

YOU WANT

Well-fitting clothes, certainly. There are two sure ways to get them.

One is, pay the best custom tailor in town $75 or $100 for a suit or overcoat; nothing makes clothes fit like paying $75 or $100 for 'em.

The other way is to buy clothes with H. S. & M. in them; pay $18 to $30; if they don't fit you get your money back. You know the place.

Fighting the Turk

Bulgarians Numbering Three Thousand and Strong Engage With Sultan's Followers---Terrible Loss of Life Results.

TROOPS CUT THEIR WAY OUT

Inhabitants of 30 Villages, Headed By Bishop and Revolutionists Take Up Arms.

Berlin, April 3.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Lokal Anzeiger, dated at noon today, announces that the Bulgarian bands and Turkish troops in the Okreida district have fought a battle and 1000 men were killed or wounded.

Constantinople, April 3.—Official advices from Monastir say the Bulgarian inhabitants of 30 villages in the Okreida district, totalling 3000 men, have risen against the Turks. They surrounded a small detachment of Turkish troops in the mountains northward of Okreida, but the troops succeeded in cutting their way out after sustaining considerable loss.

Another dynamite outrage at the town of Mustapha Pacha has led to the discovery that the revolutionary committee is supposed to be responsible for the attempt to wreck the Oriental express early in the morning of March 31, when the bridge of the Turkish-Oriental railroad was blown up by an infernal machine.

Although affairs at Mitrovitz and Prishtina are reported to be calmer, the rising of the Albanians in those districts created intense concern at the palace and among the ministers and at the embassy. It is felt that a continuation of the trouble in the vicinity of Sandjak and Navlizar is likely to lead at any moment to an extension of Austrian occupation over the entire Sandjak district although it is believed that nothing short of absolute necessity will induce Austria to take advantage of its right, which is restored to her by the treaty of Berlin.

More Reforms for Ireland

London, April 3.—The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at Dublin claims to have the authority of a member of the present government for the statement that the government intends to dissolve parliament at the end of the present session, the general elections being in the autumn. The leading plank in the conservative platform at the elections affirms the correspondent will be an enormous extension of local government in Ireland providing for the establishment of legislative council which will have the control of the Irish police.

It is understood, further, asserts the correspondent, that the colonial secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, warmly supports the government's project and that the economist Mr. Wyndham promised in connection with the Irish land bill largely depend upon its realization. Neither Gerald Balfour, president of the board of trade, nor the present war secretary, Mr. Broderick, would be included in the next cabinet.

According to the supposed plans of the government, the Dublin chamber will consist of representatives of the Irish county councils and will deal with local matters, such as gas, water and railroads.

DECIDE KEENE-HARRIMAN CASE

Nashville, April 3.—At the close of the arguments this afternoon Judge Lurton announced that he would decide at Louisville next Monday the case of Keene and those against Harriman and others in the application to prevent a voting of stock held by the Union Pacific at the Southern Pacific election next Wednesday.

Movements of Pacific Squadron

San Francisco, April 3.—The flagship New York, with Rear-Admiral Glass on board, is not expected to return to this port until the last of this month, having remained on the Mexican coast to have target practice and keep in touch with the navy department by telegraph. With the flagship are the cruisers Boston, Marblehead and Ranger, which will return to port with the New York.

The gunboat Bennington is again in commission, after having lain idle and undergoing repairs at Mare Island for several months past. Captain Thomas, formerly of the fish commission steamer Albatross, is in command. The Bennington is manned principally by young men, who lately took their first cruise on the training ships Adams and Mohican. The gunboat Concord, also at Mare Island, is to go into commission soon.

Successful Trip of the Pike

San Francisco, April 3.—The second trial of the new Holland torpedo boat Pike proved equally as successful as the first. She ran over a two mile course in Mission bay with only her conning tower showing above water. Later she raced back and forth over the course, totally submerged. The boat traveled 12 miles, coming up at the end of each two-mile spurt. She averaged 7.3 knots during the entire trip. Today the Gramercy, sister vessel of the Pike, will be given a surface trial and on Saturday will dive below.

Captured the Cattle Thieves

Tucson, Ariz., April 3.—Captain Hynning of the rangers has just been advised that Fred Barfoot, assisted by Rangers Felton and Peterson and several county officers, attacked the Davis cabins in the Black Rock country on Monday and captured the eight men who, it is alleged, have been stealing cattle in the vicinity for a time, but have always eluded the officers. They were surrounded and after a hot fight were compelled to yield. The men were taken to Solomonville, where they were placed in jail.

SULTAN TO GRANT PRIVILEGES.

Washington, April 3.—The long expected interview between United States Minister Leshman and the sultan of Turkey took place at Constantinople today. Minister Leshman called the state department that he had presented President Roosevelt's letter to the sultan and had received satisfactory assurances on all points mentioned. These relate to the general admission of Americans in Turkey to all the privileges enjoyed by other nationalities.

MILWAUKEE ENTERTAINS

Thousands of Citizens Turn Out to Greet and Welcome the Chief Executive.

