BROWN A GOOD COACH.

The people of Oregon City entertained Fred Brown in a royal manner during the time he spent there as coach for the horse team, and it happened that he coached the winning team. This is quite natural, seeing that he coached it. The races were interesting and were entered into with a spirit of do or die that were bound to get exciting results. Mr. Brown will be presented with a medal by the athletic fraternity of Oregon City as a mark of appreciation for the valuable services he rendered them. One of the best events to be pulled off here during the regatta is to be the horse team race. Oregon City will be a competitor and will select a team this week to get into training for the contest.

ARRESTED FOR INSANITY.

W. N. Sutton was taken in charge by Sheriff Linville yesterday on a charge of being insane. Sutton, who is employed by the Clatsop Mill company as a teamster, has lately been imagining things. He has imagined that his team was continually running away, that someone was trying to poison him, etc. He lately left his home on Eighteenth street and has been living at the mill mess house. His family and relatives are most excellent people and no trouble has arisen, the notice published in this paper yesterday by him being only an insane freak. Mr. Sutton is said to be a man of good education, and the victim of long sickness.

Joint Lodge Installation

Most Beautiful Ceremonies Gone Through By K. Of P. And Rathbone Sisters.

Astor lodge K. of P. and their ladies' auxiliary, the Rathbone Sisters, held a joint installation at Pythian Castle hall tonight. A large number of members and invited guests were present and they thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful ceremonies. District Deputy Jens H. Hensen, assisted by grand lodge officers inducted the new officers of Astoria lodge into their various positions and Sister Christine Carlsen, deputy grand chief, assisted by an able staff, installed the officers of the temple. The exercises of the sisters were most beautiful, their drills, the floral quintette of pretty little girls dressed in white bearing flowers with which they decorated the new officers who were all dressed in black skirts, white waists and pretty velvet capes; tuneful songs, bugle calls and instrumental music, the whole lit by colored lights made a picture that will long remain in the memories of those present.

The installing officers of the degree had their lectures committed and all acquitted themselves most creditably. After the ceremonies a splendid supper was served which was relished.

Past Chancellor Wise was chosen toastmaster and he made a brief address on the good work of Pythian Knights and their better halves interspersed with humorous and sentimental sayings; Brothers Munz, Cleveland, Welch, Bergman, Kemp and Sisters Carlson, Martin, Bergman and Olsen also addressed the assemblage, and after a few words from Chancellor Geo. F. Goodell the meeting closed amidst an exchange of good wishes.

The following officers for Astor lodge were installed: George Goodell, C. C. A. T. Seiverta, V. C. Prelate elect was absent. W. L. McCroskey, master at arms. Albert Martin, inner guard. Adolph Johnson, outer guard.

For the Rathbone Sisters the new officers are: Mrs. Etra Martin, past chief. Mrs. Mary Olsen, most excellent chief. Lucy Wright, excellent senior. Mrs. Agnes Josephson, excellent junior. Miss Ertha C. Morton, manager. Mrs. Mary I. Welch, mistress of record and correspondence. Mrs. Sarah Wise, mistress of finance. Mrs. Johanna Danielson, guard of inner temple. Mrs. Christina Lorntsen, guard of outer temple.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Captain Haslam and little son are visiting friends in the city. They reside at Cathlamet.

W. W. Whipple is in the city from Bucoda and will remain for a few days.

J. W. McCormac and bride, nee Miss Anthony, will arrive home this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gosselin are in the city.

Miss Lottie Bennett of Salem is in the city.

Mrs. C. A. Hanson, formerly of this city, but now of Everett, Wash., is in the city.

Miss Corine Hanson from the Good Samaritan hospital training school, came down to attend the wedding of her aunt, Miss Amy Powell.

Miss Mabel Jeffers has returned from Kelso, Wash., where she is teaching school, and will be at her Lewis and Clark home for several weeks. Ardie Strom came over yesterday from Chinook where he has been engaged for the past week in obtaining views. He was able to do good work with his camera and is well satisfied with his outing.

Mrs. G. L. Ziegler, accompanied by her two little sons, has returned from a Portland visit. Mrs. Ziegler went to Portland as delegate to the state convention of Woman's Relief Corps, and remained at the close of the convention to visit with friends.

Miss Nellie Jeffery is home after an extended visit with relatives in Utah.

FINE DELIVERY WAGONS.

Johnson Brothers have added another delivery wagon to their fleet and now claim the best grocery delivery system in the city. The wagon was built by Andrew Asp and painted by T. S. Simpson & Son. Besides the well known excellence of wagons built at the Asp shops, the Johnson Bros. wagons have an ingenious arrangement for carrying coal oil separate from other goods, and for delivering eggs without danger of breakage. This enterprising grocery firm believes in patronizing home industry and saves money by doing so.

CHEERFUL CHOPPERS CUTTING CEDARS

Will Arrange Plans for Entertaining Visiting Woodmen During Regatta Week.

Members of Astoria camp Woodmen of the World, are looking forward to their meeting of tonight with more than ordinary interest. The matter of properly entertaining their crowd of Woodmen visitors during the regatta week is giving the knights of the ax serious concern, but it is felt that the difficulties will be satisfactorily solved. The Portland Woodmen will have a 10 days' carnival beginning the 14th of this month, and the advisability of running an excursion from this city will be taken up, discussed and acted on.

