentage.

"Hooley" Allen, Commercial's famous southpaw, has been heartily congratulated on his excellent showing in the last tournament, when he secured a total of 173. "Hooley" will soon request that he be placed in the stretch class.

The women are manifesting great interest in bowling, and ladies' day at both the clubs brings out the fair sex. The women make much more rapid progress at the game than the men, and ere long the local clubs will have ladies' teams that will be able to cope successfully with outside teams.

There is talk of a match between the Multnomah Club and Commercial Club teams. It is probable the games will occur within the next six weeks.

The Commercial Club will shortly make extensive improvements to its alleys, which are just a trifle slow at present.

A new single game record was established at the Commercial Club last night, when P. B. Sovey scored 77. The score was: Seven strikes, two pins and a spare, a strike, a spare and three pins. The largest scores ever made in the city were 82, by "Fireworks" Richards, of Portland, Y. M. C. A., and 78, by Thomas Milburn, of the Oregon Road Club.
