IN WINTER QUARTERS.

Twenty-three Japs and Chinks came over on the Nahcotta yesterday evening, from service in the F. C. Barnes cannery. They will go into winter quarters in this city after the hard work of the season.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT.

Beaver Lodge, No. 35, I. O. O. F. of this city held an important session at the hall last night, and among other matters of business elected the following staff of officers for the ensuing semi-annual term: Noble Grand, George Noonan; Vice Grand, George Cramer; Recording Secretary, Olof Anderson; Treasurer, C. S. Wright; Financial Secretary, John Hahn.

CAUCUS AT ILWACO.

Ilwaco had her annual political sensation Wednesday evening, when the village caucus was held. For Mayor, A. J. Colling, and for treasurer Ben Wise. There was no opposition, but there was a warm contest over the councilmen. Three seats in the executive body will be vacated. The Hawkins-Markham-Brumbach faction run George Grable and Erick Hilly for the two year term and put up E. F. Wood for the one year. The opposing faction gathered and marshalled by Roy Herrold run Herrold for a two year term and Kino for one year. They also ran Wood for a two year term, in spite of the fact that the other crowd was supporting him for the one year nomination. The Hawkins-Markham-Brumbach candidates received about 60 votes out of 104 cast.

HE WAS OUTSHOT.

They had a turkey shoot over at Ilwaco on Wednesday evening and about 100 of the northshore people and a few others were doing some pretty good shooting, walking off with turkeys, ham and chickens galore, when C. C. Clinton, the circulation man of the Astorian took a hand. Clint made a dandy score and had his mouth working in anticipation of bringing home the last and best turkey in the bunch, when Billy Brumbach chipped in with a 45-90 bore Walrus, or Buffalo, of Elephant or Hippo, gun, and made a bull's-eye that looked more like a jail door than a gunshot hole, and collared the plump prize. Clint had clam-chowder for his Thanksgiving dinner, with "turkey" in large cold type on the bill-of-fare; but he had spent his turkey change at the Ilwaco shoot and had been outshot.

OFF FOR HILLSBORO.

Rev. Luther D. Mahone was a passenger on last night's train to Portland. He will appear in the famous "speak-easies" cases in the court in session at Hillsboro today, in the interest of Pacific University. This is another case of encroachment of the gin-mill upon the territory of people who have not the remotest interest in the traffic; a people engaged in a line of life work that is the very antithesis of everything relating to the business of rum; and Mr. Mahone goes there, as an officer and alumnus of the university, to aid in the ousting of the interlopers.

HILTON-BLACKSTOCK.

A pretty little home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hilton at Fernhill, on Thanksgiving eve at 8 o'clock. Their daughter, Miss Grace, and W. E. Blackstock were the contracting parties. The bride was attended by Miss Minnie Lewis and the groom by Mr. James Titus. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and white chrysanthemums. Miss Anne Lewis played the beautiful "Waves of the Ocean" march during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. S. Grim, after which supper and refreshments were served.

On Wednesday and Thursday of this week the Sunday schools of Astoria are to meet in convention for the purposes of organization. The pastors and teachers of the various church schools have outlined a program that will, most interestingly, absorb every moment of the time allotted, and from the nature of the work outlined and the personnel charged with its execution, should result in a strong and enduring organization. Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 23 years choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, Dec. 1st, 1901."

HAND BADLY CUT.

Charles White, the second mate of the steamer Nahcotta met with a disagreeable accident while the boat was landing freight at McGowan's yesterday afternoon. He and the hands were putting a gasoline motor ashore, when by some mischance the heavy thing turned over and fell with a crash, pinning White's right hand against the sharp edge of a nearby bulkhead, and cutting it clear through the cushion of muscles, from the palm to the back of the hand. He was placed under a surgeon's care as soon as the boat reached this city, but it will be sometime before he can do his usual work.

"POWER OF LOVE."

The Power of Love, better known as "Zaza" was the play presented at Fisher's last night by Georgia Harper and company. A large sized audience was present and seemed to enjoy every moment, the play is one of the best yet produced by this favorite actress. It is just beginning to dawn on the theatre goers that a first class actress is in town and they are taking advantage of the opportunity of seeing her. Miss Harper's portrayal of the leading part last night was one that was true to nature and to art and added many more to her list of admirers here. Tonight the popular drama "Madga" will be put on. This is considered by many to be Miss Harper's greatest creation. The Mail, a daily paper of Woodland, Cal., says: "Miss Georgia Harper is the equal if not the superior of Nance O'Neil as Madga and her performance last night gave better satisfaction than did Miss O'Neil when she produced the same play here several seasons ago." A souvenir matinee will be given Saturday at 2:30 and the company's engagement will conclude with a comedy bill Saturday night, entitled "Niobt." Seats on sale at Hoeller's.

Remarkable Cure.

"I was afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me."

I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Hart's drug store.
