REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Holds Harmonious Session and Nominates Full County Ticket.

ADOPT STRONG PLATFORM

Fulton for Senator, Scherneckau and Carnahan for Legislature and W. L. Robb Custom Collector.

THE TICKET

W. L. Robb, Collector of Customs.
C. W. Fulton, Senator.
C. W. Carnahan and A. Scherneckau, Representatives.
J. H. D. Gray, Judge.
C. C. Clarke, Commissioner.
Thomas Linville, Sheriff.
J. C. Clinton, Clerk.
Chas. Heilborn, Treasurer.
T. S. Cornelius, Assessor.
R. C. F. Astbury, Surveyor.
W. C. A. Pohl, Coroner.

The Republican County Convention was called to order at Fishers' opera house at 10:30 a. m. yesterday by F. J. Carney, chairman of the county central committee. The various precincts of the county were represented, and the delegates, together with others who came to look on, filled the hall. After the reading of the call by Secretary Gray, R. A. Abbot was elected temporary chairman of the convention and L. E. Selig secretary. A committee on credentials was then appointed, consisting of C. C. Clarke, Dr. Jay Tuttle, Robert Falconer, D. K. Warren and W. H. Twilight, after which a recess of 15 minutes was taken.

Upon reassembling and hearing the report of the committee on credentials a committee consisting of the following named gentlemen were appointed on order of business: C. C. Clarke, W. T. Schofield, John Lewis, J. A. Eakin and A. C. Callan.

Committees were also appointed on platform and to select delegates to the state and congressional conventions. Following constituted committee on platform: Harrison Allen, W. H. Barker, C. B. Loughery, Robert McMath and Herman Ahlers.

Following committee was named to select delegates to the state and congressional conventions: J. W. Suprenant, G. C. Fulton, F. J. Carney, I. N. Foster and Robert Falconer.

After the appointment of these committees the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock p. m.

Upon calling the convention to order at the afternoon session C. F. Lester withdrew from the legislative fight and this left A. Scherneckau a clear field.

The committee on order of business then reported as follows:

First, that state delegates be chosen. Second, the reports of the various committees be heard, and that candidates for office be named in the following order: State senator, representatives, judge, commissioners, clerk, sheriff, treasurer, assessor, surveyor, coroner and precinct officers, including justices of the peace and constables. The report also recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent.

The report of the committee was amended by adding the clause that the convention endorse some candidate for collector of customs prior to the nomination of a candidate for senator.

Following delegates were selected to attend the state and congressional conventions: C. W. Loughery, W. H. Barker, A. C. Callan, W. T. Chutter, John Lewis, Frank Patton, Robert Sultor, W. F. McGregor and Harrison Allen.

The committee on platform then made its report which was unanimously adopted. An amendment was offered opposing the nomination of candidates for a third term of office. This was defeated by an overwhelming ma-

Majority after considerable debate. There were several nominations made of persons to be endorsed for the collectorship of customs, but Mr. W. L. Robb received the largest vote and was therefore endorsed by the convention.

Hon. C. W. Fulton was then nominated for the state senate by acclamation.

The following ticket was nominated in regular order:
