Local Brevities

WEATHER FORECAST.—Oregon and Washington, Sunday, fair.

FILED FOR RECORD.—Amanda Regenstrom, widow, to Alexander Pietila, 89 acres in section 29, township 7, 4709.

FOR LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.—There will be a meeting of the Astoria Central Labor Council tomorrow night for the purpose of discussing further arrangements for the celebration of Labor Day in the city. It is probable that the final arrangements will be announced during the week.

RED MEN FEAST TOMORROW.—The braves of the local order of Red Men will hold a pow-wow in the wigwam tomorrow night in honor of the delegates to the great council of the and Coroner Pohl, two of the delegates who received signal honors at the convention, will be present, and there will be speechmaking. A banquet will be spread unless present plans go awry.

NAME INADVERTENTLY OMITTED.—In the article describing the public library concert printed in the Astorian yesterday, the name of Miss Annie Campbell was inadvertently omitted. Needless to say that the work of this capable performer was in keeping with the remainder of the program, and was received with the generous applause and floral tokens of appreciation which it merited.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—At the meeting of the board of equalization held yesterday afternoon in the office of Auditor Anderson, the assessments for the following improvements were recommended, there being no protests or remonstrances filed: Fifth between and Bond; Bond between Ninth and Fourteenth; Fourteenth between Bond and Commercial; Birch and Fifty-first in Alderbrook.

OREGON CROPS ON THE MARKET.—The next boat from California will probably bring the last California fruits of the season. The Oregon fruit crop is already on the market, and also potatoes. The peaches and Bartlett pears for which this state is famous, promises to be of finer flavor than ever this season, and indications are that there will be an abundant yield of all classes of fruit raised here.

SIXTEENTH STREET IMPROVEMENT.—It is reported on reliable authority that all opposition to the contemplated improvement of Sixteenth street has been removed, and that the ordinance providing for the improvement will be presented at the city council meeting tomorrow night. Part of the improvement will consist of macadam and cement sidewalks and the remaining portion will be planing.

MR. ABNER DEBLEU LEAVES TOWN.—The colored gentleman from Chinook who honored Astoria with a visit on Friday, reconsidered his former decision to remain here in spite of Chief Hallock's orders, and after languishing in the city tank all night and all day yesterday, accepted the $2.75 subscribed for him by the people of Chinook, and was escorted to the Portland boat last night. He was put aboard and an officer stood by the gang plank until the steamer put to sea, in order to be sure that the chicken chaser's mind did not undergo another change. Debleu was anxious to return to Chinook "jes to show them people as what I ain't a-skereed o' them" but again the good council of the chief prevailed, and before he left, he was convinced that Chinook was a bad place for laxy folks.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.—The state superintendent of public instruction has acknowledged receipt of County Superintendent H. S. Lyman's annual report, stating that it has been examined and found correct. Besides the statistical data compiled from the report and published in the Astorian a few days ago, the following additional information is incorporated: Enumeration: Male 2160; female, 2107; total 4267. This shows an increase over last year of 272. The receipts and disbursements of the office were as follows: Receipts—Cash on hand, $16,129.37; district tax $22,451.50; county school fund, $17,406.59; state school fund, $6,241.84; tuition, $142.75; bonds and warrants, $12,090; library fund, $67.59; all other, $3,975.56; total, $78,415.29. Disbursements—Teachers' salaries, $37,496.

64; rent, $177.51; fuel and supplies, $1429.38; repairs, $1029.36; new school house, $4915.06; on bonds, etc., $5768.16; insurance, $179.16; clerk's $925.74; library books, $429.85; all other, $4594.29; total, $61885.38. Balance on hand, $16529.82. County Superintendent Lyman returned home yesterday.

SELECTS VERSUS CATHLAMET.—Unless the predictions, calculations, hunches and rabbit's foot of the Astoria Selects have been made out of over confidence, there'll be a sorry lot of Cathlamet ball tossers in the city after the game today. The Selects have brushed up considerably since their encounter with the North Pacific team last Sunday, and they promise a better exhibition of the national game today. The lineup of the two teams will be something like the following: Selects: Halderman, c; Ross, p; Flannigan, 1b; Graham, 2b; Stockton, 3d b; O'Toole, ss; Grant, lf; Trullinger, cf; Knutsen, rf, Cathlamet: McDermott, c; Farrell, p; O'Brien, 1b; Baillet 2b; Flamboise, 3b; Brignon, ss; Dafeer, lf; Simpson, cf; Hamrigr, rf. Game called at 2:30. Umpire Fletcher. It is rumored that Cathlamet will bring Morris, a pitcher from Salem, of the Interstate League, and whom the Portland Browns will give a tryout.

FISHERMEN UP IN ARMS.—W. R. Williams, water bailiff at Central Point, in a letter to Master Fish Warden Van Dusen states that John Pankey, a fisherman who was convicted under the section of the fish laws which makes it unlawful to take or fish for salmon in Rogue river and its tributaries except with rod and line between certain hours and dates, has appealed from the judgment of the justice court and threatens to take the case to the circuit court with a view to testing the constitutionality of the law. He has enlisted the support of fishermen along the river, and a fund is being subscribed to knock out the law, if possible. Mr. Williams reports plenty of salmon, and attributes this to the fact that they are well protected. He says that seining, gillnetting and spearing had ceased, and if this continues there will be a heavy spawn this season. King Spurgeon, of the Clackamas hatchery, reports progress in the work there. He says that they are now 185000 eggs at the hatchery with salmon in the pens. In his letter he expresses the opinion that a good lot of eggs will result this season, and reports a lot of salmon in the river below the hatchery. The Indians have not yet come in, and Mr. Spurgeon says that work is being some what retarded through lack of help.