ADDRESSES 2000 VETERANS

In the Evening Banquet Was Given At Which Covers for 500 Guests Were Laid.

Milwaukee, April 3.—President Roosevelt and special train reached this city at 2 p. m. and was met by a large crowd.

The reception committee, headed by Mayor Ross, received the distinguished guest and his party, who were immediately driven to the National Soldiers' home. The president had as a special escort a troop of the Wisconsin national guards. The drive to the Soldiers' home was over a 10-mile route and took in many of the prominent streets and many thousands of the citizens turned out to bid the president welcome. Arriving at the Soldiers' home 2000 veterans were reviewed by the president, who afterwards addressed them from a grand stand. The remainder of the program consisted of a public meeting at the exposition building and receptions at the Deutscher and Milwaukee Press clubs.

Milwaukee, April 3.—President Roosevelt was the guest of Milwaukee merchants and manufacturers at a banquet given at the Plankinton house tonight, the occasion being the climax of the president's 10-hour visit to Milwaukee. Covers were laid for 500 representative citizens.

Steam Schooner a Total Loss

San Francisco, April 3.—The steam schooner Albion River, sailing from this city last night for Point Arena, ran on the rocks in Bodega bay. The passengers were safely landed ashore this afternoon by the United States life saving crew of Point Reyes. The schooner will probably be a total loss.

Matti Jarvi in Custody

Sheriff Linville returned yesterday from Douglas Island, Alaska having in charge Matti Jarvi, wanted by the circuit court on the charge of manslaughter. The sheriff left here a week ago last Monday for the north and arrived at his destination last Saturday evening. A few hours after he apprehended Jarvi alias Matt Lake, who was employed on the night shift in the Treadwell mine. Aside from assuming a different name, the young refugee prisoner had made no effort to conceal his identity and when arrested he showed no resistance. He had evidently supposed himself free from discovery and was taken by surprise when approached by the official. He was placed in the Juneau jail for the night and on Monday morning the sheriff started with him for Seattle. During the interim Sheriff Linville put in his time inspecting the mines and found much to interest him. A letter had been written to Jarvi by his attorney while he was working in the logging camp on Deep river, telling him to come over for trial, an offer showing the summons to his companions he left the vicinity saying he was going to Astoria. Instead he went north and this, taken with the fact of his changing his name leaves no doubt that he wanted to get away. On his arrival here yesterday there were a number of his countrymen at the depot, but no demonstration was offered. He spoke to a few of his acquaintances, but no opportunity was given him for extensive greetings even had there been any desire for such, which is quite improbable. He is now in the county jail and will remain there until his case is called for trial and that will be about the middle of this month.

BARGE AND MEN LOST.

New London, Conn., April 3.—The tug Sweepstake, just arrived here, reports the loss of the barge Fitzpatrick off Long Island last night. The barge's boiler blew up and it sank immediately with five men.

CONFERENCE YESTERDAY

Allies Do Not Want to Take Any Risk On the Decision to Be Rendered at The Hague.

Washington, April 2.—A joint conference between Mr. Bowen and the British and Italian ambassadors and the German first secretary was held at the British embassy today.

Mr. Bowen presented a reply to the amendments which the allies had proposed to the original draft of the protocol. He accepted several changes of the phraseology in the convention, but informed the other negotiators that under no circumstances would he accept an insertion of new articles providing that Venezuela should pay the cost of the blockade in case the decision at The Hague be adverse to preferential treatment.

His refusal on this point was absolute and it was agreed that Bowen's objections and arguments should be called at once to London, Berlin and Rome. It is not expected that an answer can reach here before Wednesday.

day. In the meantime Mr. Bowen will go to New York for several days' rest.

Fishing Season

Perhaps not for years has the prospect been so good for an early season as at present. Indications point to a large and continuous run of fine salmon, which may last well into the season. The indications referred to consist of salmon—fine, fat, strong royal chinooks. The money derived from the sale of confiscated fish by the warden will materially assist in defraying the expenses of patrolling the river. A small consignment of fine large salmon were received yesterday by Lindenberger's cold storage from Water Balliff Marshall, who relieved some luckless fisherman of them near Clatskanie. It seems that salmon will almost jump into a boat whenever one goes out on the river. A man recently went out to take one or two for his table and had the misfortune to get so many in his net that he was unable to keep the big haul out of sight, in consequence of which he was obliged to pay a fine of $50.

Fulton Enroute for Home.

Senator Fulton put in a busy day Thursday in Baker City sightseeing and receiving aspirants for federal positions. Candidates for register of the land office were particularly attentive. J. W. Knowles is slated to succeed Edward Bartlett for the place and will doubtless get the appointment. When questioned in regard to the published statement of ex-Senator Simon's alleged woes, Senator Fulton declined to express an opinion other than that the president had considerably suggested Simon's appointment to both himself and Senator Mitchell. Senator Fulton left Baker City yesterday morning for here and as he will remain in Portland one day, he is looked for home tomorrow.
