The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia River.

S. C. TURNER, Business Manager.

The Oregonian of yesterday depreciates the President's advice to "play hard." It suggests that all have not that kind of temperament and suggests "communion with friendly voices when the lights are low."

gorgeously bejeweled attire and cut a spurge. In a Boston court the other day a man was fined $10 for kicking his horse and the next day in the same court a man was fined $5 for kicking his wife.

Labor day was celebrated in Canada as rigidly if not more so than in the United States. No papers appeared on the Tuesday following, so that newspaper men might have an opportunity of joining the festivities.

In the absence of a recognized Democratic leader there may be many dark horses. If any one such should have silver feet it is pretty safe to back old "Republican Teddy" up.

When President Roosevelt coined the catchword "strenuous life" he did not count on the infernal strenuousness of an electric street car.

OTHER CITIES.

There is a St. Louis justice who holds that it is a woman's privilege to kiss a man when she wants to, and that the man must stand and take it whether he reciprocates or not. He fined a fellow the other day who dodged when a woman tried to kiss him.

Mrs. Waggoner put in a claim for the reward for Outlaw Merrill's body and it has been decided that she is not entitled to it. If she will ask the state to reimburse her for the expense to which he was put in returning the body, and for reasonable compensation for the service she rendered, her claim will be allowed without question.

The Everett avenue bridge has been condemned and the council will build a $50,000 new one. If the same degree of carelessness in inspection prevails during its construction as prevailed during the planking of Wetmore avenue, the city will get a $20,000 structure for its money and the privilege of erecting another one in five years.

In all towns of small size the newspaper buyer is a very peculiar creature. He wants at least an eight page paper. Out of the small number of people whose names are worth mentioning the editor must find something to say about them all.

Mr. Mitchell, the strike leader, says that his followers do not object to non-union laborers. This is a new one on everybody.

THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD FOR YOU.

We can furnish you with the best for no more than you might pay for the worst, therefore, don't throw away good money for poor service, but if you are going East, or have friends coming West, let us tell you what we can offer on Chicago, Washington, New York, Boston, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans and all intermediate points.

Port Elizabeth, where the "Inchcape Rock" was wrecked this week, is on Algona bay. This bay is situated in the southeast corner of the African continent and is in Cape Colony.

The announcement made by the county commissioners which is printed in another column calls directly for public interest. This city most assuredly needs a better court house, and if we keep plugging after it success will follow the effort.

The Shah of Persia, while visiting England, didn't like the looks of the British channel when he saw it. It was the most water he ever saw in a bunch. He didn't feel right until he got across it and struck hard ground, then he arrayed himself in

The Weak Spot.

If you are sitting in a restaurant where waitresses are in attendance, you will not now and again some young woman put her hand to her back, and straighten herself up, while her lips are tightened as if by pain. It's backache. Yet all day long she must be on her feet, lifting, carrying, hurrying.

That weak spot, the back, can be made strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the womanly diseases which cause headache, backache, rheumatism, nervousness and sleeplessness.
