Grand Review of Regiment

Gen. Summers to Inspect the Soldier boys This Afternoon at Gearhart

Camp Summers, Gearhart, Sept. 4.—(Special)—Jupiter Pluvius reigned this afternoon and the clouds rained. Oregon weather was on deck during the latter part of the day, and hence every one was happy—or should have been. Just the same, it is to be hoped that Sol will condescend to illuminate the scene a trifle stronger for the grand review which is to occur at 3 p. m. Sunday.

General Summers is to review the regiment, and a big excursion is expected from Portland, when, as one of the soldier boys expressed it, "we can have our individual girls and the officers can't monopolize everything." The band from Vancouver showed up yesterday, and had just emerged from the tent devoted to the musicians preparatory to livening up the camp with a little music, when the big drops began to fall and business was postponed along that line. For the same reason the target practice had to be cut out, although the morning drill was carried out, as the rain did not begin until after lunch.

A very noticeable feature is a sample of "Old Glory," 30x16 feet, which floats from a big pole on the grounds. This was put up by the boys.

Capt. Roy Doble, of company H, Fort land, was officer of the day today, and a finer specimen of a soldier would be hard to find. He was one of the lads who saw genuine service in the Philippines.

There were three unfortunates confined in the guard house today up to late in the afternoon, when they were released. They were members of company A, of Baker City, and were in trouble for not showing up on time at the Portland depot to take the train for this point. Had a connecting S. P. train not been late, they would not have made their train at all. There have been no arrests made from trouble originating in camp, however, as excellent order has been maintained.

The feature of cooking, while not so glib edged as some other details of camp life, yet possesses an interest to men of practical turn, and naturally to all the lads. The "stoves" are simply holes scooped out, one for each company, upon which is placed an oblong piece of sheet iron. The fire is kindled under this, and the utensils, with their contents, are placed on top. The "coffee pot" of each company is nothing more or less than a wash boiler of the usual pattern. The bill of fare served the "high privates" includes beans, bacon, crackers and coffee, these being distributed throughout the three meals in the necessary variety. One of the cooks complained today that sufficient rations were not issued, but doubtless this will be remedied soon if it is true. Quite a few humorous pencil sketches adorn sundry posts in camp, these being the work of one of the Baker City boys.

The boys spend their leisure afternoon hours in playing baseball, football and generally inspecting the surrounding country excepting the miserable ones detailed for guard duty, the bane of the soldier's existence. But of course the guard is being constantly changed, so that each gets his share.

Great Parade For Labor Day

Nineteen Labor Organizations and Twelve Floats to Be In Line Tomorrow

Labor day will be fittingly observed in Astoria. Nearly all the stores will be closed during the entire day and the manufacturing plants will give their employees a half holiday. All public offices will be closed, the postoffice however, observing the customary holiday regulations. The celebration will eclipse any other demonstration of the kind ever undertaken in this city.

Grand Marshal James H. O'Connell has appointed Charles E. Johnson and Henry M. Mayer as his aides. The marshal has directed that the parade form at 2 o'clock, and any organization failing to reach its position by that hour will lose its place in the procession and be relegated to the rear.

The parade will march east on Commercial street to the Clatsop mills, then countermarch west on Commercial to Fourteenth, turning north to Bond. It will continue west on Bond to Sixth, south on Sixth to Commercial, then east on Commercial to Tenth, where the marchers will disband.

The formation of the parade will be as follows:

- FIRST DIVISION.
 - Platoon of police.
 - Astoria Marine Band.
 - Judges' carriage.
 - Mill Workers' Union and float.
 - Plumbers' Union.

PECULIAR GIFT

Rome, Sept. 5.—The city of Rome has just received the offer of a curious gift, which, while it has been accepted with gratitude, has created much amusement. The Commune of Buenos Ayres as a token of Argentine friendship for Italy and a tribute of affection for the late King Humbert, whose remains were buried in the Pantheon here, has offered to pave the piazzas of the Pantheon and the surrounding streets with Argentine wood, which will be kept in repair by the donors.

HILL'S WORK IS LIMITED

New York, Sept. 5.—In regard to numerous reports connecting him with various vast new projects of sea and land in the West, J. J. Hill, the railroad magnate, who has just returned from a week's cruise in his steam yacht, says: "I shall never undertake any work of magnitude in a new field. My interests are limited by the lines I have already drawn for the development of the great Northwest. They will never be extended."

SPIRITED CAMPAIGN WAGED

Sullivan Proves Unanimous Choice After First Ballot

New York, Sept. 5.—The election of Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan as grand worthy president of the fraternal order of Eagles, followed a spirited campaign. Vice-President Pillsbury, of Kansas City, was favored by a large contingent, principally of the west and Henry Davis, of Cincinnati, polled a 29 vote. The election of Sullivan, however, had been expected and after the first ballot he had the field to himself, the other two candidates withdrawing. The congressman was then accorded the unanimous vote of the convention.

The Germans are very jealous of the United States and are passing laws to keep out what they call the "American peril." They attempt to exclude our meat by restrictive measure, and in every way show dread of our rivalry. Notwithstanding all this, the "impudent Yankee" keeps pushing in his goods.

Canada has just celebrated her Dominion Day—three days earlier than our Independence Day. Canada has a population of 5,500,000. In thirty-six years Canada has gained in population about half of the total immigration into the United States of the past ten years. Canada has a great future, and there is a great rush to her unoccupied lands. This year's crop of wheat in Canada rises to 150,000,000 bushels.

It is stated that the Cincinnati whisky combine has been smashed. This may be taken as another illustration of the fact that whisky will smash any combination into which it is injected.
