ROOTING AGAIN.

The Porcine spirit of Portland is on exhibition once more, in its new venture to inaugurate an "Industrial Fair" there, during the fall of 1906.

WAR! WAR! WAR!!!

There are rising rumors of war. War between Germany and France, over the Moroccan dispute. War between the United States and China, over the race hatred demonstrations by the Orientals toward the Americans.

TROUBLE ENOUGH!

The Oregonian is publishing a number of articles on the primary election law, with reference to its bearing upon the election of United States Senator.

FAR FETCHED THEORY.

It is stated on apparently good authority that Harry Orchard now under arrest in Idaho charged with complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, was a spy in the employ of the Colorado Mine Owners' Association up to the day of the blowing up of the railroad station at Independence.

A woman's idea of a true fortune teller, is one who tells her only what she wants to hear.—Chicago News.

The mottoes of three States of the Union embody the sentiment, "Liberty and Independence," to wit, Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, but the last State prefaces it with "Virtue."

That All Important Bath Room

You have often heard people remark "If I were ever to build, I would plan my bath room first and would not put all my money into the parlor with all its finery." That is good common sense sentiment, for the bath room is the most important of all the household.
