

BAR, BAY AND RIVER

News of a Day on the Astoria Waterfront.

WIND JAMMERS CROSS OUT

China Steamers Weather Bound inside—River Boats all Busy—Marine Row in Portland—Steam, Gasoline and Canvas Craft.

The British ship Kynance from San Francisco, with Captain Auld in command, arrived from San Francisco after the remarkably short trip of six and one half days.

Marine Rumpus.

The trouble on the British ship Owence, which broke out when the vessel was a month from Portland, was renewed Sunday morning at 3 o'clock.

Schooner Quartette.

The schooners Eric, Crescent, Mabel

Gale and Virginia arrived up yesterday morning at Portland. Going four at a time, the tow boats found orders rushing, and had to work overtime in handling the incoming and outgoing wind-jammers.

Needless Delay.

The barkentine Northwest, which was to have sailed from San Francisco, Friday was delayed by secret service agents, who held up the papers of Captain Flynn, on the ground that they were obtained on false naturalization proceedings.

New Steel Steamer.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company is to build a new steel freight and passenger steamer. The plans and specifications for the vessel are in the hands of the officials, and bids will be called for shortly.

Another Dollar Boat.

Bids for the new steel steamer for the Robert Dollar Company were to have been opened Friday, at Portland, but owing to a desire of several companies which could not prepare their tenders, an extension of time has been granted.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM

The steamship Columbia came down from Portland yesterday morning, with a big crowd of people. She took away some freight from here and the following passengers: D. P. Stoner, the theatrical man, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jenness.

The British ship Blythe-wood will probably receive permission from the Federal customs department to haul alongside the Elmore dock today to discharge 800 tons of coal for this port.

The fine bar tug Tatoosh will leave here early this morning for Seattle, where she will go on the dry-dock and be fitted with a new propeller. She will be gone about a week.

The steamer Atlas arrived in from Seattle, yesterday and proceeded at once to Portland. She is an oil tanker and bought over 401,420 gallons of "water white."

The British bark Roderick Dhu, under tow of the tug Dauntless crossed in from San Francisco, yesterday afternoon. The Dhu will go to Portland as soon as she can secure a tow.

The steamer Eureka came in from San Francisco yesterday morning and proceeded to the metropolis at once.

The N. W. S. S. Company's handsome liner Olympia should be down here at the Callender dock tomorrow morning on her way to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The motor schooner Della, the smallest sea-going craft out of Astoria, came in yesterday morning from Siletz and Nestucca. Captain Jensen reports a rough trip and has an idea he has had all he wants of it, for a while at least.

The steamer Alliance is due down from Portland this morning at 9 o'clock en route to Coos Bay and Eureka.

Yesterday was the Telegraph's lay-off day. She will be down this afternoon.

The steamship Senator is due at the O. R. & N. piers tomorrow from San Francisco. The Costa Rica is due at same time, on the same line.

The four masted schooner William Bowdan from Redondo, California came in yesterday afternoon.

The British ship Dumboyne, Captain Anderson, fifty days from Callao, Peru crossed in yesterday. She will proceed to Portland and report to her charter party, Taylor, Young & Co.

The schooner W. F. Jewett, came over the bar yesterday afternoon from San Francisco.

The four masted schooner Winslow came in yesterday from sea and was hauled at once to Hume mills, where she will load lumber for San Francisco. She was fifteen days out from Redondo.

Captain Richardson of the lighthouse tender Columbine reports a pleasant two-weeks cruise in the Sound, delivering supplies to, and inspecting, the various stations. Maor Roessler was a guest on board for five days on the trip.

The steamship Ludlow arrived down at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening and got away an hour later for Portland. The following people appeared on her cabin list: H. S. McGowan, O. H. Belknap, J. F. Dezey, J. Barth and family.

Cashier Blossing of the O. R. & N. office has taken to wearing caps. This is a certain sign of advancing age and senile affection. He wears it pretty well back, to cover the vacant spaces; another indication of approaching decrepitude.

The Columbia bar was too rough Sunday and yesterday for the British steamships Abergeldie and Nicomedia and they are still in the lower harbor. It is hoped they may make it to sea today.

The steamer Miller reports a blaze of rockets down near the mouth of the Columbia, about 10 o'clock on Sunday night, but no one seems to know what the display meant.

The Jean Batiste, French bark, out from Newcastle, New South Wales, is due at this port soon with a full cargo of coal, for local delivery.

The revenue cutter Perry now doing duty on Puget Sound will be ordered to Astoria soon. Captain Frank Tuttle, late in command of the Manning, will command her.

Where are you sick? Headache, foul-tongue, no appetite, lack energy, pain in your stomach, constipation? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents. Sold by Frank Hart.

ELECTION RETURNS

Result of First Primary Election in Astoria.

REPUBLICAN LINE-UP GOOD

Mayor Suprenant Will Succeed Himself—Change Expected in All Other Offices Except Surveyor and Street Superintendent—Mr. Welch's Case.

The result of the primary election is known and is given below in full, save the vote for precinct committees, which it seems is incomplete, and not deemed final:

The showing is a good one, from top to bottom, and is acceptable to the Republicans of Astoria. It will receive cordial and constant support from the Morning Astorian until the last man on it is elected. There is but one matter in relation to the line up that needs to be given any doubt or specific attention; and that is the legal status of D. H. Welch for the police commissionership.

Mr. Welch claims that the mandamus proceeding heretofore instituted by W. C. Laws, should have been deferred until it became necessary to place his name upon the general election ticket, rather than to have invoked the law to have it placed upon the primary ballot, and that the mandamus should have embraced all three members of the police commission, or a single one, rather than two. But to this the answer is simple and plain; proceedings in mandamus are pleaded in behalf of the individual in this relation, and not in favor of a series of persons nor the commission.

structive adjustment of the police commission, and unless he goes upon the general ballot by petition, or by mandamus, he can only achieve his desires by seeing that all his supporters shall write his name in on the vacant place upon the ticket as it is cast. And, if Mr. Welch does any of these things, this paper will stand pat for his election, but, in justice to all concerned, his exact status as a candidate must be ascertained beyond doubt. Anything short of this were an injustice to Mr. Welch and a hazard for all who shall support him else.

J. W. Suprenant, for mayor; A. B. Dalgity, for auditor and office judge; John Nordstrom, for treasurer; J. F. Kearney, for superintendent of streets; Alfred S. Tee, for surveyor; J. W. Babbidge and W. C. Laws for the police commission; Karl Knobloch, for councilman in the first ward; James J. Robinson and R. M. Leathers, for councilmen in the second ward; and C. A. Lienenweber, for councilman in the third ward. That is the alignment, and this paper stands for, and for D. H. Welch, for the police commission, if he invokes the proper authority, legal, or electoral, to secure his place upon the ticket for December 9th, next.

Following is the primary vote cast here, yesterday:

Table with columns: Mayorality Precincts, Auditor-Police Judge Precincts, Treasurer Precincts, Supt. Streets Precincts, Surveyor Precincts, Police Commission Precinct, Councilman. Lists candidates and their respective votes across various precincts.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russian-Japanese war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men.