A large number of new cedar logs are to be placed in the pond tonight preparatory to running through the mill, and after business is over a program of music mirth and song will be presented.

State Organizer Rogers will install the new officers and will also entertain the camp with one of his splendid fraternal addresses. Altogether the "choppers" will scatter chips, splinters and saw-dust around rather promiscuously.

LOCKED IN REFRIGERATOR CAR.

Warehouse Man Takes Involuntary Ride About the A. & C. Yards

"Man lost!" was the cry that went up by the clerks in the freight house of the A. & C. R. R. yesterday afternoon when Mike Leahy was called and came not to the call. Mr. Leahy is one of the head warehouse men of the freight house and his services are generally in demand, so when he turned up missing he was indeed missed.

It happened that Leahy had had occasion to enter a refrigerator car and some one else found occasion to close the door. Also the car had to be switched up the track about half a mile and as the involuntary occupant could not make himself heard from his padded cell, so to speak, he was also switched and left serenely on a lonely siding. After an hour or so he contrived to open the door and returned to his work. It was very apparent that the yard men had acted entirely in good faith, so they were able eventually to pacify the irate man from Ireland.

DEATH OF VETERAN.

Ira B. Dawson, a Grand Army man, and for some time employed as bridge tender by the county, on the Walluski, died Tuesday night at St. Mary's hospital. The funeral will be held this afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors and the interment will be in Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war, being in active service during the entire four years. He was about 60 years of age and was a native of Ohio. He leaves no relatives in this county. The funeral will be held under the auspices of Cushing post, G. A. R.

INJURED HIS ARM.

While cleaning the engine of his launch, Alexander Jr., yesterday morning Alex. Miller met with an accident that resulted in a badly crippled arm. Mr. Miller's shirt sleeve got caught in the governor and this drew his arm into some of the machinery. A large piece of flesh was torn out and some of the ligaments were wrenched. The wounds were dressed at once and the injured man is able to be about, although it will be some days before he is in condition to return to his work.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION.

Thomas Parker has been appointed delegate to the Sixth annual convention of the International Teamdrivers' union to be held at Niagara Falls, N. Y., the first part of the next month. Mr. Parker will leave here in time to be present at the opening session. He is not yet fully decided whether he will return at once on adjournment of the convention, as it is his wish to take in some of the points of interest in the east before he turns his face to the west.

HEARING POSTPONED.

The preliminary hearing of David Hannula set for yesterday forenoon in the justice court, was not held, the postponement being occasioned by the absence of the Smith brothers from the city who have been retained by the defendant. Hannula is charged with violating the fishing laws in that he fished without a license.

HEART PARTY.

Mrs. C. A. Coolidge entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon at a heart party. Mrs. F. A. Fisher won the first prize, Mrs. J. T. N. Callaway the second prize and Mrs. A. M. Smith the consolation prize. Those present were: Mesdames Richardson, Callaway, A. M. Smith, Fisher, H. C. Smith, Mayo, Kuetner, West, Marra, Maddock, Spittle, Ridehalgh, Schelmpff, Baker and Miss Stanyan.

MORTON-HEILBORN.

The marriage of Miss Therese Heilborn to Mr. Sweeney Morton was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother Rector William Seymour Short officiating. The recent death of the bride's father caused the wedding to be a quiet one. Those present were the families of the contracting parties and particularly near friends. The handsome home was profusely decorated with plants and flowers, and the scene was as charming as any of like nature that has taken place in this city. Green and white were the prevailing colors and the appointments were strikingly harmonious in every detail.

Mr. Otto F. Heilborn gave away his bride and Miss Olga Heilborn was bridesmaid. The best man was P. C. Morton of Wilmington, N. C., brother of the groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony an informal reception was held when congratulations were showered upon the happy pair by their friends and admirers. Elaborate refreshments were served. The presents were many and beautiful, the costly gifts being presented along with well wishes of long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton left on the evening train on their wedding tour, which will take in some of the coast towns. They will make their home in this city.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Heilborn and is a leader with the younger society set. Mr. Morton is a member of the clerical force of the Astoria & Columbia River railroad, having come from the south to accept his position.

McCLURE-POWELL.

Miss Amy Grace Powell, of this city, and Mr. Walter A. McClure were married early yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian church. No cards were issued and the ceremony was attended by only relatives and very near friends. Rev. Henry Marcotte officiated. The bride has taught in the local schools for some years, her special branch being Latin. The groom is an attorney and resides in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. McClure left on the morning train for the sound city where they will make their home.

BOAT RACE AT LEATHERS.

It will be nip and tuck between the Hume tugboat and the customs house steamer now building at Leathers' yard, as to which will be ready for service first. The planking is almost finished on the hull of the sawmill tender and work is progressing rapidly, but the material of which the Astoria Iron works will construct her boiler has not yet arrived and her completion will probably be delayed on that account. The graceful lines of the customs launch will probably continue to adorn the boat shop until about September 15, by which time her machinery, now en route, will have been installed. It is expected that both crafts will be launched about that time.

NO FISH ON THE SOUND.

C. B. Trescott, who is spending a few days in the city, says the early run of salmon on the sound due about July 1, has not yet put in its appearance, and cannerymen are more or less blue in consequence. The usual second run is due in two weeks. This is one of the three light years which elapse between the quadrannual seasons of extremely heavy runs, but the total absence of fish is something quite unlooked for by the sound packers.
