

THE UNIONISTS DISAGREE

Ranks of Unionist Party Are Divided.

FACT ACKNOWLEDGED

Chamberlain and Balfour Are at Outs Over the Leadership Question.

NEW PARTY MAY BE FORMED

It is Possible Chamberlain Will Withdraw Adhesion to Balfour and Form Separate Party on Tariff Reform—Party Division Sensation of Hour.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—That there is a split in the Unionist party is recognized as an existing fact by Unionist newspapers this morning. They say it is definitely known that Balfour and Chamberlain have agreed to disagree and it is believed Chamberlain will withdraw his adhesion to Balfour and organize a separate party on tariff reform. This, the newspapers admit, is now the only course open to Chamberlain unless Balfour decides to call a meeting of the party and allow its members to decide the question of leadership. The whole question forms the political sensation of the hour and nothing else is discussed in the political clubs.

WILL ISSUE ORDER.

United Mine Workers Will Call Strike For April First.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 4.—It was intimated at the national headquarters of United Mine Workers today that before the adjournment of the executive board, Secretary and Treasurer Wilson will be instructed to prepare a formal strike order, to be effective on April 1st, in order to avoid reassembling the board.

An interesting situation has come about as a result of the passage of the resolution by the national convention. The mine workers officials interpret it to mean every district whether anthracite or bituminous. Under this ruling the wage scale committee appointed at Shamokin will have no power to sign a contract, even if the demands are acceded to by the anthracite operators unless the members of all other districts effect an agreement with their employers.

SEE THE BULL FIGHT

Moroccan Delegates Witness a Little Spanish Sport.

WAS A SANGUINARY AFFAIR

American and British Legations Did Not Attend the Spectacle—Five Horses Killed and Two Bulls—Six Thousand People Are Present.

ALGECIRAS, Feb. 4.—A brilliant though bloody spectacle of a bullfight in honor of the Moroccan conference was the event of today. Crowds came from all parts of Andalusia more than 6000 seeing the fight. A box, gaily decorated with Spanish colors, accommodated the ambassadors and officials of many countries. Most of the delegations were represented and many envoys were accompanied by their wives and daughters. The American and British legations did not attend. The first animal brought into the ring killed two horses before the matador could drive his sword to the hilt into the animal, which fell dead. Thousands cheered and the bands played a Spanish fandango. The second bull proved an ugly fighter. This bull was also despatched. Another bull killed five horses, four dying in the arena and the fifth, terribly gored, staggered outside and died. None of the pleaders are seriously hurt. Foreigners witnessed the scene in mingled admiration at the audacity of the matadors and in horror at the cruelty.

RATE BILL DISCUSSION UP ONCE MORE

HOUSE WILL CONSIDER THE BILL THIS WEEK

End of Railroad Rate Argument Not In Sight—Pension and Fortification Bills Next—Senate Has Shipping Bill This Week.

SENATOR BACON TO REVIVE MOROCCO QUESTION TUESDAY

HOUSE WILL TAKE UP RATE BILL AGAIN AS MANY DESIRE TO BE HEARD ON THE SUBJECT—SENATE MAY DISCUSS THE SHIPPING BILL COMING WEEK—MOROCCO QUESTION TO COME UP—MOROCCO CONFERENCE EXPECTED TO REACH A CRISIS IN A FEW DAYS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Chairman Hepburn in charge of the railroad rate legislation in the House is unable to see an end to the discussion of that measure. Under a special order it has the right of way until disposed of. Hepburn has a long list of Republicans anxious to be heard and Adamson, controlling the time on the minority side, says fifty Democrats want to speak in the bill's favor. Speaker Cannon is inclined to let the debate run. It is estimated it will be the latter part of the week before the last speech is delivered. The pension bill will follow the rate bill and as soon as this is out of the way the fortification bill, which will be reported today from the committee, will be considered. Friends of the shipping bill in the Senate hope to secure during the present week an agreement to vote on that measure, and it is understood that as soon as it is disposed of, the Statehood bill will succeed it, as unfinished business. The urgent deficiency bill will be taken up by the committee early in the week and probably will be reported a few days later. The provision of this bill which will be most debated is the abrogation of the eight-hour law on the canal zone. Bacon will revive the Morocco question in a speech Tuesday. Scott will speak Wednesday in support of a bill giving pensionable status to telegraphers employed by the union forces in the civil war. Foraker will take opportunity in the first executive session to secure a consideration of the Isle of Pines treaty. The death of King Christian the IX has cast a shadow over so many courts of Europe as to make this a period of almost universal mourning, but the important events which can be forecast, will not be affected by his death. Progress is being slowly made at Algieras and the delegates are apparently more in accord than at any previous time. The two nations most concerned, Germany and France, still seem loath to consider the main issue, that of policing Morocco.
