THE LARGE CROWDS

Who visited the sale of the Shanahan stock bought eagerly

One lady was heard to remark "I never saw such bargains," another "Goods were never sold so cheap before in Astoria," etc. As the sale advances prices will receive a more radical lowering. Odds and ends and broken lines will be closed out at any price, our one idea being to convert this stock into cash. One dollar now will do the WORK of two, and even though you may live fifty miles away you are indeed lucky in being close enough to attend this sale.

It is almost impossible to quote prices on only a few things. As lines become sold down to only a few items of a Kind, the article advertised might be sold out when you come. So come expecting to find the best bargains un-advertised.