ANTONE LUND IN TROUBLE.—On a charge of larceny from a store, Antone Lund, delivery clerk for V. H. Coffey, was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Uttinger, and is now in the county jail awaiting preliminary hearing, which will be accorded him on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. His bonds were fixed at $500. The arrest was made after two weeks of constant watching on the part of Mr. Uttinger and Mr. Coffey. Information had reached them that restaurant keepers were buying first-class hams at a lower price than the local houses could retail them, and an investigation was started. It turned out that a man answering Lund's description had been selling the hams, and he was watched. It is alleged that he has been in the habit of pilfering all kinds of stuff from his employer, having a cache for it in the barn. He would take the articles at night when he closed the store it is said, and hide them in the barn when he locked up the horses, taking a few things away at an early hour in the morning and disposing of them to restaurant keepers at a time when stores were closed. It is said that he was caught in the act of disposing of a ham, valued at $2.75, yesterday. Lund is a married man with a wife and child to support. His ingratitude to his employer is more pronounced in view of the fact that Mr. Coffey gave him financial assistance in the getting together of a home when he first came to Astoria.

RUN IS PHENOMINAL.—The unprecedented run of salmon reported on Friday was repeated yesterday, and it is believed that each day from now on until the close of the season will record a phenomenal catch. Gillnetters and seiners alike are rolling in prosperity and yesterday the canneries were kept busy from early morn till late at night receiving the boats. As was generally predicted the prices depreciated, and the best quality received yesterday sold for four cents a pound. The inferior quality or smaller fry sold for three cents, and if the run continues there will be a still greater reduction. The Pillar Rock Packing Company was blocked with one or two seins; Booth & Co. did not receive any fish yesterday, and will not receive any until tomorrow. Talant-Grant and Co-operative canneries will not receive any today, but yesterday hundreds of tons were delivered to them. A large quantity of the finest salmon brought in was sold to the Warren Packing Company at three cents per pound, for shipment to their Cascades cannery, and similar shipments were made to Cathlamet. The efforts of the cannery and cold-storage employes today will be in the direction of cleaning up what fish they now have on hand, which accounts for their notice to the effect that they cannot receive any more fish today. The fishermen are rejoicing, and last night the city was gayer than it has been for months. Everybody has money, and the merchants did a record business all of yesterday. Coming so late in the season, the gillnetters and seiners express themselves as being simply amazed at the extent of the run, and believe that it has only just begun.

MARGARITA FISCHER TOMORROW.—The Margarita Fischer Company opens at Fischers' tomorrow night for one week's engagement. The company is already in the city. New plays will be produced, and the young star is said to be surrounded with a capable company of players. Popular prices will prevail. Specialties will be interspersed between the acts.

Churches.

METHODIST.—Services will be held as usual. Preaching both morning and evening. The ladies double quartette will render excellent music during the evening service.

PRESBYTERIAN.—Services as usual tomorrow. Rev. W. S. Gilbert, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church of Portland will preach at both services.

FIRST LUTHERAN.—Rev. Oscar Ostrom will preach morning and evening Also Sunday school.

BAPTIST.—"The Day of Decision" and "David's Invitation" will be the subjects of services at the Baptist church today. All other services as usual.

NORWEGIAN-DANISH METHODIST.—Sermon by the pastor at 11 a. m., subject "Is Faith the Gift of God." The evening service will be in the English language, "Rich Through Poverty" Sunday school, 10 a. m. The ladies' aid society meets with Mrs. L. Jackson, Alderbrook, Wednesday afternoon.

CONGREGATIONAL.—Rev. Bollinger of Oregon City will fill the pulpit both morning and evening.

Marine Notes.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore arrived in yesterday from Tillamook.

The pilot schooner will go out on the bar today with Pilots Wood and Cann on board.

The O. R. & N. steamer George W. Elder put to sea yesterday forenoon for San Francisco.

The steamer Homer went up the river yesterday for the purpose of finishing taking on her cargo for Alaska.

The four masted schooner Susie Plummer arrived in yesterday morning from Honolulu. She came to load lumber.

The big Stella raft arrived down yesterday afternoon and in the evening left out for San Francisco in tow of the tugs Tatoosh and Sea Lion.

The pilot boat reported a French bark outside last night, supposed to be the Grand Duchess Olga, Gueric, master, from Rio Janeiro, March 21, which has been reported in a dismantled condition once since she left port. It is not known for certain whether or not this is the vessel.

The German bark Saurachos, Capt. Roehl, 141 days from Hamburg, reached port last night, bringing a cargo of 272 pieces of iron; 19600 casks of cement; 425 tons of coke and 75 barrels of baryte. The captain reports a pleasant voyage except in the English channel where gales were encountered.

The British steamer Indrasahama will clear today for the Orient with 200000 feet of lumber. This vessel draws 24 feet of water, and it is quite probable that she will have to lighten her cargo before getting out of the river. When the last soundings were taken 17 feet was the greatest depth recorded.

SET SAIL FOR COWES.

Queenstown, August 1.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, having on board King Edward and Queen Alexandra sailed this evening for Cowes.

It costs him nothing. Your grocer is glad to return your Schilling's Best money, if what you got is not to your liking.
