Sweet navel oranges 10 to 50 per doz. ASTORIA GROCERY.

John Lindberg, a native of Finland, was granted first citizenship papers yesterday.

1905 flower seeds now on display at Astoria Grocery. Come early and get your pick.

A new invoice of Eastman's celebrated Kodaks and supplies received at the Owl drug store.

The steamer Columbia left out yesterday morning for San Francisco with freight and passengers.

A shipment of fine navel oranges just in today. ASTORIA GROCERY.

Cupid Clinton yesterday issued a marriage license to Jack Stanovitch and Catherine Mardesytch, both of Clifton.

The Occident tonorial parlors and bath facilities are equalled by none. Everything modern and up to date. See Peterson.

W. Keppler, grand chief ranger of the Foresters of America for the state of Oregon, was in the city yesterday on official business.

The Women's Club will meet this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. F. D. Keutner at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

A strength tonic that brings rich, red blood. Makes you strong, healthy and active. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. C. E. Linton's drug store.

R. M. Gaston, at his feed stable No. 105 14th street, offers for sale a Landis harness machine; one butcher's wall scales, will be sold cheap.

C. A. Campbell received a telegram Thursday night that his wife was very low at Los Angeles and he left yesterday morning for that place.

The time for paying water rents, in order to avoid the penalty charged to all delinquents expires next Monday. The rule will be strictly enforced.

If you want something try our Diamond W. Brand of canned fruit and vegetables. Every can guaranteed. ASTORIA GROCERY.

W. J. Heas has opened the cleanest and best appointed restaurant in Astoria at 120 Eleventh street. The best in the market, and the promptest service.

R. M. Gaston carries a full and complete line of wagons, buggies, plows, harrows and all kinds of farm tools and machinery at 105 Fourteenth street, Astoria, Ore.

No attempt has been made to drag for the body of Charles A. Smith, who was drowned Thursday morning. The body will probably wash upon the sands in the lower harbor.

Families desiring either Colonial or Shoalwater bay oysters can always secure them fresh at the Imperial oyster house, which makes a specialty of supplying families or parties.

Danziger's new palatial store was crowded last night by hundreds of people who took advantage of the offer to visit the store. C. M. Celler and Jos. Kline, and the gentlemanly clerks were highly complimented upon their new store and the excellent judgment displayed in its appointments.

Inspectors Edwards and Fuller are in the city and today will inspect the ships Berlin and St. Nicholas and the steamers Sea Gull, Vanguard, Colwell and North Star. They expect to return to Portland tonight.

The dredger W. S. Ladd arrived down yesterday, having been completely overhauled, and will soon commence work of dredging on the river. She will be employed all summer, with headquarters at Astoria.

Feel tired, no appetite, cannot sleep, work or eat? That's spring tiredness and will disappear at once if you take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. C. E. Linton's drug store.

County Clerk Clinton yesterday received a fine cut of the proposed new county court house, showing the front view. But what the people want most is that decision from the supreme court giving the county power to build it.

Only one bid was received for the improvement of Twenty-sixth street, between Exchange and Franklin, only one block, by the street committee yesterday and that was from Dill & Young for $1585.55. The committee rejected the bid.

So thoroughly enjoyable has the entertainment been at the Star this week that Manager Corvitz is anxious that all the children shall see it, and accordingly, there will be a 5 cent matinee for children this afternoon and Sunday afternoon.

A man was arrested in Seaside yesterday for passing a bogus check on Peter Linder, the clerk at R. B. Smith's. The check was for $25. It was supposed that all the bogus checks were cashed at the Astoria saloons, but it seems an outside town gets caught once in a while.

There is a restaurant in town which makes a specialty of serving fine meals, where prompt and good service can always be relied upon. This is the California Restaurant, which has just opened under new management, and is well worth visiting.

Another crowded house greeted Rev. Ralph Gilliam at the Methodist church last evening and considerable interest was manifested. There will be no services today, but the usual services will be held in all the churches tomorrow with a union service in the Methodist church tomorrow evening.

John Tienhaara, formerly of Uniontown in this city, and who was committed to the insane asylum, after having been arrested for alleged criminal assault on some little girls, has been granted a six months' leave of absence from that institution and is stopping with a sister in Portland.

Citizenmaker Andrew Begorra Dalgity is authority for the statement that several applications have been made at the clerk's office for citizenship papers, but the applicants are strangers here, and it requires two witnesses. They must have their papers before they can secure a fishing license. It might be well to keep tabs on these persons.

The committee on streets and public ways will probably not stand for any combination of street contractors. It may work in Portland, but even men have been indicted there for robbing the city. It should not be tolerated in Astoria and if it is known to have been done, every contractor in the combine should be debarred from bidding for street work.

Chas. Heilborn & Son do practically all of the furniture business in Astoria. They do not handle second-hand goods, but everything in the store is new and up-to-date. It costs no more to buy good furniture than second-hand, and you have the advantage of getting something new in quality and design. It pays to buy the best, especially when it costs no more than second hand furniture.

A man living near McDonough slough kicked yesterday because Deputy Fish Commissioner L. C. Burton of Washington confiscated a net that was in the river in a condition to catch fish. While Burton does not know who owns the net, he has an idea that the man who was kicking could give the necessary information if he felt so disposed, but he will never have an opportunity. He will have a chance to buy another net.

Herman Wise was interviewed by a representative of The Astorian last evening relative to an article published in an obscure paper, that he had met with the committee from the common council and acquiesced in the proposition to placing a license upon clothing, dry goods and boot and shoe merchants. He stated that he had never met the committee nor any member of it, was opposed to the license system and never approved or sanctioned it. "If merchants are compelled to make a statement of the amount of stock carried, it will mitigate against them, in other matters," said Mr. Wise. He further stated that he had no knowledge that the council intended to pass the proposed ordinance.

Fifteen Dollars Reward.
 I will pay the above reward for the arrest and conviction of the thief who stole three rose bushes from the yard of my residence last evening.
 H. R. HOEFLER.

The Portland gamblers have leased a piece of land just over the Multnomah county line in Clackamas county and will erect one of the most magnificent gambling dens and hell-holes in Oregon, where the poor laboring man will be permitted to buy diamond shirt studs for the hard-working, light-fingered card manipulators while their families become a public charge on the county. The indications are that there will be a bunch of indictments returned in the circuit court of Clackamas county and the crime breeding foundries closed up.

The meanest man, woman or child undoubtedly lives in Astoria. There are too many contemptible petty larceny thieves running loose in the city. Early yesterday morning some illegitimate wart on the face of nature stole three rose bushes from the yard of H. R. Hoefler at his residence. The rose bushes were very choice ones, and considerable pains had been taken by Mrs. Hoefler to cultivate them, and just as they were growing nicely, some petty larceny thief stole them. Mr. Hoefler will pay a reward of $15 for the return of the bushes or any information as to the thief.

A LUXURY

May yet be a necessity. Essential as potatoes are in every household, there is no reason to buy an inferior grade, when the best may be had at the same price. We have just received a carload of

COLORADO POTATOES.

They came from the state of Colorado, near the town of Greeley, where the soil is especially adapted to potato raising. Grown several thousand feet above sea level in a sandy soil, not unduly moist, these potatoes are thin-skinned and when served at your table, have just the right flavor. They are just
